

SCORE DEAD IN CANADIAN HEAD-ON TRAIN CRASH

The Brainerd Daily Dispatch

Volume 28, Number 244

Full Licensed Wire Service of United Press Association

BRainerd, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1929

Printed on Paper Made in Brainerd

Price Three Cents

WAR COMMANDER SUCCUMBS

FIELD MARSHAL FOCH DIES AT HIS HOME IN PARIS

WAS WORLD'S MOST BRILLIANT
MODERN MILITARY
STRATEGIST

SURRENDERED TO DEATH ONLY
AFTER BATTLING TO LAST
OUNCE OF STRENGTH

By RALPH HEINZEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Paris, March 20.—Field Marshal Ferdinand Foch, supreme commander of the Allied Armies in the world war, and probably the world's most brilliant modern military strategist, died at his home here today. He was 77 years old.

The mild little Frenchman who never before had known actual defeat, surrendered to death only after he had battled to the last ounce of strength in his slender, shrunken body.

Heart trouble and complications which developed into uremia caused his death.

Only a short time before his death a priest had been sent to give him the last sacrament.

Death came at 5:55 P. M. Earlier in the day it had been announced that the marshal passed a more comfortable night but that his heart had proved troublesome after weakening for several days. His lungs apparently were clear, the morning bulletin said, with his temperature 99 and his pulse 92.

Madame Foch, General Barretier and Major Bugnet were at the bedside when the end came. The general and the major had called to pay their respects.

Marshal Foch's end came suddenly and unexpectedly, despite the fact that he had been hovering near death many weeks. Death struck after an entire day of apparent improvement.

Everything was extremely quiet in the little household as the crisis neared. Madame Foch and the male nurse were sitting just outside the marshal's room when they heard Foch gasp with pain.

A hurried step to the bedside impressed them with the need for haste. Madame Foch called the doctors, the priest and Weygand.

Within twenty minutes of the time that the wife and the nurse had heard the gasp of pain, the grand marshal of the French army was dead.

The generalissimo of all the allied forces in the world war fought valiantly against the great adversary, death, until the final moment. Not until all hope had finally been relinquished was the priest summoned to administer the last sacrament. Observers saw the priest enter the marshal's home and leave again several minutes later. Almost simultaneously the announcement of his death sped out to the waiting world which has for several months watched news dispatches anxiously for signs of improvement in the great soldier's condition.

As soon as the news of his death became known, crowds began gathering outside the house to pay silent tribute to the dead war leader.

At first, only a few intimate friends were apprised of his passing, but gradually the word spread, carrying with it the deepest mourning. Business was practically at a standstill as shopkeepers and public alike mourned.

Born at Tarbes, Oct. 2, 1851, Foch narrowly escaped—"by the grace of God," he said—being a German. His father was a civil official of Tarbes and his mother the daughter of an officer of Napoleon's army. He was educated at Metz in Lorraine.

After the Franco-Prussian war, Lorraine was annexed to Germany, but young Foch immediately moved from his home to French territory. He lived to see Lorraine returned to France.

Although he joined the army in the Franco-Prussian war, he did no fighting. He actually started his military career when he received his commission in the army in 1873 and joined an artillery group.

His rise was rapid and soon he was working with the general staff of the army and the Ecole de Guerre. In 1898 he became a lieutenant-colonel and professor of military history.

(Continued on page 6)

NEBRASKA SISTERS, NEIGHBORS, VISIT AFTER 38 YEARS

Omaha, Neb., March 20.—(U.P.)—Although they lived but 40 miles apart, two Nebraska sisters—Mrs. C. C. Bretz, Fremont, and Mrs. A. P. Crocker, Omaha, saw each other for the first time in 38 years here this week. Mrs. Bretz called all the Crockers listed in the telephone directory before finding her sister.

REAL STORY BOOK ROMANCE IN SCANDINAVIA

UNITES PENINSULA IN A FRENZY
OF POPULAR ENTHUSIASM

PRINCESS MARTHA OF SWEDEN
TO BECOME BRIDE OF PRINCE
OLAF OF NORWAY

By OLAF MYRE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Oslo, Norway, March 20.—A real story-book royal romance which, happily, holds a promise of far-reaching international political benefits, united the Scandinavian peninsula in a frenzy of popular enthusiasm today.

Thrilled by the prospect of its first royal wedding in 340 years, the brightly decorated city of Oslo continued its acclaim of a foreign princess, Martha of Sweden, who will become the bride of Crown Prince Olaf of Norway tomorrow.

More than 50,000 visitors joined the population of the capital in a great, spontaneous demonstration of fidelity to the dark-eyed girl who some day may be queen of Norway.

Although most of the thousands who cheered the bridal couple at every opportunity were thrilled by the knowledge that the marriage of Norway's prince and Sweden's princess was a true love match. The political observer found cause for great satisfaction in prospects of further strengthening relations between the two kingdoms which chose divergent paths more than 25 years ago.

The great enthusiasm which greeted the royal bridal couple on the trip from Stockholm to Oslo was believed to be the fore-runner of a decided strengthening of goodwill throughout the peninsula. It was understood royal visits probably would be exchanged in the near future.

The bells that announce the wedding will be a signal for widespread rejoicing, feasting and drinking that will continue long after Prince Olaf and Princess Martha are well on their way to the French Riviera for their honeymoon.

The last royal wedding here was the marriage of King James VI of Scotland and Princess Anne of Denmark and Norway in 1589.

Chemists Probe Death of 50,000 Bees at Cleveland

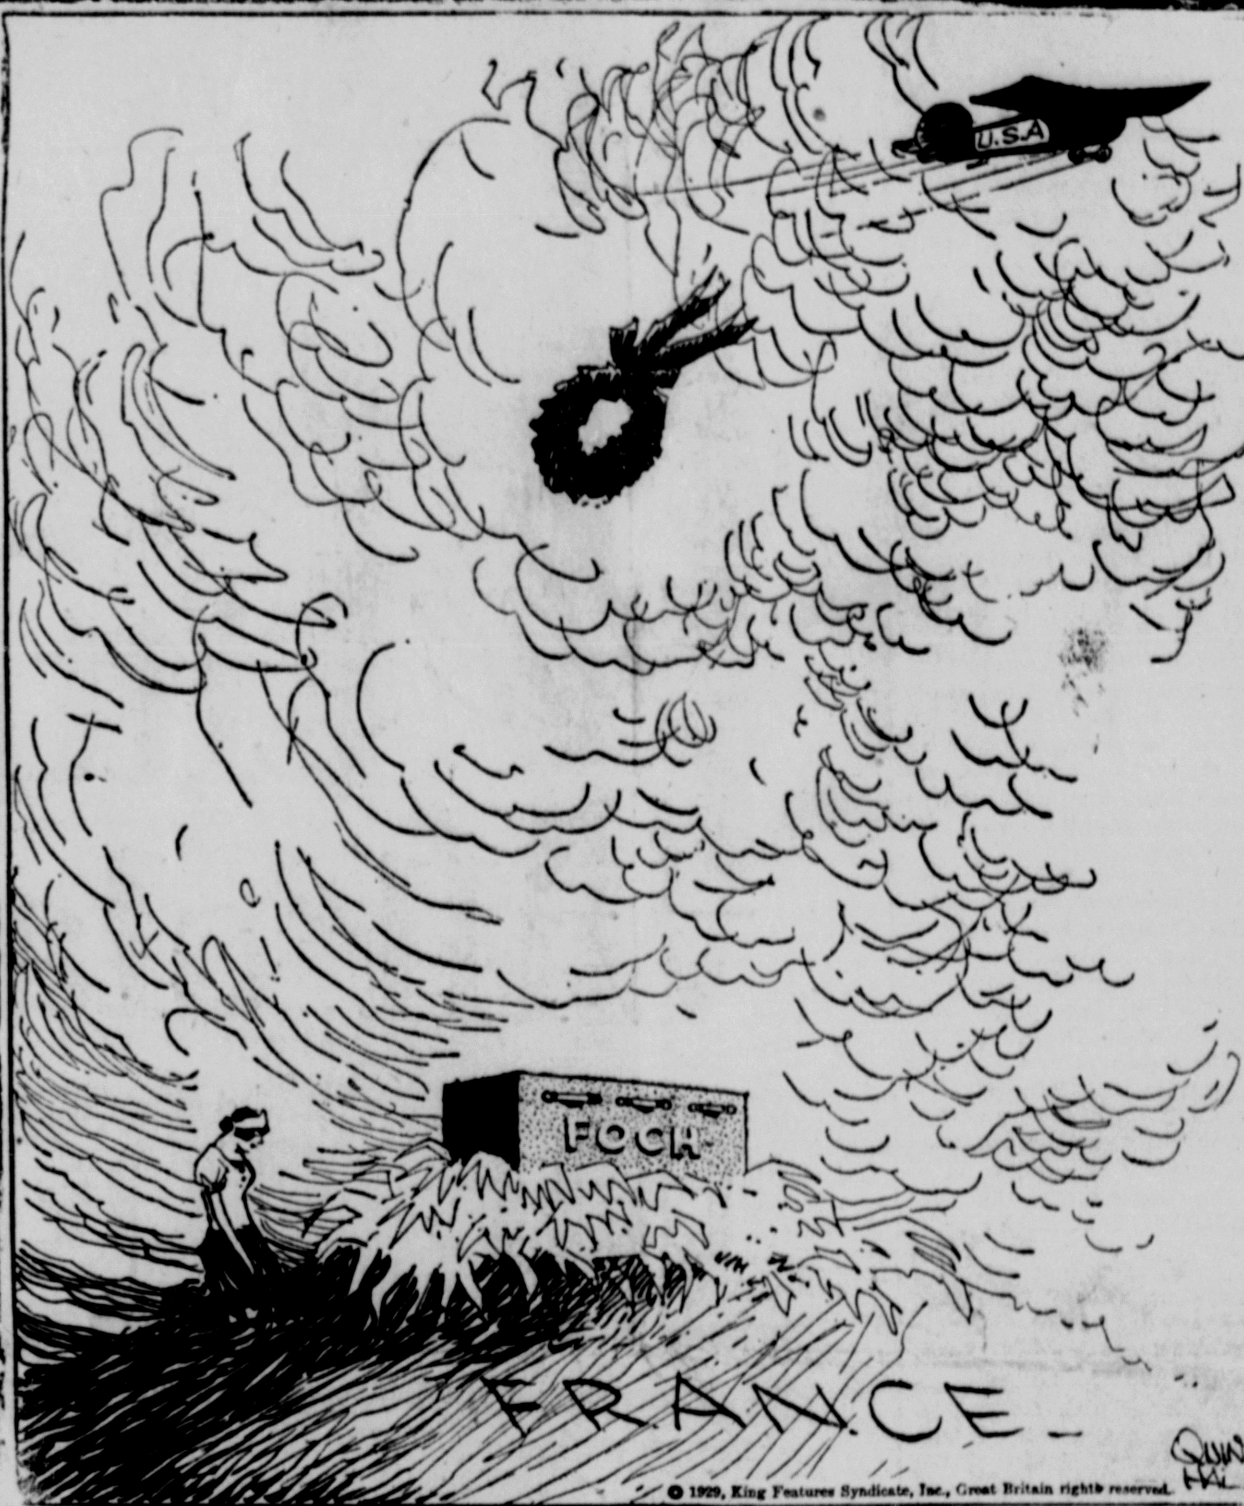

Cleveland, O., March 20.—(U.P.)—City chemists today were investigating an unusual case—one that took 50,000 lives Saturday. The 50,000 were dead bees in the house of Joseph Tyukody who claimed the honey makers had been poisoned with copper sulphate tubes.

BYRD FINDS TRIO SAFE AND WELL IN ICE FIELD

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—The New York Times and St. Louis Post-Dispatch announced today that Commander Richard E. Byrd had flown to the rescue of three members of his Antarctic expedition who had been forced down on the ice, and had found them safe and well.

Larry Gould, Bernt Balchen and Harold Gurnee, who started from the expedition's base for a flight over the Rockefeller mountains, had encountered a severe storm which crippled their plane. They were unable to communicate with Byrd by radio and the rescue flight was undertaken to determine their plight.

ON FAME'S ETERNAL CAMPING GROUNDS

American Adherence to World Court Is Yet Long Way Off, Despite Root Negotiations

A BACKSTAGE OPPOSITION MAY DEVELOP

MAY BE LED BY SEN. BORAH OF
FOREIGN RELATIONS COM-MITTEE OF SENATE

NOTICE IS SERVED PRIVATELY
SUBJECT CAN'T BE SQUEEZED
INTO SHORT SESSION

By PAUL R. MALLON
Washington, March 20.—American adherence to the world court is yet a long way off despite the successful conclusions of the Root negotiations at Geneva, congressional authorities agreed today.

A backstage opposition to the agreement which may be led by Chairman Borah of the senate foreign relations committee has grown up and notice has been served privately the subject cannot be squeezed into the coming short session. Action upon it, therefore, may await the regular session of congress beginning next December.

If no opposition had developed the matter could be handled probably within the next few months, but now it appears it may not come up for a year.

In the meantime any nation which is a party to the court or a member of the council of the League of Nations could thwart the whole procedure by objecting to the Root arrangement which gives the United States the right to stop any decision from the court in which it claims an interest.

Ordinarily the other nations would wait to see what action the senate takes here in accepting the Root modifications of the original reservations and if this procedure is followed the matter might not be laid before the other powers until 1930.

An overwhelming majority of the

Marshal Foch

GANGSTERS SLAY COUPLE IN THEIR NEW YORK HOME

SMASH THEIR WAY THROUGH AN IRON-SHEETED DOOR TO COMMIT DEED

SOON AFTERWARD FIRE & SHOTS
AT MAN NEAR RESTAURANT,
KILLING HIM

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—Gangsters took three lives here today. They smashed down an iron-sheeted door and murdered Emanuel Sacco and his wife, Rose, in their home in Astoria, shortly before 8 A. M.

Soon afterward an unidentified assailant standing in a nearby doorway fired six shots at James Donofio, 28, as he stood talking with companions in front of a restaurant in Greenwich village. Three bullets struck Donofio.

The assassin escaped and Donofio died in a taxicab enroute to a hospital.

New York, March 20.—Gangsters who smashed their way through an iron-sheeted door murdered Samuel Sacco and his wife, Rose, in their home in Astoria today.

Police believed that persons who were implicated in a slaying for which Sacco served a prison sentence were responsible for the double murder today.

Pilot is Drowned When Plane Crashes Into Sea

Marseilles, France, March 20.—(U.P.)—One pilot was drowned and four other men were dragged from the wreckage and saved when an airplane of a squadron returning to Berre, 16 miles southeast of here, after maneuvers, crashed into the sea in the darkness.

$722,000,000 BANK MERGER IN NEW YORK CITY

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—The Central Union Trust company and the Hanover National Bank will merge to form an institution with resources of $722,000,000. The transaction between the two banks, which have been prominent in Wall street since the civil war, will be made on the basis of a stock exchange.

LAW ENFORCEMENT COMMISSION IS TO BE BALANCED ONE

TO DEAL WITH ALL LAWS AND
NOT JUST SINGLE OUT THE
DRY ACT

CHIEF DIFFICULTY IN LAW EN-FORCEMENT ARISES FROM LIQUOR LAWS

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 20.—While federal enforcement agencies are making preparations for their most supreme effort to enforce prohibition effectively, President Hoover is seeking to balance his law enforcement commission so it will deal with all laws and not single out the dry act.

President Hoover regards the enforcement of all laws as vital and is opposed to singling out the prohibition law as a special favorite of enforcement agencies.

Nevertheless, the chief difficulty in the law enforcement situation arises from the prohibition laws and attention will be concentrated on that. However, there will be no sporadic "drive" but a sustained effort lasting indefinitely.

Prohibition has become a more acute subject of discussion here than anything else, due to the general feeling Mr. Hoover is going to put the law to its supreme test.

Evidences of a tightening up are seen everywhere, from the restrictions thrown around the importation of diplomatic liquor and the preparations of the prohibition bureau for educational activities and expansion of personnel down to the new drastic padlock order for the local police department.

Some federal officials who hitherto have held the Volstead act lightly, have suddenly climbed aboard the waterwagon and are conspicuously turning down their glasses at parties where cocktails are served.

The $50,000 educational campaign now being planned by the prohibition bureau will be national in scope and has three chief objects, Assistant Secretary Seymour Lowman said today.

These objects are:
"To obtain further co-operation from state officials.

"Emphasize the importance of law enforcement.

"Educate the public on what is being done."

Treasury officials believe, Lowman said, the wet side of the prohibition controversy has been fully presented by the newspapers and they desire to obtain similar publicity for the dry viewpoint.

BENCH WARRANT OUT FOR GERTRUDE EDERLE ON SPEEDING CHARGE

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—Gertrude Ederle today ignored a speeding summons once too often, and a bench warrant was issued for her arrest.

The English channel swimmer was to have appeared in traffic court today to answer a summons for speeding on Riverside Drive last February. She had ignored the summons often before and did so today.

MOROCCO SEEKING TO QUELL AN INSURRECTION

Fez, Morocco, March 20.—(U.P.)—Three squadrons of infantry, accompanied by a battalion of cavalry, machine guns and airplanes are preparing to move against insurrectionists within the next 10 days, it became known today.

CRACK C. N. TRAINS PILE UP; WORKERS RUSH TO RESCUE

COLONISTS TRAPPED IN BURNING
CAR; COMMUNICATIONS
CUT OFF

EMERGENCY TRAINS SPEED TO
SCENE OF DISASTER NEAR
DORCOURT, ONT.

Montreal, March 20.—(U.P.)—Four employees and from 15 to 17 passengers were killed today in a crash of westbound train No. 3 and eastbound train No. 4 of the Canadian National railways at Dorcourt, Ont., headquarters of the road were advised this afternoon.

All of the passengers killed were reported to have burned to death in a single car of the westbound train, bearing them from Toronto to Winnipeg for settlement in the Canadian west.

Although the accident occurred at 3:58 A. M., details still were lacking here because the wreck tore down telegraph wires. Investigation was ordered of the cause of the wreck and the manner in which the colonists' car was ignited.

The number of injured was not determined. The casualty list as learned so far follows: The dead:

Conductor Barsted.
Brakeman Ferguson.
Brakeman White.
News Agent Filler.

Toronto, March 20.—(U.P.)—Officials of the Canadian National railway announced late today that the death toll in the crash of a westbound and eastbound train at Dorcourt, Ont., this morning had mounted to 19 and that three persons were injured.

Earlier the officials had notified Montreal headquarters that 17 were dead.

Fifteen of those killed burned to death, the statement said.

Gen. Supt. W. T. Woodie was on his way to determine the cause of the wreck and the fire that followed, the statement continued, adding that several injured persons were being taken to hospitals.

"The two trains had orders to meet at Dorcourt and apparently train No. 3 (the westbound train) overran the meeting point," the statement said.

The crash, which occurred at 3:58, according to reports received here was between the Vancouver-bound and the Toronto-bound "Nationals," two of the fastest passenger trains in the service.

One of the cars caught fire, burning many to death.

Three emergency trains, bearing doctors and nurses, started from Toronto, Sudbury and Parry Sound as soon as word of the wreck was received.

SENATOR C. E. ADAMS ELECTED PRESIDENT PRO-TEM OF SENATE

St. Paul, March 20.—(U.P.)—Senator Charles E. Adams, Duluth, today was unanimously elected president pro-tem of the Minnesota senate.

The Duluth legislator has been a member of the upper house since 1915. He began a law practice in the lake port in 1900 after his graduation from the University of Minnesota.

Senator Adams came to the middle west from Boston, his birthplace, at the age of 15 years. He attended public school at Fargo, was a graduate of Fargo college and from 1896 to 1898 was superintendent of schools at Granite Falls.

State Senator McKnight Candidate for Congress

St. Paul, March 20.—(U.P.)—State Senator Sumner T. McKnight, Minneapolis, today announced that he was a candidate for the congressional seat of Rep. Walter H. Newton, who recently was appointed administrative secretary to President Hoover.

Lieutenant Governor W. I. Nolan, on Tuesday, declared that he was a candidate for the Newton seat.

A half dozen others are expected soon to make similar declarations.

SCORE DEAD IN CANADIAN HEAD-ON TRAIN CRASH

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

Volume 28, Number 244

Full Leased Wire Service of United Press Association

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1929

Printed on Paper Made in Brainerd

Price Three Cents

WAR COMMANDER SUCCUMBS

FIELD MARSHAL FOCH DIES AT HIS HOME IN PARIS

WAS WORLD'S MOST BRILLIANT
MODERN MILITARY
STRATEGIST

SURRENDERED TO DEATH ONLY
AFTER BATTLING TO LAST
OUNCE OF STRENGTH

By RALPH HEINZEN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Paris, March 20.—Field Marshal Ferdinand Foch, supreme commander of the Allied Armies in the world war, and probably the world's most brilliant modern military strategist, died at his home here today. He was 77 years old.

The mild little Frenchman who never before had known actual defeat, surrendered to death only after he had battled to the last ounce of strength in his slender, shrunken body.

Heart trouble and complications which developed into uremia caused his death.

Only a short time before his death a priest had been sent to give him the last sacrament.

Death came at 5:55 P. M.

Earlier in the day it had been announced that the marshal passed a more comfortable night but that his heart had proved troublesome after weakening for several days. His lungs apparently were clear, the morning bulletin said, with his temperature 99 and his pulse 92.

Madame Foch, General Barretjer and Major Bugnet were at the bedside when the end came. The general and the major had called to pay their respects.

Marshal Foch's end came suddenly and unexpectedly, despite the fact that he had been hovering near death many weeks. Death struck after an entire day of apparent improvement.

Everything was extremely quiet in the little household as the crisis neared. Madame Foch and the male nurse were sitting just outside the marshal's room when they heard Foch gasp with pain.

A hurried step to the bedside impressed them with the need for haste. Madame Foch called the doctors, the priest and Weygand.

Within twenty minutes of the time that the wife and the nurse had heard the gasp of pain, the grand marshal of the French army was dead.

The generalissimo of all the allied forces in the world war fought valiantly against the great adversary, death, until the final moment. Not until all hope had finally been relinquished was the priest summoned to administer the last sacrament. Observers saw the priest enter the marshal's home and leave again several minutes later. Almost simultaneously the announcement of his death sped out to the waiting world which has for several months watched news dispatches anxiously for signs of improvement in the great soldier's condition.

As soon as the news of his death became known, crowds began gathering outside the house to pay silent tribute to the dead war leader.

At first, only a few intimate friends were apprised of his passing, but gradually the word spread, carrying with it the deepest mourning. Business was practically at a standstill as shopkeepers and public alike mourned.

Born at Tarbes, Oct. 2, 1851, Foch narrowly escaped—"by the grace of God," he said—being a German. His father was a civil official of Tarbes and his mother the daughter of an officer of Napoleon's army. He was educated at Metz in Lorraine.

After the Franco-Prussian war, Lorraine was annexed to Germany, but young Foch immediately moved from his home to French territory. He lived to see Lorraine returned to France.

Although he joined the army in the Franco-Prussian war, he did no fighting. He actually started his military career when he received his commission in the army in 1873 and joined an artillery group.

His rise was rapid and soon he was working with the general staff of the army and the Ecole de Guerre. In 1898 he became a lieutenant-colonel and professor of military history.

(Continued on page 6)

NEBRASKA SISTERS, NEIGHBORS, VISIT AFTER 38 YEARS

Omaha, Neb., March 20.—(U.P.)—Although they lived but 40 miles apart, two Nebraska sisters—Mrs. C. C. Bretz, Fremont, and Mrs. A. P. Crocker, Omaha, saw each other for the first time in 38 years here this week. Mrs. Bretz called all the Crockers listed in the telephone directory before finding her sister.

REAL STORY BOOK ROMANCE IN SCANDINAVIA

UNITES PENINSULA IN A FRENZY
OF POPULAR ENTHUSIASM

PRINCESS MARTHA OF SWEDEN
TO BECOME BRIDE OF PRINCE
OLAF OF NORWAY

By OLAF MYRE

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Oslo, Norway, March 20.—A real story-book royal romance which, happily, holds a promise of far-reaching international political benefits, united the Scandinavian peninsula in a frenzy of popular enthusiasm today.

Thrilled by the prospect of its first royal wedding in 340 years, the brightly decorated city of Oslo continued its acclaim of a foreign princess, Martha of Sweden, who will become the bride of Crown Prince Olaf of Norway tomorrow.

More than 50,000 visitors joined the population of the capital in a great, spontaneous demonstration of fidelity to the dark-eyed girl who some day may be queen of Norway.

Although most of the thousands who cheered the bridal couple at every opportunity were thrilled by the knowledge that the marriage of Norway's prince and Sweden's princess was a true love match, the political observer found cause for great satisfaction in prospects of further strengthening relations between the two kingdoms which chose divergent paths more than 25 years ago.

The great enthusiasm which greeted the royal bridal couple on the trip from Stockholm to Oslo was believed to be the forerunner of a decided strengthening of goodwill throughout the peninsula. It was understood royal visits probably would be exchanged in the near future.

The bells that announce the wedding will be a signal for widespread rejoicing, feasting and drinking that will continue long after Prince Olaf and Princess Martha are well on their way to the French Riviera for their honeymoon.

The last royal wedding here was the marriage of King James VI of Scotland and Princess Anne of Denmark and Norway in 1589.

Chemists Probe Death of 50,000 Bees at Cleveland

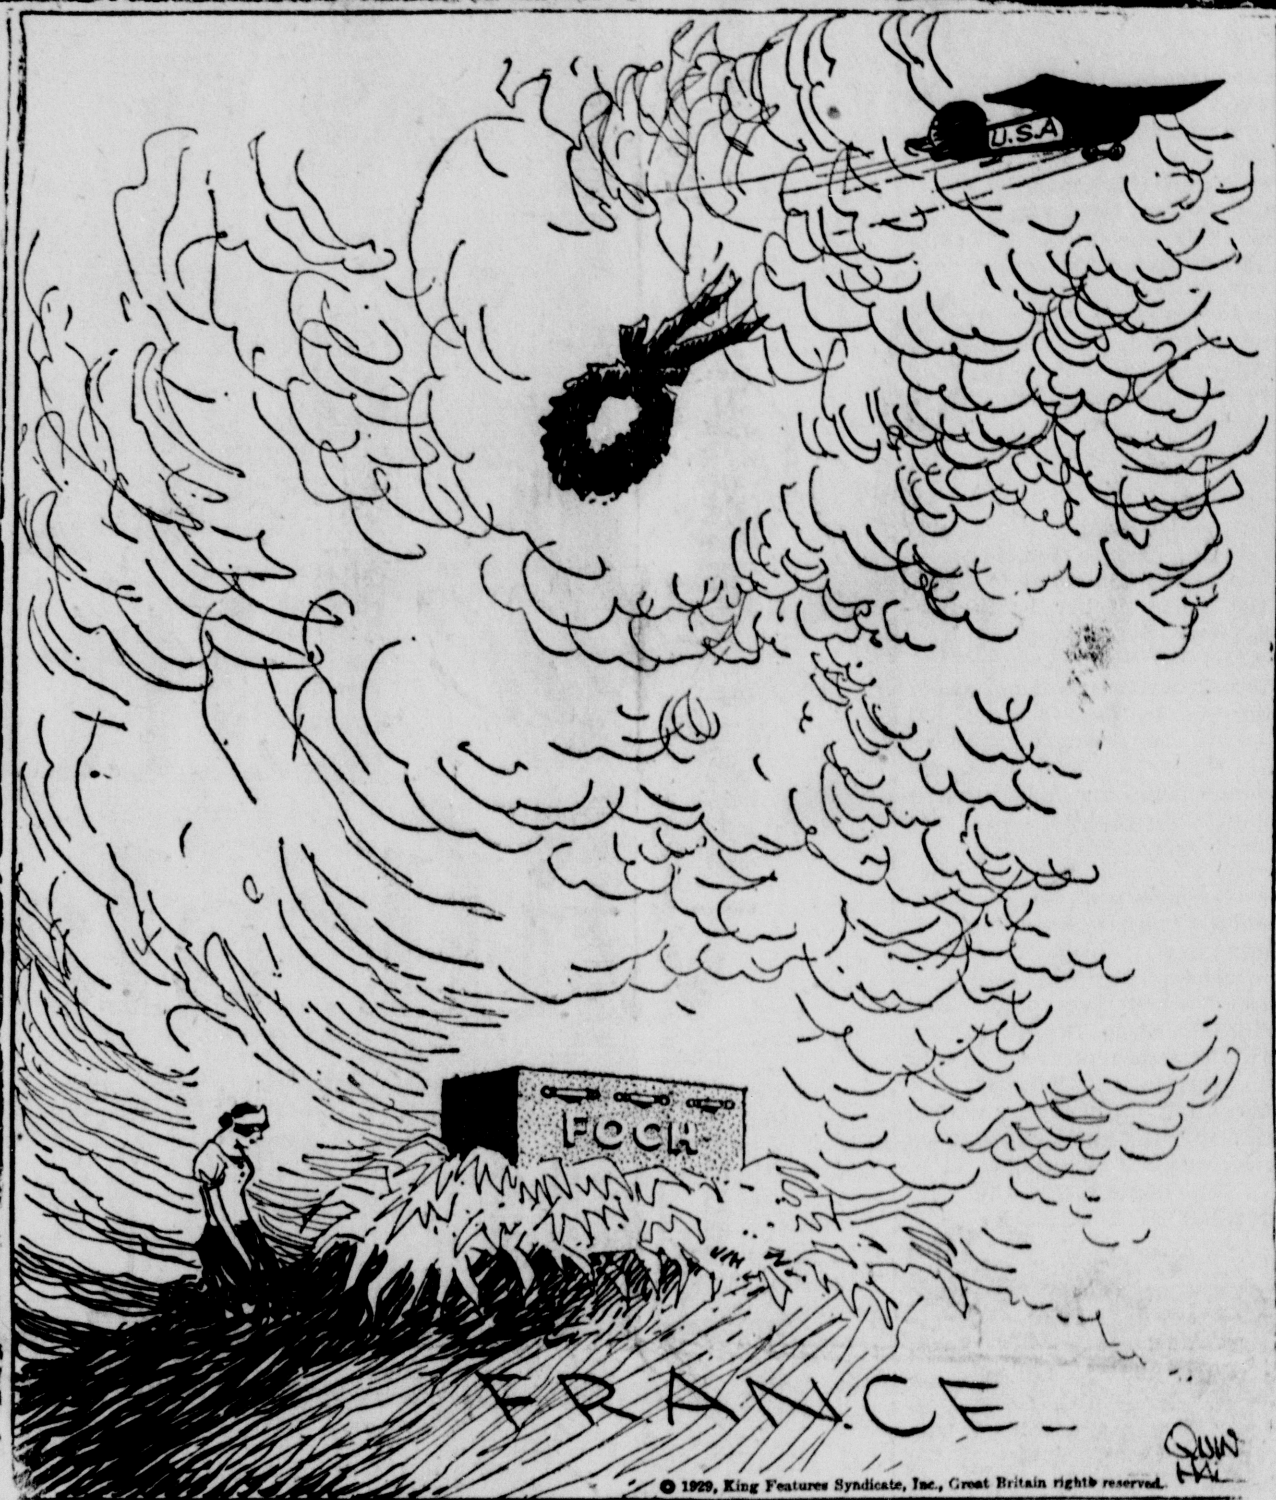

Cleveland, O., March 20.—(U.P.)—City chemists today were investigating an unusual case—one that took 50,000 lives Saturday. The 50,000 were dead bees in the house of Joseph Tyukody who claimed the honey makers had been poisoned with copper sulphate tubes.

BYRD FINDS TRIO SAFE AND WELL IN ICE FIELD

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—The New York Times and St. Louis Post-Dispatch announced today that Commander Richard E. Byrd had flown to the rescue of three members of his Antarctic expedition who had been forced down on the ice, and had found them safe and well.

Larry Gould, Bernt Balchen and Harold Gode, who started from the expedition's base for a flight over the Rockefeller mountains, had encountered a severe storm which crippled their plane. They were unable to communicate with Byrd by radio and the rescue flight was undertaken to determine their plight.

ON FAME'S ETERNAL CAMPING GROUNDS

American Adherence to World Court Is Yet Long Way Off, Despite Root Negotiations

A BACKSTAGE OPPOSITION MAY DEVELOP

MAY BE LED BY SEN. BORAH OF
FOREIGN RELATIONS COM-
MITTEE OF SENATE

NOTICE IS SERVED PRIVATELY
SUBJECT CAN'T BE SQUEEZED
INTO SHORT SESSION

By PAUL R. MALLON

Washington, March 20.—American adherence to the world court is yet a long way off despite the successful conclusions of the Root negotiations at Geneva, congressional authorities agreed today.

A backstage opposition to the agreement which may be led by Chairman Borah of the senate foreign relations committee has grown up and notice has been served privately the subject cannot be squeezed into the coming short session. Action upon it, therefore, may await the regular session of congress beginning next December.

If no opposition had developed the matter could be handled probably within the next few months, but now it appears it may not come up for a year.

In the meantime any nation which is a party to the court or a member of the council of the League of Nations could thwart the whole procedure by objecting to the Root arrangement which gives the United States the right to stop any decision from the court in which it claims an interest.

Ordinarily the other nations would wait to see what action the senate takes here in accepting the Root modifications of the original reservations and if this procedure is followed the matter might not be laid before the other powers until 1930.

An overwhelming majority of the senate appears favorable to the agreement which thus far has been only privately opposed by some of the senators who voted against the court.

Marshal Foch

Court advocates believe they could therefore force ratification of the Root agreement if they could bring it to a vote.

GANGSTERS SLAY COUPLE IN THEIR NEW YORK HOME

SMASH THEIR WAY THROUGH AN IRON-SHEETED DOOR TO COMMIT DEED

SOON AFTERWARD FIRE 6 SHOTS
AT MAN NEAR RESTAURANT,
KILLING HIM

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—Gangsters took three lives here today. They smashed down an iron-sheeted door and murdered Emanuel Sacco and his wife, Rose, in their home in Astoria, shortly before 8 A. M.

Soon afterward an unidentified assailant standing in a nearby doorway fired six shots at James Donofio, 28, as he stood talking with companions in front of a restaurant in Greenwich village. Three bullets struck Donofio.

The assassin escaped and Donofio died in a taxicab enroute to a hospital.

New York, March 20.—Gangsters who smashed their way through an iron-sheeted door murdered Samuel Sacco and his wife, Rose, in their home in Astoria today.

Police believed that persons who were implicated in a slaying for which Sacco served a prison sentence were responsible for the double murder today.

Pilot is Drowned When Plane Crashes Into Sea

Marseilles, France, March 20.—(U.P.)—One pilot was drowned and four other men were dragged from the wreckage and saved when an airplane of a squadron returning to Berre, 16 miles southeast of here, after maneuvers, crashed into the sea in the darkness.

$722,000,000 BANK MERGER IN NEW YORK CITY

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—The Central Union Trust company and the Hanover National Bank will merge to form an institution with resources of $722,000,000. The transaction between the two banks, which have been prominent in Wall street since the civil war, will be made on the basis of a stock exchange.

LAW ENFORCEMENT COMMISSION IS TO BE BALANCED ONE

TO DEAL WITH ALL LAWS AND
NOT JUST SINGLE OUT THE
DRY ACT

CHIEF DIFFICULTY IN LAW EN-FORCEMENT ARISES FROM
LIQUOR LAWS

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 20.—While federal enforcement agencies are making preparations for their most supreme effort to enforce prohibition effectively, President Hoover is seeking to balance his law enforcement commission so it will deal with all laws and not single out the dry act.

President Hoover regards the enforcement of all laws as vital and is opposed to singling out the prohibition law as a special favorite of enforcement agencies.

Nevertheless, the chief difficulty in the law enforcement situation arises from the prohibition laws and attention will be concentrated on that. However, there will be no sporadic "drive" but a sustained effort lasting indefinitely.

Prohibition has become a more acute subject of discussion here than anything else, due to the general feeling Mr. Hoover is going to put the law to its supreme test.

Evidences of a tightening up are seen everywhere, from the restrictions thrown around the importation of diplomatic liquor and the preparations of the prohibition bureau for educational activities and expansion of personnel down to the new drastic padlock order for the local police department.

Some federal officials who hitherto have held the Volstead act lightly, have suddenly climbed aboard the waterwagon and are conspicuously turning down their glasses at parties where cocktails are served.

The $50,000 educational campaign now being planned by the prohibition bureau will be national in scope and has three chief objects, Assistant Secretary Seymour Lowman said today.

These objects are:
"To obtain further co-operation from state officials.

"Emphasize the importance of law enforcement.

"Educate the public on what is being done."

Treasury officials believe, Lowman said, the wet side of the prohibition controversy has been fully presented by the newspapers and they desire to obtain similar publicity for the dry viewpoint.

BENCH WARRANT OUT FOR GERTRUDE EDERLE ON SPEEDING CHARGE

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—Gertrude Ederle today ignored a speeding summons once too often, and a bench warrant was issued for her arrest.

The English channel swimmer was to have appeared in traffic court today to answer a summons for speeding on Riverside Drive last February. She had ignored the summons often before and did so today.

MOROCCO SEEKING TO QUELL AN INSURRECTION

Fes, Morocco, March 20.—(U.P.)—Three squadrons of infantry, accompanied by a battalion of cavalry, machine guns and airplanes are preparing to move against insurrectionists within the next 10 days, it became known today.

CRACK C. N. TRAINS PILE UP; WORKERS RUSH TO RESCUE

COLONISTS TRAPPED IN BURNING
CAR; COMMUNICATIONS
CUT OFF

EMERGENCY TRAINS SPEED TO
SCENE OF DISASTER NEAR
DORCOURT, ONT.

Montreal, March 20.—(U.P.)—Four employees and from 15 to 17 passengers were killed today in a crash of westbound train No. 3 and eastbound train No. 4 of the Canadian National railways at Dorcourt, Ont., headquarters of the road were advised this afternoon.

All of the passengers killed were reported to have burned to death in a single car of the westbound train, bearing them from Toronto to Winnipeg for settlement in the Canadian west.

Although the accident occurred at 3:58 A. M., details still were lacking here because the wreck tore down telegraph wires. Investigation was ordered of the cause of the wreck and the manner in which the colonists' car was ignited.

The number of injured was not determined. The casualty list as learned so far follows: The dead:

Conductor Barsted.
Brakeman Ferguson.
Brakeman White.
News Agent Filler.

Toronto, March 20.—(U.P.)—Officials of the Canadian National railway announced late today that the death toll in the crash of a westbound and eastbound train at Dorcourt, Ont., this morning had mounted to 19 and that three persons were injured.

Earlier the officials had notified Montreal headquarters that 17 were dead.

Fifteen of those killed burned to death, the statement said.

Gen. Supt. W. T. Woodie was on his way to determine the cause of the wreck and the fire that followed, the statement continued, adding that several injured persons were being taken to hospitals.

"The two trains had orders to meet at Dorcourt and apparently train No. 3 (the westbound train) overran the meeting point," the statement said.

The crash, which occurred at 3:58, according to reports received here was between the Vancouver-bound and the Toronto-bound "Nationals," two of the fastest passenger trains in the service.

One of the cars caught fire, burning many to death.

Three emergency trains, bearing doctors and nurses, started from Toronto, Sudbury and Parry Sound as soon as word of the wreck was received.

SENATOR C. E. ADAMS ELECTED PRESIDENT PRO-TEM OF SENATE

St. Paul, March 20.—(U.P.)—Senator Charles E. Adams, Duluth, today was unanimously elected president pro-tem of the Minnesota senate.

The Duluth legislator has been a member of the upper house since 1915. He began a law practice in the lake port in 1900 after his graduation from the University of Minnesota.

Senator Adams came to the middle west from Boston, his birthplace, at the age of 15 years. He attended public school at Fargo, was a graduate of Fargo college and from 1896 to 1898 was superintendent of schools at Granite Falls.

State Senator McKnight Candidate for Congress

St. Paul, March 20.—(U.P.)—State Senator Sumner T. McKnight, Minneapolis, today announced that he was a candidate for the congressional seat of Rep. Walter H. Newton, who recently was appointed administrative secretary to President Hoover.

Lieutenant Governor W. I. Nolan, on Tuesday, declared that he was a candidate for the Newton seat.

A half dozen others are expected soon to make similar declarations.

PERSONAL, CLUB and LOCAL NEWS

Telephone 74

The Weather

Minnesota—Unsettled tonight with probably rain or snow in north and east portions; colder in northwest portion; Thursday partly cloudy and colder.

March 19.—High 39, low 22. In evening 31. Northwest wind. Cloudy.

March 20.—Minimum last night 17. At 8 A. M. 23. At noon 30. Southeast wind. Cloudy. Snow.

BULLETIN BOARD

TONIGHT

Odd Fellows—I. O. O. F. hall.
Lions club, 6:15 P. M.—Arlene's Cafe.
City band practice—Court house.
Hi-Y club—Y. M. C. A.
Yeomen—Moose hall.
Men's Brotherhood—M. E. church.
Luther League—Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Missionary society First Congregational church—Church parlors.
Circle No. 2 First Presbyterian church—Social rooms of the church.
Home League—Salvation Army hall.

arrived in the city last evening and is spending the day here on business.

E. F. Meyers of St. Cloud, owner of the Brainerd Laundry, was in the city today attending to business matters.

Fred A. Segler, town clerk of Maple Grove township, called at the court house this morning on business.

Mrs. O. C. Temple left for Bemidji to attend to business matters for a few days. She is also visiting friends here.

Miss Mildred Tibbells of Aitkin is spending the week with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kutz, and Geo. Stanger of Minneapolis attended the funeral of their uncle Anton Weber yesterday.

We have enlarged our stock and are now offering some mighty good buys in both new and used furniture. See us before you buy. Thompson Furniture Co., opposite city hall.

Mrs. George Thomas left today for St. Paul to visit with her daughter who is recovering from a recent operation.

C. O. Roe of Crookston arrived in the city last evening and is spending the day here attending to business matters.

J. C. Poulton, chairman of supervisors of Nokay Lake township, was a business visitor at the court house this morning.

Mrs. J. A. McKay left today for Elbow Lake to attend the annual missionary meeting of the Presbyterian society.

Alfred Anderson of Minneapolis has returned to his home after spending a few days in the city visiting with friends.

For the little fellow, ages 3 to 8, new spring top coats with hats to match. Also Kaynee tweed Oliver Twist shorts. John M. Bye Clothing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Freeman and Miss Agnes Hofer of Isle made a trip to Brainerd and St. Cloud last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Claus of St. Mathias were among those from out of town who visited in Brainerd yesterday afternoon.

Robert Guida and family left this morning for Florence, Minn., where they will make their future home. Mr. Guida will go on a farm at that place.

Special orchestra music at the Lyceum tonight for Lillian Gish in "The Enemy."

E. H. Rhodes, forest ranger, returned last evening from the Spider Lake vicinity, west of Pine River, where he has been on forestry business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dooney and Muriel Clayton, all of St. Cloud, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Vaars, 803 Third avenue northeast.

Robert Trout, living at Philbrook

was in the city yesterday with his brother who is visiting him from Spokane, Wash. They were looking over prospects in Brainerd.

Mrs. Delphine Ohms has returned to her position at the E. F. Gates store after attending the Gossard school of Corsetry in Minneapolis, from which she graduated with high honors, and will be pleased to meet all her old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Villnow motored here from Brainerd Wednesday and were attending to business affairs. The Villnow family lived in the Farm Island community a number of years, where they own a farm, but enjoy their new home in Brainerd.—Aitkin Independent Age.

Notice to Parents—We request that your children will give us our peace. We are too old to be disturbed in our home. If this doesn't change conditions, we will not be responsible how we will handle them hereafter. Andrew Baskala, 1261 Oak street S. E.

Miss Bertha Olson, formerly of Fort Ripley, who has spent the winter at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ekerman of Morrison, went Thursday to the Deerwood sanatorium to accompany her brother, O. K. Olson, to Brainerd for a stomach examination. Mr. Olson has been a patient at the sanatorium for four months and is improving rapidly.—Aitkin Independent Age.

Notice to members Loyal Order Moose 1246—Annual Stag Party at the Moose hall, March 22, 1929. There will be Brother James J. Geraghty, District Supervisor, Brother Schmidt, State President, and several other Brothers from nearby towns to explain the MOOSE work and address you. Also there will be an initiation starting promptly at 8:45 P. M. and we expect you to be present. And don't forget the eat! Meeting called at 8 P. M. By order of Dict.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Smith and son Kenneth of Northeast Brainerd have returned to their home after spending the winter months at Port Angeles, Wash. Mr. Smith reports 19 degrees above zero the coldest weather they had there. Among other sports enjoyed while in the west, were hooking salmon, which he says is great sport. While in Washington they visited their two sons, Clifford and Wallace who are in business at Port Angeles, and also their daughter, Mrs. S. Lewis at Trydant, Mont.

Bethlehem Midweek Lenten Service—Midweek Lenten service, English, at the Bethlehem Lutheran church, South Seventh street, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Theme for meditation: "John, the Loving and Beloved Disciple." Vocal solo by Marcella Holm.

Ladies Home League—The Ladies Home League will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Salvation Army hall. This is a special meeting, and all members are urged to be present. Visitors are always welcome.

Norwegian-Danish Lutheran Circle—Circle No. 1 of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church will meet with Mrs. Lyle Wollett tomorrow afternoon, 724 G street northeast.

Degree of Honor Card Party—Members of the Degree of Honor were entertained at a card party in the Iron Exchange hall last night. Five hundred was played, and everyone present had a most delightful evening.

Mrs. Max Evans and Walter McComas received first prizes, and consolation prizes went to Mrs. A. G. Schnell and R. N. Lindberg. A luncheon was served at the close of the evening.

Presbyterian Church Circle No. 2—Circle No. 2 of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Thursday afternoon in the social rooms of the church. Mrs. Dosh, Mrs. Noah Buckler and Mrs. Erick Carlson will entertain. Visitors are welcome.

W. B. A. Meeting—The W. B. A. will have its regular meeting Thursday, March 21, at the Iron Exchange hall. All members are asked to attend.

Forward Society—The Forward society of the Clara Lutheran church will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Odenthal, 519 N. Broadway.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

DR. R. A. HALLQUIST
Veterinarian
Phone 783-B

Brainerd

Min.

The Little Pirates will clamor for the good things
the Treasure Chest holds
It opens on March 22nd
Alderman-Maghan Co.

Congregational Missionary Society

The Missionary society of the First Congregational church will meet in the church parlors, Thursday at 3 P. M. Mrs. W. C. Cobb will review "Selective Immigration," by James J. Davis, re-appointed Secretary of Labor. The subject should be a matter of serious concern to every American citizen. The society urges everyone to take advantage of the opportunity to hear the statements of this reliable authority on immigration.

The hostesses serving during the afternoon are Mrs. R. L. Geist, Mrs. J. P. Anderson and Mrs. Victor P. Schedin. There will be a small charge.

First to Protect Oysters

Rhode Island was the first state to set aside water territory for the propagation of oysters. As early as June, 1799, this state set aside a small tract for the cultivation and propagation of oysters by private parties.

CROSBY CONCERN INCORPORATES

Central States Construction Co. Files $100,000 Articles of Incorporation

The Central States Construction of Crosby today filed $100,000 articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. Incorporators were M. W. Victoria, Brainerd; V. W. Woods, Minneapolis; E. W. and H. E. Hallett of Deerwood.

Paid Adv.—Inserted by and for Geo. A. Tracy, Brainerd, for which regular rates will be paid.

GEORGE A. TRACY
Candidate for City Treasurer

I will appreciate your support April 2nd.

Thank you.

Many years office experience.

It is easy to spend a few dollars
a week

It is just as easy to save a few dollars a week

Single dollars soon increase to hundreds by regular deposits and compound interest

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

Interest Paid on Time and Savings Accounts

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

Mrs. Addie Simpson of Aitkin was a Brainerd visitor.

C. Heenan of St. Paul was in the city this morning on business.

L. E. Tabor was an overnight visitor from Bemidji last evening.

Ellen Becker of Bemidji called in the city today on a business trip.

H. R. Sigler of St. Cloud is transacting business in the city today.

M. Markus of Duluth is in the city today attending to business matters.

A. E. Johnson of Merrifield called in Brainerd this morning on business.

E. G. Larson of Bemidji was an overnight business visitor in Brainerd.

W. H. Randall of Minneapolis transacted business in Brainerd this morning.

Special! Yeomen dance, Moose hall Wednesday, March 20. Lou's Band. Tickets 25c each. 24213

Mrs. Barney Dolan and daughter Miss Charlotte of Aitkin visited in the city.

Mrs. Hannah Holm of Crosby was in the city this morning on a shopping trip.

Mrs. Roy Norquist of Crow Wing was a Brainerd shopper yesterday afternoon.

Don Freeman of St. Cloud transacted business in the city yesterday afternoon.

Lillian Gish is playing at the Lyceum tonight in "The Enemy." 24412

Roy Wiedewisch of Maple Grove was in the city yesterday afternoon on business.

Mrs. Henry Foltmer of St. Cloud is a guest of Mrs. Mary Horner, 214 South Broadway.

A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kukkola, 714 South 12th street.

H. M. Hunt of Minneapolis, with the White Eagle oil, is in the city today on business.

Enamel ranges guaranteed like new. Priced very reasonable. Thompson Furniture Co., 508 Laurel St. 24312

Mrs. Wilbur Van Evert of Crosby was in the city yesterday afternoon on a shopping trip.

Mrs. Hannah Holm of Crosby called in the city yesterday afternoon on a shopping trip.

Mrs. A. Sliter of Pine Hurst Farm of Pillager, was a business caller in the city this morning.

Mrs. F. L. Kinney has returned to her home in Aitkin after a short stay at St. Joseph's hospital.

Adam Stanger of St. Cloud attended the funeral Monday of Anton Weber, a brother-in-law.

Geo. and Chas. Kurz of Annandale attended the funeral of their uncle, Anton Weber, yesterday.

Mrs. R. H. Spellmeyer left today for Minneapolis where she will attend grand opera this week.

Specials on Congoleum 9x12 rug with border $6.75; genuine Gold Seal $9.50; other sizes according. Yard goods 45c per yd. and up. Thompson Furniture Co., 508 Laurel. 24312

Martin Tautges of St. Mathias was among the out of town shoppers in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Katherine Raey of Duluth is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dougherty.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Heidtke and two daughters of Platte Lake were Brainerd visitors this afternoon.

Ed Gruenhagen left yesterday for the Twin Cities on business. He expects to be gone for a few days.

E. A. Wesserschiefer of Deerwood

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
They will be a happy family, and a happy home, and a happy life. Phone 117-105.

THE WAGES OF SIN—The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning. The crown is fallen from our head; woe unto us, that we have sinned!—Lamentations 5:15, 16.

PRAYER—Blessed is the man whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

PERSONAL, CLUB and LOCAL NEWS

Telephone 74

Mrs. Addie Simpson of Aitkin was a Brainerd visitor.

C. Heenan of St. Paul was in the city this morning on business.

L. E. Tabor was an overnight visitor from Bemidji last evening.

Ellen Becker of Bemidji called in the city today on a business trip.

H. R. Sigler of St. Cloud is transacting business in the city today.

M. Markus of Duluth is in the city today attending to business matters.

A. E. Johnson of Merrifield called in Brainerd this morning on business.

E. G. Larson of Bemidji was an overnight business visitor in Brainerd.

W. H. Randall of Minneapolis transacted business in Brainerd this morning.

Special! Yeomen dance, Moose hall Wednesday, March 20. Lou's Band. Tickets 25c each. 24213

Mrs. Barney Dolan and daughter Miss Charlotte of Aitkin visited in the city.

Mrs. Hannah Holm of Crosby was in the city this morning on a shopping trip.

Mrs. Roy Norquist of Crow Wing was a Brainerd shopper yesterday afternoon.

Don Freeman of St. Cloud transacted business in the city yesterday afternoon.

Lillian Gish is playing at the Lyceum tonight in "The Enemy." 24412

Roy Wiedewitsch of Maple Grove was in the city yesterday afternoon on business.

Mrs. Henry Foltner of St. Cloud is a guest of Mrs. Mary Horner, 211 South Broadway.

A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kukkola, 717 South 12th street.

H. M. Hunt of Minneapolis, with the White Eagle oil, is in the city today on business.

Enamel ranges guaranteed like new. Priced very reasonable. Thompson Furniture Co., 508 Laurel St. 24312

Mrs. Wilbur Van Evert of Crosby was in the city yesterday afternoon on a shopping trip.

Mrs. Hannah Holm of Crosby called in the city yesterday afternoon on a shopping trip.

Mrs. A. Sliter of Pine Hurst Farm of Pillager, was a business caller in the city this morning.

Mrs. F. L. Kinney has returned to her home in Aitkin after a short stay at St. Joseph's hospital.

Adam Stanger of St. Cloud attended the funeral Monday of Anton Weber, a brother-in-law.

Geo. and Chas. Kurz of Annandale attended the funeral of their uncle, Anton Weber, yesterday.

Mrs. R. H. Spellmeyer left today for Minneapolis where she will attend grand opera this week.

Specials on Congoleum 9x12 rug with border $6.75; genuine Gold Seal $9.50; other sizes according. Yard goods 45c per yd. and up. Thompson Furniture Co., 508 Laurel. 24312

Martin Tautges of St. Mathias was among the out of town shoppers in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Katherine Racy of Duluth is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dougherty.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Heidtke and two daughters of Platte Lake were Brainerd visitors this afternoon.

Ed Gruenhagen left yesterday for the Twin Cities on business. He expects to be gone for a few days.

E. A. Wesserschiefer of Deerwood

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
The world is hung with my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119: 105

THE WAGES OF SIN—The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning. The crown is fallen from our head; woe unto us, that we have sinned!—Lamentations 5:15, 16.
PRAYER—Blessed is the man whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

The Weather

Minnesota—Unsettled tonight with probably rain or snow in north and east portions; colder in northwest portion; Thursday partly cloudy and colder.

March 19.—High 39, low 22. In evening 31. Northwest wind. Cloudy.

March 20.—Minimum last night 17. At 8 A. M. 23. At noon 30. Southeast wind. Cloudy. Snow.

BULLETIN BOARD

TONIGHT

Odd Fellows—I. O. O. F. hall.
Lions club, 6:15 P. M.—Archer's Cafe.

City band practice—Court house.
Hi-Y club—Y. M. C. A.
Yeomen—Moose hall.
Men's Brotherhood—M. E. church.
Luther League—Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Missionary society First Congregational church—Church parlors.
Circle No. 2 First Presbyterian church—Social rooms of the church.
Home League—Salvation Army hall.

arrived in the city last evening and is spending the day here on business.

E. F. Meyers of St. Cloud, owner of the Brainerd Laundry, was in the city today attending to business matters.

Fred A. Segler, town clerk of Maple Grove township, called at the court house this morning on business.

Mrs. O. C. Temple left for Bemidji to attend to business matters for a few days. She is also visiting friends there.

Miss Mildred Tibbetts of Aitkin is spending the week with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Katz, and Geo. Stanger of Minneapolis attended the funeral of their uncle Anton Weber, yesterday.

We have enlarged our stock and are now offering some mighty good buys in both new and used furniture. See us before you buy. Thompson Furniture Co., opposite city hall. 24312

Mrs. George Thomas left today for St. Paul to visit with her daughter who is recovering from a recent operation.

C. O. Roe of Crookston arrived in the city last evening and is spending the day here attending to business matters.

J. C. Polnton, chairman of supervisors of Nokay Lake township, was a business visitor at the court house this morning.

Mrs. J. A. McKay left today for Elbow Lake to attend the annual missionary meeting of the Presbyterian society.

Alfred Anderson of Minneapolis has returned to his home after spending a few days in the city visiting with friends.

For the little fellows, ages 3 to 8, new spring top coats with hats to match. Also Kaynee tweed Oliver Twist shorts. John M. Bye Clothing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Freeman and Miss Agnes Hofer of Isle made a trip to Brainerd and St. Cloud last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Claus of St. Mathias were among those from out of town who visited in Brainerd yesterday afternoon.

Robert Guida and family left this morning for Florence, Minn., where they will make their future home. Mr. Guida will go on a farm at that place.

Special orchestra music at the Lyceum tonight for Lillian Gish in "The Enemy." 24412

E. H. Rhodes, forest ranger, returned last evening from the Spider Lake vicinity, west of Pine River, where he has been on forestry business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Downey and Muriel Clayton, all of St. Cloud, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Varrs, 803 Third avenue northeast.

Robert Trout, living at Philbrook

was in the city yesterday with his brother who is visiting him from Spokane, Wash. They were looking over prospects in Brainerd.

Mrs. Delphine Ohms has returned to her position at the E. F. Gates store after attending the Gossard school of Corsetry in Minneapolis, from which she graduated with high honors, and will be pleased to meet all her old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Villnow motored here from Brainerd Wednesday and were attending to business affairs. The Villnow family lived in the Farm Island community a number of years, where they own a farm, but enjoy their new home in Brainerd.—Aitkin Independent Age.

Notice to Parents—We request that your children will give us our peace. We are too old to be disturbed in our home. If this doesn't change conditions, we will not be responsible how we will handle them hereafter. Andrew Buskala, 1261 Oak street S. E. 11p

Miss Bertha Olson, formerly of Port Ripley, who has spent the winter at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ekerman of Morrison, went Thursday to the Deerwood sanatorium to accompany her brother, O. K. Olson, to Brainerd for a stomach examination. Mr. Olson has been a patient at the sanatorium for four months and is improving rapidly.—Aitkin Independent Age.

Notice to members Loyal Order Moose 1246—Annual Stag Party at the Moose hall, March 22, 1929. There will be Brother James J. Geraghty, District Supervisor, Brother Schmidt, State President, and several other Brothers from nearby towns to explain the MOOSE work and address you. Also there will be an initiation starting promptly at 8:45 P. M. and we expect you to be present. And don't forget the eats! Meeting called at 8 P. M. By order of Dict. 24413

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Smith and son Kenneth of Northeast Brainerd have returned to their home after spending the winter months at Port Angeles, Wash. Mr. Smith reports 19 degrees above zero the coldest weather they had there. Among other sports enjoyed while in the west, were hooking salmon, which he says is great sport. While in Washington they visited their two sons, Clifford and Wallace who are in business at Port Angeles, and also their daughter, Mrs. S. Lewis at Trydant, Mont.

Bethlehem Midweek Lenten Service—Midweek Lenten service, English, at the Bethlehem Lutheran church, South Seventh street, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Theme for meditation: "John, the Loving and Beloved Disciple." Vocal solo by Marcella Holm.

Ladies Home League—The Ladies Home League will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Salvation Army hall. This is a special meeting, and all members are urged to be present. Visitors are always welcome.

Norwegian-Danish Lutheran Circle—Circle No. 1 of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church will meet with Mrs. Lyle Wollett tomorrow afternoon, 724 G street northeast.

Degree of Honor Card Party—Members of the Degree of Honor were entertained at a card party in the Iron Exchange hall last night. Five hundred was played, and everyone present had a most delightful evening.

Mrs. Max Evans and Walter McComas received first prizes, and consolation prizes went to Mrs. A. G. Schnell and R. N. Lindberg. A luncheon was served at the close of the evening.

Presbyterian Church Circle No. 2—Circle No. 2 of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Thursday afternoon in the social rooms of the church. Mrs. Dosh, Mrs. Noah Buckler and Mrs. Erick Carlson will entertain. Visitors are welcome.

W. B. A. Meeting—The W. B. A. will have its regular meeting Thursday, March 21, at the Iron Exchange hall. All members are asked to attend.

Forward Society—The Forward society of the Clara Lutheran church will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Odenthal, 519 N. Broadway.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

DR. R. A. HALLQUIST
Veterinarian
Phone 782-B

Robert Trout, living at Philbrook Brainerd Minn.

The Little Pirates will clamor for the good things the Treasure Chest holds

It opens on March 22nd

Alderman-Maghan Co.

Congregational Missionary Society

The Missionary society of the First Congregational church will meet in the church parlors, Thursday at 3 P. M. Mrs. W. C. Cobb will review "Selective Immigration," by James J. Davis, re-appointed Secretary of Labor. The subject should be a matter of serious concern to every American citizen. The society urges everyone to take advantage of the opportunity to hear the statements of this reliable authority on immigration.

The hostesses serving during the afternoon are Mrs. R. L. Geist, Mrs. J. P. Anderson and Mrs. Victor P. Schedin. There will be a small charge.

First to Protect Oysters

Rhode Island was the first state to set aside water territory for the propagation of oysters. As early as June, 1790, this state set aside a small tract for the cultivation and propagation of oysters by private parties.

CROSBY CONCERN INCORPORATES

Central States Construction Co. Files $100,000 Articles of Incorporation

The Central States Construction of Crosby today filed $100,000 articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. Incorporators were M. W. Vectors, Brainerd; V. W. Woods, Minneapolis; E. W. and H. E. Hallett of Deerwood.

Paid Adv.—Inserted by and for Geo. A. Tracy, Brainerd, for which regular rates will be paid.

GEORGE A. TRACY
Candidate for City Treasurer

I will appreciate your support April 2nd.
Thank you.

Many years office experience.

It is easy to spend a few dollars a week

It is just as easy to save a few dollars a week

Single dollars soon increase to hundreds by regular deposits and compound interest

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

Interest Paid on Time and Savings Accounts

EASTER CARDS

Brainerd Office Supply Co.
"Our City's Greeting Card Store"

Phone 300

208 So. 7th St.

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

PLAN POST EASTER BRIDGE GATHERING

League of Women Voters Discuss
Status of League's Bills
in Legislature

MRS. NICHOLS ENTERTAINS

Will Meet Next Tuesday Afternoon
at Home of Mrs. John
Cummins

A well-attended meeting of the League of Women Voters was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Nichols Tuesday afternoon.

After some discussion of the present status of the League's bills in the legislature, Mrs. J. J. Cummins read a transcript record of the last radio broadcast by the National League of Women Voters, which was a discussion of the personnel of President Hoover's cabinet.

Mrs. Dean White then gave a splendid resume of the two chapters "The Religious Aspect" and "The Melting Pot," from "America Comes of Age." As there was some time left before the legislative program would be on the air, Mrs. Henry I. Cohen read part of a chapter from this keenly critical, but delightfully humorous writer, who tells just what he sees, or thinks he sees, in America's racial, religious, political, ethical and economic development.

The program from the air came in very distinctly and consisted of the clever adaptation of a play written by the daughter of the famous sculptor—Lorado Taft, who is a member of the Chicago League. It gave in dramatic form the reason for the 54 hour bill for women that is now before the legislature. One of the characters in this little drama was taken by Mrs. McGuire, who was one of the most popular speakers ever sent to Brainerd by the state league. It should increase the size of the legislators' mail considerably, as it contained a plea for personal letters, instead of letters written by corresponding secretaries purporting to express the opinion of a local League.

At a short business meeting, which followed, it was voted to hold the annual bridge party on the first available date after Easter.

After some discussion, a short meeting was arranged for next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Cummins. This meeting will not begin until 4 o'clock. Mrs. Henry White will review what remains of the chapter on Fundamentalism versus Modernism and the entire chapter on Prohibition.

The program from WCCO will be a discussion of the various proposed bills for a more selective immigration law by Mrs. J. Marchay.

All ladies who are interested in these vital subjects are invited to attend this meeting and join the League.

SOUTH OAK LAWN

The East Oak Lawn P. T. A. met March 15. Plans were made for a play to be given next month.

A delightful program was given: Recitation—Dan Heller. Reading—Milton Sandberg. Piano solo—Arthur Hendrickson. Recitation—Ethel McCulloch. Reading—Mrs. August Erickson. Piano solo—Miss Florence Larson. Recitation—Donald Sandberg. Vocal solo—Hildegard Holm, accompanied by Margaret Holm.

Community singing closed the program after which a luncheon was served.

The week end shoppers were August Erickson, Mrs. Andrew Larson and Miss Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Kios Sehon, Mrs. Fred Tracy, Mrs. T. W. Livingstone and Dick Sagli.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kyallquist motored to Brainerd and Miss Alice returned with them to spend the week end at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. August Bloom were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson Friday evening. They also attended the P. T. A. meeting at the East Oak Lawn school.

Leonard Rognaldson is now employed at the Dick Sagli home.

Mrs. Gerda Johnson has rented her farm to Mr. Cleek of Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson called at Roy Heller's home Sunday.

Miss Elsie Christensen was a guest of Miss Kathleen Cunningham Friday evening.

Miss Lois Holler called at H. B. Olson's Sunday afternoon.

Clarence Johnson spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Gerda Johnson.

A group of young folks gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aspholm Sunday evening. Those present were: Miss Elsie Christensen, Alfred Sather, Roy Sandberg, Rex Holmgren and Miss Lois Holler. The evening was spent in cards and bunco and music was enjoyed. Refreshments was served and a good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sagli and son Marvin visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Larson Sunday.

Roy Sandberg was a supper guest of Rex Holmgren Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Pointon is now a pupil at the East Oak Lawn school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aspholm and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nor-gard spent Sunday at the Harry Strand home.

George Houser called at his mother's home Sunday.

Mrs. Mike Goedderz was a Brainerd shopper Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zedrow of Brainerd attended the dance at Duluth's Saturday night.

Miss Gladys Johnson was a week end visitor at her home.

Easter vacation will soon be here. Many hearts are patiently waiting for its arrival.

Misses Kathleen and Mardella Cunningham and Carl Johnson of Brainerd attended the dance at Duluth's Saturday night.

We are in hopes that this spring weather won't have a terrible effect on our roads.

TREASURE CHEST AROUSES INTEREST

Mystery Surrounds Chest at Alderman-Maghan's to be Opened
March 22

A large, iron bound chest, carrying with it the suggestion of the Spanish Main, Captain Kidd and shiny, yellow pieces of eight, has suddenly appeared in the window of Alderman-Maghan Co., distributors of General Electric Refrigerators.

"Just what it contains is known to a very few and there has been much speculation as to its contents," stated Mr. Alderman.

"To the curious, we can only say that the chest will be opened for all to see on Friday, March 22, and that it contains something of paramount interest to everyone who is interested in good health and convenience for themselves and their families."

Pleads Quick Death

Mrs. William Cardow, bride of six months, of Waterbury, Conn., raves with the pain from the ravages of radium poisoning which she is presumed to have contracted four years ago painting radium dials on clocks.

(International Newsreel)

Do Your Own Thinking

How do you form your opinions? Do you borrow them ready made? Do you make them of materials which others have cut out? Or are you wise enough to gather your own facts, spin it, and weave the pattern for your self?

Use for Old Auto Tires

Pieces of old automobile tires are fastened to the feet of the camels that travel over the Gobi desert in Mongolia to protect them from the burning sand and sharp rocks.

Electric Wiring and Repairing

Estimates Furnished

Gateway Electric Co.

710 Laurel Street Phone 908-J

Vesta Batteries

For Autos and Radios

The only Battery with

Visible Quality—The Isolator

Ask us.

Houle Motor

Service and Repairing Phone 2 So. 5th St.

TO PUT ON DEGREE AT LITTLE FALLS

Women of Mooseheart Legion to Conduct Ceremony Thursday Evening

The Women of Mooseheart Legion will put on the degree work and initiatory ceremony at Little Falls on Thursday evening.

This is the first opportunity the local legion has had to put on this work for another chapter, and a successful and interesting evening is anticipated.

All Legionnaires are invited to attend and escort their officers by automobile to Little Falls. They are requested to meet at the lodge hall Thursday, not later than 6:45 P. M.

IDEAL

Ruth, Roy and Alice Houge, Maybelle and Harry Rear were callers at the Ole Oas home Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson and family, Jack Darrough and Marie Plum were Brainerd visitors Sunday.

A farewell party was held at the R. E. Houge home for Ernest Newman Saturday evening. Those who were present were Art Moberg, Orville, Gladys and Maybelle Oas, Arnet Nelson and Bernice Evenson, Mr. and Mrs. Rear, Maybel and Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Shoults and daughter Elvina, Martin and Nora Knutson, Andrew Danielson, Fred Hollanberg and Gertrude and Art Clarkvist. The evening was spent in playing games, after a delicious lunch was served, and parting for home at a late hour of night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allers of Camp Fire Lodge were callers at the Bert Wolfram home Saturday.

Oscar Olson, Grandma Olson and Irene Olson were afternoon callers at the John Olson home Monday afternoon.

We are all sorry to hear of the death of J. A. Danielson Tuesday morning. He has been failing for some time.

Mrs. C. E. Houge and baby were callers at the R. E. Houge home Saturday.

Mrs. Anton Monson, Maybelle and Harry Rear, Roy, Ruth and Alice Houge and Ernest Neuman were among those who attended the wedding of Amanda Olson and Oscar Graydon Sunday at the Norwegian Lutheran church in Pequot.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen called at R. E. Houge's Sunday afternoon.

Lillian Gish Plays the Heroine of Channing Pollock's Great Stage
Hit With Sensational Power

Lillian Gish comes tonight to the Lyceum theatre in her first modern role on the screen.

Heretofore the famous star has always lived in the past, so far as her plays were concerned; in fact, it was often held that her type of wistful appeal could only be brought out in period plays, and stories harking back to the days of long ago.

But in "The Enemy," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's dramatization of Channing Pollock's great stage success, she throws all precedent to the wind, to dress in the clothes of today. And she is even more effectively dramatic as a modern woman than even as a Romola or Mimi or Hester Prynne.

Cow's Butcher Weights

The amount of bone in a cow varies with the cow. The maximum per cent of bones is 22.48. The hide is usually 6 to 6 1/2 per cent of the live weight of the carcass; the heart from 3 to 4 pounds, the liver from 8 to 9 pounds, and the tongue from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds. The shrinkage of cattle in butchering and dressing ranges from 33 to 52 per cent.

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

Soften hard water with Melo and see how easy
the dishes are to wash

HARD water combines with soap to make scum. Scum leaves a dirty ring around the dishpan. Scum leaves a dirty glaze on dishes. But put a tablespoonful of Melo in the dishpan! Then see!

No scum! Sparkling dishes! The water delightfully soft and sudsy! Use Melo wherever you want soft water. It makes the soap more effective. With or without soap, water softened with Melo is an unusual cleaner. Get it at your grocer's.

MELO

WATER SOFTENED WITH MELO IS A REMARKABLE CLEANER

10 cents

THE HYGIENIC
PRODUCTS CO.

Canton, Ohio
Manufacturers of Sani-Flush

Said It With Radishes

By JOHN WADE

(Copyright.)

EVEN after Betty Gaynor's uncle died and left her several hundred thousand dollars John Bradley kept right on loving her, although he didn't talk so much about it. How could he expect that Betty, with all sorts of radiant possibilities suddenly opened to her, would still feel the same toward the prosaic life he could offer her as his wife?

John was doing well in his profession. As a matter of fact, he was fast getting the name of being one of the finest landscape gardeners in the country. Yet it would be many years before his income would compare with Betty's.

Now, one of Betty's first extravagances—so termed by Miss Deborah Perkins, Betty's middle-aged, thrifty housekeeper—was the purchase of old Caleb Hemingway's place, a rambling, run-down farm of devastated fields, overgrown woodlots and unkempt meadows. Betty had torn down the house and replaced it with a tapestried brick affair, comfortable and pleasing in appearance. The grounds—well, what more natural than that she should put them into the hands of her old-time friend, with carte blanche to do as he pleased with them?

Frequent consultations with Betty were by no means the least desirable feature of his job, and at times it necessitated all his self-control not to tell her of his love. A certain wistfulness in the girl's eyes tempted him. Did she wonder why he was so much more formal than in the old days before her fortune had come between them?

Day by day the impulse strengthened to let her know, in some delicate fashion, that his love for her still existed. He came to ponder the problem almost incessantly, but not until Betty declared she must have a vegetable garden did the answer come.

For some time he had decided what form his message ought to take, but to use for the purpose the conspicuous means of a flower bed would never do. A vegetable garden suggested the solution. He would plant his love in seeds—in some quick growing annual. Radishes, for example.

All but a sunny, inconspicuous little corner he turned over to his assistant, a canny, taciturn old Scotchman named Ferguson. In that little plot he labored carefully, reminding himself that he must urge Betty to take personal supervision of her radish bed. Truly it was a work of love as well as alphabetic art, and on the morning of its completion John rose from his knees with a prayer for the proper amount of sun and rain to produce speedy results.

Now, whether or not John's long hours spent bent over in the sun

Same Price
FOR OVER 38 YEARS
25 ounces for 25¢
KC
BAKING POWDER

Guaranteed Pure
Use KC for fine texture and large volume in your bakings

Millions of pounds used by our Government

Stomach Disorders First Revealed by Coated Tongue

Your tongue is nothing more than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. It is the first thing your doctor looks at. It tells at a glance the condition of your digestive system—and physicians say that 90% of all sickness starts with stomach and bowel trouble.

A coated tongue is a danger signal of those digestive disorders which lead to so many kinds of serious illness. It tells why the least exertion tires you out; why you have pains in the bowels, gas, sour stomach, dizzy spells.

Coating on the tongue is a sign that you need Tanlac—the medicine which has helped thousands who were physical wrecks from stomach and bowel troubles—who had "tried everything" in vain and about given up hope.

Tanlac contains no mineral drugs; it is made of barks, herbs and roots. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Tanlac
52 MILLION BOTTLES USED

Lyceum TODAY, also Thursday and Friday Special Orchestra Music

LILLIAN GISH

with RALPH FORBES

directed by
FRED NIBLO

The year's sensation! From Channing Pollock's stage classic!

Read the Dispatch Ads Before Shopping It Saves Time and Money

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

Come and See "The Wheels Go 'round"

SATURDAY

March 23

at the Chamber of Commerce Rooms

at Our

POWER FARMING DAY

The power farming idea is sweeping the country so rapidly these days that it is important for every farmer to get first hand information on this subject. It is the purpose of our big POWER FARMING DAY, Saturday, March 23, to provide, in an interesting, entertaining way, facts that will prove helpful to present and prospective power farmers.

The men who will present these facts during our POWER FARMING DAY are experienced in tractor operation and upkeep. Their discussion and demonstration of power farming equipment methods will be worth money to every farmer who is interested in reducing production costs. And, remember, the whole party is FREE. Come early and be our guest for the day. There'll be a dandy FREE LUNCH AT NOON, and FREE MOVIES.

We want you as our guests at the Chamber of Commerce to enjoy POWER FARMING DAY with your friends

SENN & CAIN

811 Front Street

Brainerd

PLAN POST EASTER BRIDGE GATHERING

League of Women Voters Discuss
Status of League's Bills
in Legislature

MRS. NICHOLS ENTERTAINS
Will Meet Next Tuesday Afternoon
at Home of Mrs. John
Cummins

A well-attended meeting of the League of Women Voters was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Nichols Tuesday afternoon.

After some discussion of the present status of the League's bills in the legislature, Mrs. J. J. Cummins read a transcript record of the last radio broadcast by the National League of Women Voters, which was a discussion of the personnel of President Hoover's cabinet.

Mrs. Dean White then gave a splendid resume of the two chapters "The Religious Aspect" and "The Melting Pot," from "America Comes of Age." As there was some time left before the legislative program would be on the air, Mrs. Henry I. Cohen read part of a chapter from this keenly critical, but delightfully humorous writer, who tells just what he sees, or thinks he sees, in America's racial, religious, political, ethical and economic development.

The program from the air came in very distinctly and consisted of the clever adaptation of a play written by the daughter of the famous sculptor—Lorado Taft, who is a member of the Chicago League. It gave in dramatic form the reason for the 54 hour bill for women that is now before the legislature. One of the characters in this little drama was taken by Mrs. McGuire, who was one of the most popular speakers ever sent to Brainerd by the state league. It should increase the size of the legislators mail considerably, as it contained a plea for personal letters, instead of letters written by corresponding secretaries purporting to express the opinion of a local League.

At a short business meeting, which followed, it was voted to hold the annual bridge party on the first available date after Easter.

After some discussion, a short meeting was arranged for next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Cummins. This meeting will not begin until 4 o'clock. Mrs. Henry White will review what remains of the chapter on Fundamentalism versus Modernism and the entire chapter on Prohibition.

The program from WCCO will be a discussion of the various proposed bills for a more selective immigration law by Mrs. J. Marclay.

All ladies who are interested in these vital subjects are invited to attend this meeting and join the League.

SOUTH OAK LAWN

The East Oak Lawn P. T. A. met March 15. Plans were made for a play to be given next month.

A delightful program was given: Recitation—Dan Heller. Reading—Milton Sandberg. Piano solo—Arthur Hendrickson. Recitation—Ethel McCulloch. Reading—Mrs. August Erickson. Piano solo—Miss Florence Larson. Recitation—Donald Sandberg. Vocal solo—Hildegard Holm, accompanied by Margaret Holm. Community singing closed the program after which a luncheon was served.

The week end shoppers were August Erickson, Mrs. Andrew Larson and Miss Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Kios Schon, Mrs. Fred Tracy, Mrs. T. W. Livingstone and Dick Sagli. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kyallquist motored to Brainerd and Miss Alice returned with them to spend the week end at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. August Bloom were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson Friday evening. They also attended the P. T. A. meeting at the East Oak Lawn school.

Leonard Rognaldson is now employed at the Dick Sagli home.

Mrs. Gerda Johnson has rented her farm to Mr. Cleek of Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson called at Roy Heller's home Sunday.

Miss Elsie Christensen was a guest of Miss Kathleen Cunningham Friday evening.

Miss Lois Holler called at H. B. Olson's Sunday afternoon.

Clarence Johnson spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Gerda Johnson.

A group of young folks gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aspholm Sunday evening. Those present were: Miss Elsie Christensen, Alfred Sather, Roy Sandberg, Rex Holmgren and Miss Lois Holler. The evening was spent in cards and bunco and music was enjoyed. Refreshments was served and a good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sagli and son Marvin visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Larson Sunday.

Roy Sandberg was a supper guest of Rex Holmgren Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Pointon is now a pupil at the East Oak Lawn school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aspholm and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nor-gard spent Sunday at the Harry Strand home.

George Houser called at his mother's home Sunday.

Mrs. Mike Goedderz was a Brainerd shopper Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zedrow of Brainerd attended the dance at Duluth's Saturday night.

Miss Gladys Johnson was a week end visitor at her home.

Easter vacation will soon be here. Many hearts are patiently waiting for its arrival.

Misses Kathleen and Mardella Cunningham and Carl Johnson of Brainerd attended the dance at Duluth's Saturday night.

We are in hopes that this spring weather won't have a terrible effect on our roads.

TREASURE CHEST AROUSES INTEREST

Mystery Surrounds Chest at Alderman-Maghan's to be Opened
March 22

A large, iron bound chest, carrying with it the suggestion of the Spanish Main, Captain Kidd and shiny, yellow pieces of eight, has suddenly appeared in the window of Alderman-Maghan Co., distributors of General Electric Refrigerators.

"Just what it contains is known to a very few and there has been much speculation as to its contents," stated Mr. Alderman.

"To the curious, we can only say that the chest will be opened for all to see on Friday, March 22, and that it contains something of paramount interest to everyone who is interested in good health and convenience for themselves and their families."

Pleads Quick Death

Mrs. William Cardow, bride of six months, of Waterbury, Conn., raves with the pain from the ravages of radium poisoning which she is presumed to have contracted four years ago painting radium dials on clocks.

(International Newsreel)

Do Your Own Thinking

How do you form your opinions? Do you borrow them ready made? Do you make them of materials which others have cut out? Or are you wise enough to gather your own flax, spin it, and weave the pattern for yourself?

Use for Old Auto Tires

Pieces of old automobile tires are fastened to the feet of the camels that travel over the Gobi desert in Mongolia to protect them from the burning sand and sharp rocks.

Electric Wiring and Repairing

Estimates Furnished

Gateway Electric Co.

710 Laurel Street Phone 908-J

Vesta Batteries For Autos and Radios

The only Battery with

Visible Quality—The Isolator

Ask us.

Houle Motor

Service and Repairing

Phone 3 So. 6th St.

TO PUT ON DEGREE AT LITTLE FALLS

Women of Mooseheart Legion to Conduct Ceremony Thursday Evening

The Women of Mooseheart Legion will put on the degree work and initiatory ceremony at Little Falls on Thursday evening.

This is the first opportunity the local legion has had to put on this work for another chapter, and a successful and interesting evening is anticipated.

All Legionnaires are invited to attend and escort their officers by automobile to Little Falls. They are requested to meet at the lodge hall Thursday, not later than 6:45 P. M.

IDEAL

Ruth, Roy and Alice Houge, Maybelle and Harry Rear were callers at the Ole Oas home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson and family, Jack Darrough and Marie Plum were Brainerd visitors Sunday.

A farewell party was held at the R. E. Houge home for Ernest Newman Saturday evening. Those who were present were Art Moberg, Orville, Gladys and Maybelle Oas, Arnet Nelson and Bernice Evenson, Mr. and Mrs. Rear, Maybelle and Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Shoalts and daughter Elvina, Martin and Nora Knutson, Andrew Danielson, Fred Hollanberg and Gertrude and Art Clarkvist. The evening was spent in playing games, after a delicious lunch was served, and parting for home at a late hour of night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allers of Camp Fire Lodge were callers at the Bert Wolfman home Saturday.

Oscar Olson, Grandma Olson and Irene Olson were afternoon callers at the John Olson home Monday afternoon.

We are all sorry to hear of the death of J. A. Danielson Tuesday morning. He has been failing for some time.

Mrs. C. E. Houge and baby were callers at the R. E. Houge home Saturday.

Mrs. Anton Monson, Maybelle and Harry Rear, Roy, Ruth and Alice Houge and Ernest Newman were among those who attended the wedding of Amanda Olson and Oscar Grevdahl Sunday at the Norwegian Lutheran church in Pequot.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen called at R. E. Houge's Sunday afternoon.

Lillian Gish Plays the Heroine of Channing Pollock's Great Stage Hit With Sensational Power

Lillian Gish comes tonight to the Lyceum theatre in her first modern role on the screen.

Heretofore the famous star has always lived in the past, so far as her plays were concerned. In fact, it was often held that her type of wistful appeal could only be brought out in period plays and stories harking back to the days of long ago.

But in "The Enemy," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's filmization of Channing Pollock's great stage success, she throws all precedent to the wind, to dress in the clothes of today. And—she is even more effectively dramatic as a modern woman than even as a Romola or Mimi or Hester Prynne.

Cow's Butcher Weights

The amount of bone in a cow varies with the cow. The maximum per cent of bones is 22.48. The hide is usually 6 to 6 1/2 per cent of the live weight of the carcass; the heart from 3 to 4 pounds, the liver from 8 to 9 pounds, and the tongue from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds. The shrinkage of cattle in butchering and dressing ranges from 33 to 52 per cent.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Softened hard water with Melo and see how easy the dishes are to wash

HARD water combines with soap to make scum. Scum leaves a dirty ring around the dishpan. Scum leaves a dirty glaze on dishes. But put a tablespoonful of Melo in the dishpan! Then see!

No scum! Sparkling dishes! The water delightfully soft and sudsy! Use Melo wherever you want soft water. It makes the soap more effective. With or without soap, water softened with Melo is an unusual cleaner. Get it at your grocer's.

MELO

WATER SOFTENED WITH MELO IS A REMARKABLE CLEANER

10 cents

THE HYGIENIC PRODUCTS CO.

Canton, Ohio

Manufacturers of Sani-Flush

10 cents

10 cents

10 cents

Said It With Radishes

By JOHN WADE

(Copyright)

EVEN after Betty Gaynor's uncle died and left her several hundred thousand dollars John Bradley kept right on loving her, although he didn't talk so much about it. How could he expect that Betty, with all sorts of radiant possibilities suddenly opened to her, would still feel the same toward the prosaic life he could offer her as his wife?

John was doing well in his profession. As a matter of fact, he was fast getting the name of being one of the finest landscape gardeners in the country. Yet it would be many years before his income would compare with Betty's.

Now, one of Betty's first extravaganzas—so termed by Miss Deborah Perkins, Betty's middle-aged, thrifty housekeeper—was the purchase of old Caleb Hemingway's place, a rambling, run-down farm of devastated fields, overgrown woodlots and unkempt meadows. Betty had torn down the house and replaced it with a turreted brick affair, comfortable and pleasing in appearance. The grounds—well, what more natural than that she should put them into the hands of her old-time friend, with carte blanche to do as he pleased with them?

Frequent consultations with Betty were by no means the least desirable feature of his job, and at times it necessitated all his self-control not to tell her of his love. A certain wistfulness in the girl's eyes tempted him. Did she wonder why he was so much more formal than in the old days before her fortune had come between them?

Day by day the impulse strengthened to let her know, in some delicate fashion, that his love for her still existed. He came to ponder the problem almost incessantly, but not until Betty declared she must have a vegetable garden did the answer come.

For some time he had decided what form his message ought to take, but to use for the purpose the conspicuous means of a flower bed would never do. A vegetable garden suggested the solution. He would plant his love in seeds—in some quick growing annual. Radishes, for example.

All but a sunny, inconspicuous little corner he turned over to his assistant, a canny, taciturn old Scotchman named Ferguson. In that little plot he labored carefully, reminding himself that he must urge Betty to take personal supervision of her radish bed. Truly it was a work of love as well as alphabetic art, and on the morning of its completion John rose from his knees with a prayer for the proper amount of sun and rain to produce speedy results.

Now, whether or not John's long hours spent bent over in the sun

Same Price
FOR OVER 38 YEARS
25 ounces for 25¢
KC
BAKING POWDER
Guaranteed Pure
Use KC for fine texture and large volume in your bakings
Millions of pounds used by our Government

Stomach Disorders
First Revealed by Coated Tongue
Your tongue is nothing more than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. It is the first thing your doctor looks at. It tells at a glance the condition of your digestive system—and physicians say that 90% of all sickness starts with stomach and bowel trouble.
A coated tongue is a danger signal of those digestive disorders which lead to so many kinds of serious illness. It tells why the least exertion tires you out; why you have pains in the bowels, gas, sour stomach, dizzy spells.
Coating on the tongue is a sign that you need Tanlac—the medicine which has helped thousands who were physical wrecks from stomach and bowel troubles—who had "tried everything" in vain and about given up hope.
Tanlac contains no mineral drugs; it is made of barks, herbs and roots. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Tanlac
52 MILLION BOTTLES USED

were the cause, at any rate something went suddenly out of kilter that night in John's well-being. Morning found him calling incoherently and tossing in fever, while two doctors discussed treatments and remedies, and tried not to listen to "Betty! Betty! Betty!"

Anxious hours followed, in which Betty shared. Her first thought in the morning was for the latest news of John; her last, a prayer that he would spend a quiet night.

At length John's nurse assumed an unprofessional responsibility. "I think," she said to Betty as she stood at the door answering her inquiries, "that before he will recover some worry must be removed from his mind. He—he's evidently in love with some one who doesn't reciprocate!"

John's quick recovery dated from the moment when, startled out of all reserve at the white, drawn face of the man she loved, Betty fell on her knees at his bedside and whispered brokenly, "Oh, my darling! My darling!"

The doctor prescribed a sea voyage to assist John's convalescing, and Betty not only acquiesced but made all arrangements, even to insisting that he must have a nurse along, and in order to provide one she would marry him! And John, weak but beautifully happy, could only thank heaven he had enough to keep them going.

Some time afterward, one glorious, breezy afternoon, Betty, leaning against the rail with John watching the scudding wake of their steamer heard a queer little chuckle from her husband.

"What is it, dear?" she asked. "I was thinking," said John wistfully, "how very much surprised Miss Deborah Perkins must have been when she read 'I love you, sweet-heart!' in her radish bed!"

But not until the two of them were back at home again did they learn the true efficacy of John's vegetable message. Blushing like a bride herself, Miss Perkins welcomed them at the door, and after proper inquiries as to Mr. Bradley's health, she broke the news.

"Yes, Miss Betty, I'm Mrs. Ferguson now. Yes, ma'am, I knew you'd be surprised. He's that reserved you wouldn't have thought it of him. But he's clever, for all he's Scotch. He writhed in radishes what he thought of me. And when I see them coming up in such lovely sentiments I went straight to him and said, 'Ferguson, I'm yours. We'll be married tomorrow.' And we was. And I'm sure if he hadn't thought of such a lovely way to get around his bashfulness we'd each been single yet!"

Lyceum TODAY,
also Thursday and Friday
Special Orchestra Music

LILLIAN GISH
with RALPH FORBES
directed by FRED NIBLO
The ENEMY

The year's sensation! From Channing Pollock's stage classic!

Read the Dispatch Ads
Before Shopping
It Saves Time and Money

WANT ADS BEING RESULTS

Come and See "The Wheels Go 'round" SATURDAY March 23 at the Chamber of Commerce Rooms at Our POWER FARMING DAY

The power farming idea is sweeping the country so rapidly these days that it is important for every farmer to get first hand information on this subject. It is the purpose of our big POWER FARMING DAY, Saturday, March 23, to provide, in an interesting, entertaining way, facts that will prove helpful to present and prospective power farmers.

The men who will present these facts during our POWER FARMING DAY are experienced in tractor operation and upkeep. Their discussion and demonstration of power farming equipment methods will be worth money to every farmer who is interested in reducing production costs. And, remember, the whole party is FREE. Come early and be our guest for the day. There'll be a dandy FREE LUNCH AT NOON, and FREE MOVIES.

We want you as our guests at the Chamber of Commerce to enjoy POWER FARMING DAY with your friends

SENN & CAIN
811 Front Street Brainerd

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH CO.
Office in Dispatch Building, Sixth St. So.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily Dispatch by Carrier—One month 50c, three months $1.25, one year $5.00
Daily Dispatch by Mail, Outside of City—Three months $1.00, one year $4.00
Weekly Dispatch—One year $1.50.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1929

HOW CARELESS OF HER

THE United Press carried a news story from Chicago relating how 20 years ago a Chicago woman went on a shopping trip and left her month old baby with a neighbor woman. The temporary trustee of the baby is alleged to have kidnapped the child.

The story is lame in one essential. It does not say how long that shopping tour lasted. In a mad pursuit of bargains, the shopping tour may have covered hours and days. The neighbor woman, driven to possible madness, waiting, waiting, may have removed to another town and not wishing to abandon the unclaimed child, felt pity and took it with her.

Now, after 20 years, the real mother has at length traced the child, the neighbor lady on her death bed telling the 20 year old girl, her foster child, that her real mother had gone on a shopping tour.

The story does sound foolish, but any man who has ever accompanied his wife or daughter on a shopping tour or who has awaited the return of one or both from a shopping tour, can feel for the neighbor lady who had charge of that one month old infant, thirsty as all such infants are.

NATIONAL ACHE AND GROAN WEEK

THE Elks Magazine, just arrived, tells of National Ache and Groan Week. This is observed by more people than those participating in Apple Week, Fire Prevention Week, Prune Week, Bran Week, etc.

It concerns itself with the crowd of ambitious golfers, who after a winter's inactivity, sally forth and gorge themselves with heavy play without giving flabby muscles a chance to adapt them selves to the rigors of a fast game. In consequence there is a chorus of aches and groans this merry month of March extending from the Canadian border to the gulf, and from coast to coast.

The writer, James Charlton, then shows how carefully the big league baseball players condition themselves and gradually swing into playing form minus any grunts and groans. There's the moral. Take your first golf after a winter's activity in small dosage.

THE PERSONAL NOTE IN ADVERTISING

DAILY we see advertising with the personal note. Your favorite brand of cigarettes has some distinguished party, fresh in the news notes, smoking them.

Silk stockings? Some pretty girl like Claire Windsor is wearing them, a favorite make, displaying a neat ankle and limb. Household furniture? A society matron reveals pictures of her home with the aforesaid furniture in use.

Restful sleep? Arctic explorer uses a new mattress of so-and-so company.

Gasoline? So-and-so used the brand in breaking some record.

STYLES CHANGE

STYLES change and if it were not so, people would not hanker for new cars, new clothes, new furniture, etc. Styles keep business moving.

But sometimes styles have a revolutionary effect. They wipe out certain lines. Just see what happened when dresses grew shorter and silk stockings came into vogue; when bobbed hair replaced the long tresses; when corsets faded away.

Just think of the monotonous world we would have if all our desires and wants were standardized.

WHEN the Great Northern announced a cut in Chicago to coast time, the Northern Pacific and Milwaukee roads "came back" with the same cheerful news and then Lindbergh had to announce a 36-hour rail-air run from coast to coast. We are certainly speeding up travel.

THE revolution in Mexico cannot last much longer. The rebels have no very large stocks of ammunition or supplies and have gained but little loot in their few victories. The government in power is a regularly established government and is maintaining its position.

REPRESENTATIVES of the American Legion, Commercial club, Lions, Firemen, Armory board and Automobile club of Aitkin met and formed a social club for the community under the name of the Aitkin Civic and Commerce Athletic club.

THE sandwich has certainly reached the height of glorification in many of the small eat shops of Minneapolis. Every style and species, some featured as triple deck. And when you reach for one, it's toasted, like your Luckies.

THIS is getting to be an instalment age. Buy what you want and pay for it later. If you overload on purchases and endanger the household budget, it may be necessary to pay the installments in installments.

CORNSTALKS appear to possess value. Made into pulp, they can be converted into paper and what was once waste on a farm can now be made a valuable byproduct.

EVIDENTLY all those blackbirds, crows, ducks, etc., which continued to make their homes in Crow Wing county knew that spring was just around the corner.

ONE of the first athletic events in the new high school gym should be a basketball game, the contestants being the Lions and Rotarians.

VETERANS of Foreign Wars of the United States, who lately organized a post at Willmar, expect soon to organize at Brainerd.

THE paved highway from Brainerd to the Twin Cities is entirely clear of snow. But little snow remains in the fields.

WELL, the University of Minnesota hockey team is making a better record than the basketball team.

WHEN the engines of a big passenger airplane "go dead," everything else is liable to follow suit.

Faith Clarke's Career

By MARY GREEN

(Copyright.)

IT WAS the first time in Faith Clarke's career as stenographer in the Gage Manufacturing company that she had been late. Her small purse had slipped from her numbed fingers on her way from the Blair street home to the corner, where she customarily took the bus. She had retraced her steps, but the rapidly falling snow had hidden the place where it had fallen.

As soon as she had taken her seat in the room where nine other stenographers worked and had opened her typewriter desk to begin transcribing notes from dictation taken late the previous afternoon, Faith was aware of the fact that something of unusual interest was in the air.

Eventually Faith Clarke pieced together the information that Thomas Gage, Jr., son of "the big boss," had arrived. He had previously had charge of the western plant of the concern, but had now come to assume control of the main office and would need a private secretary.

For an hour little work was done. The buzzing of voices was incessant, and there were frequent pauses in work for powdering of noses. Then a hush suddenly fell on the room, for the door had opened and Mr. Mills, office manager, entered the room with a tall, keen-eyed stranger.

Never had the stenographers' room of the Gage Manufacturing company hummed with such incessant clicking of the typewriters, and never before were ten heads bent in such keen attention to work. Mr. Mills and the stranger stood talking in subdued tones, but obviously the stranger was making observations. Then they left the room and the door closed.

After the noon lunch hour the girls took their places promptly.

Jimmy, the office boy, came in with a message to Faith Clarke. She was wanted in Mr. Gage's office, and she departed at once, without even looking in a mirror.

In spite of dry throat and trembling knees Faith Clarke took a trial run from Mr. Gage with lightning rapidity and transcribed it in an adjoining office without a fault.

"I think, Miss Clarke," he said, "that you may consider yourself advanced to the position of my private secretary. It is an advancement, because it will mean thirty-five dollars a week, and you are now getting twenty-five." "I am sorry," Faith said slowly, "but I—if you don't very much mind, I'd rather not."

So that was the end of that, and Mr. Gage decided to put off for another day the choosing of a private secretary. That evening after close of the office he walked for several miles in the direction of the hotel that was his temporary abode. As he walked he could think of nothing but the case of Faith Clarke. Why had she declined his offer?

His meditations were suddenly interrupted, when his downcast eyes fell upon a small purse lying on the sidewalk before him. It was half covered with snow. Mr. Gage picked it up and opened it. It contained $2.45 and a key attached to a wooden tag marked "Room 30, Blair Street Home." Mr. Gage asked the policeman at the next corner where the Blair Street Home might be, and was directed to a boarding home for girls.

It was a dingy place inside and out. He asked the attendant at the desk whether she would take the purse, at which the attendant mechanically reached out to a cumbersome electric press button and rang nine times and then nine times more. "I've sent for ninety-nine," said the attendant wearily. "I'd rather have you give it to her yourself."

Mr. Gage sat waiting on a narrow uncomfortable black walnut bench in the hall and presently to his surprise appeared in the gloom Faith Clarke. "Are you ninety-nine?" he asked rising. Explanations concerning the loss and finding of the purse were soon over. Mr. Gage lingered, sitting there beside Miss Clarke in the dingy hall. He told her that he felt this a good opportunity to try to persuade her to accept his offer.

Faith Clarke looked about her and then back to Mr. Gage. "You see," she said, "this is home to me. It's the only home I've known since I left my uncle's in the country and that wasn't at all happy. It's a working girl's home—the rule is, that no girl earning more than twenty-five dollars a week can live here. If I accept your proposition I would have to leave this home."

Thomas Gage, Jr., felt something very much like a lump in his throat, at the thought that this dingy place, with its odors of sanctity and poor cooking, could mean so much.

"Still, I'd like to do your work," Faith admitted. "It would be so much more interesting. Would you let me do it with the same salary?"

It was there in that dingy hall that Thomas Gage made up his mind that he would probably woo Faith Clarke as his wife. "A girl who loves home as much as that," he assured himself, "ought to make a wonderful wife."

Two months later he asked her to marry him, and, of course, Faith accepted. It was then that she found that there was a little bank account to her credit, showing a weekly saving of ten dollars a week. "It's yours to do what you want with it," Mr. Gage told her.

"I'm going to give it to the home," said Faith.

DAIRY
THE DAIRYTEST DAIRY COWS
FOR PRODUCTION

Eliminates Unprofitable Animals From Good Ones.

"The herd improvement test advances the breed in two ways," said H. W. Norton, speaking at Cornell University. "It gets rid of the low-producing, unprofitable cows, and discovers those animals capable of high production, the real seed stock of the breed."

Mr. Norton, who is superintendent of advanced registry for the Holstein-Friesian association, says that the herd improvement test meets the requirements of hundreds of breeders who do not feel warranted in undertaking a large-scale test. Unlike the advanced test, in which the individual cow is the unit, this test includes the entire herd and is designed to furnish the owner a definite knowledge of the production of each individual member of the herd. It began January 1, 1928, and for the first year 200 herds including 6318 cows representing 35 states were on test.

"The improvement test will also furnish valuable information regarding sires. Improvement of the breed must be effected largely through the sire; and since heavy production is the chief consideration, it follows that the selection of sires having ability to transmit high production is a matter of the utmost importance," said Mr. Norton. "In the past we have selected sires with a long line of high-producing dams, but this is not an absolute guarantee that the sire will transmit heavy producing ability to his daughters. The only real proof that a bull possesses this much desired characteristic is the fact that his daughters are heavy producers. Such bulls are commonly called proven sires. To date, we have few of them. Advanced registry testing, as commonly practiced, does not prove the sire, because only the best daughters are tested."

"Testing all the daughters of a bull is the real check of his ability to transmit the factor for high production, and this will be one of the outstanding features of the herd improvement test. Herds which continue with this test year after year will show the influence of the sire by comparison of the productions of dams and daughters. As a result many valuable sires will be saved for service, and not slaughtered before their real worth is discovered."

Careless Handling of a
Bull Always Dangerous

Careless handling of a bull is dangerous. Safety demands that the simple principles of good herdsmanship be used, without fail, every day of the year. First, every bull should be dehorned as a calf. Second, every bull should have a strong ring put in his nose when he becomes a yearling. And whenever it is necessary to handle him, a strong bull staff should be attached to the nose-ring. Third, every bull in service should be confined to his exercising pen. Never under any conditions should anyone "trust" a mature animal. Given the bull with the habit of holding his head near the fence to be petted—the so-called "gentle as a kitten" bull—should never be trusted. When he displays his skill at butting in an attempt to catch and crush a hand or object, it should not be looked upon as mere "playful." Instead it should be looked upon as a warning.

Dairy Facts

Salt should be added to all grain mixtures in amounts of 1 to 2 per cent by weight.

Potatoes may be used with success although a heavy allowance of them to a cow will produce milk of poor flavor.

The farmer who has a dry pasture should not hesitate to cut some green corn or sorghum and throw it over to the milk cows.

After the heifers are safe in calf gradually increase the grain ration up to three months before calving and then feed besides alfalfa hay and silage, six to ten pounds of grain a day until a week before calving.

Any feed which is relished by the cow, such as corn, oats, bran, and linseed oil meal, is palatable. We must enter to the cow's appetite if we are to get most milk out of her.

Some farmers like to milk so well that they keep ten poor cows rather than five good ones.

The dairyman who wants a good milk cow must raise her himself. Good milk cows are not for sale except in case of death or divorce.

Stubble or stalk fields are all right for ordinary cattle, but they are not good enough for the dairy cow. If she uses her energy roaming the fields she does not have much left for milk production.

RADIO PROGRAMS

Today
WCCO

5:40 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Minneapolis Star news story.
6:00 p. m.—Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association.
7:00 p. m.—Hank Simmons "Show-boat."
8:00 p. m.—Wheaties quartet.
8:30 p. m.—La Palina smoker.
9:00 p. m.—Kolster hour.
9:30 p. m.—Daguerreotypes.
10:00 p. m.—Weather report.
10:05 p. m.—The Admiral and Marjorie Ellis, dramatist.
10:30 p. m.—Dance program—Wally Erickson's Coliseum orchestra; Jerry Harrington, tenor.
11:30 p. m.—Organ recital—Eddie Dunstetter.

KSTP

6:01 p. m.—Trail Blazers.
7:01 p. m.—Vacuum Oil entertainers.
7:30 p. m.—The Sweetest Maid.
8:01 p. m.—Ingram Shavers.
8:30 p. m.—Palmolive hour.
9:00 p. m.—American Wire Fabrics' program.
10:03 p. m.—KSTP Amos 'n' Andy.
10:10 p. m.—Billy and Jean, entertainers.
10:30 p. m.—Dance feature.
11:30 p. m.—Dance program.
12:00 p. m.—Midnight club.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1929 by United Press
WEAF and NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—Erno Rapee and orchestra and the Revellers quartet.
WEAF and NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—"Rapid Transit": vignettes of metropolitan life.
WJZ and NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—Bourbon's orchestra.
WABC and CBS Network, 8:30 p. m.—Program by recording artists.
WEAF and NBC Network, 9:30 p. m.—NBC concert hour.

Thursday
WCCO

7:00 a. m.—Time signal program.
9:00 a. m.—Hamline radio university.
9:15 a. m.—News bulletin.
9:30 a. m.—What to eat and where to get it.
9:50 a. m.—Weather and market reports; New York stock exchange.
10:15 a. m.—Bank chats.
11:00 a. m.—What to wear.
11:20 p. m.—Program for the Day.
11:30 a. m.—Market reports and New York stock exchange.
12:00 m. Down Home hour.
12:45 p. m.—Announcement.
12:50 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
1:00 p. m.—Polka Dots.
1:30 p. m.—Weather and market reports.
3:00 p. m.—New York stock exchange.
3:05 p. m.—Modulations.
4:00 p. m.—Minnesota Congress of

Parents and Teachers.
4:30 p. m.—Jerry Harrington, tenor.
5:40 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Minneapolis Star news story.
6:00 p. m.—Hotel Lowry orchestra.
6:30 p. m.—The World Book man.
7:00 p. m.—With our state government.
7:15 p. m.—Common Sense in Religion—Rev. Frederick M. Elliot of Unity church, St. Paul.
7:30 p. m.—Soatonic program.
8:00 p. m.—Levin Craftsmen.
8:30 p. m.—Sonora hour.
9:00 p. m.—Silo Sam, the Madison man.
9:10 p. m.—Paul Oberg, pianist.
9:15 p. m.—Theatrical hour from the stage of Minnesota theatre.
10:15 p. m.—Weather report.
10:20 p. m.—Dick Long's orchestra.

6:01 p. m.—Haddorf hour.
6:30 p. m.—Morrison's Synopators.
7:01 p. m.—Forhan's Song Shop.
7:30 p. m.—Hoover Sentinels.
8:01 p. m.—Scherling Singers.
8:30 p. m.—Maxwell hour.
9:00 p. m.—Halsey Stuart Counselor.
9:30 p. m.—Iso-Via entertainers.
10:03 p. m.—KSTP Amos 'n' Andy.
10:15 p. m.—Dance program.
11:00 p. m.—Dance feature.
12:00 p. m.—Midnight club.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1929 by United Press
WEAF and NBC Network, 8 p. m.—Erno Rapee and orchestra and the Revellers quartet.
WEAF and NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—"Rapid Transit": vignettes of metropolitan life.
WJZ and NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—Bourbon's orchestra.
WABC and CBS Network, 8:30 p. m.—Program by recording artists.
WEAF and NBC Network, 9:30 p. m.—NBC concert hour.

Lyndale's Great Work

The printing of Lyndale's translation of the New Testament was completed at Worms (Germany) in 1523

It is now time to start plans for your new home.

Can I assist you?

Vernon E. White

Contractor and Builder
Phone 469Feel Achy After Every Cold?Help Your Kidneys After Colds and Grip.

EVERY day find you lame and achy—suffering nagging backache, headache and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions too frequent, scanty or burning in passage? These are often signs of sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

To promote normal kidney action and assist your kidneys in cleansing your blood of poisonous wastes, use Doan's Pills. Recommended the world over. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's:

M. N. Duffy, 314 S. Cavalry Ave., Detroit, Mich., says: "Some time ago I had sharp pains across my back that made work pretty hard and I couldn't stoop over without suffering. I felt tired out and was troubled because my kidneys didn't act properly. One box of Doan's Pills helped me and I haven't been bothered since."

DOAN'S PILLS
75cASTIMULANT DIURETIC FOR KIDNEYS
Foster-Milburn Co. Mfg. Chem. Buffalo, N.Y.Keep youth longer!cleanse the system of poisons

Two of the great enemies to youth and vitality are delayed elimination and intestinal poisons. To keep yourself free from both these common difficulties will help you to stay young.

With the use of Nujol you can do it too. For Nujol absorbs body poisons and carries them off, preventing their absorption by the body. Nujol also softens the waste matter and brings about normal evacuation. It is harmless; contains no drugs or medicine. It won't cause gas or griping pains, or affect the stomach or kidneys. Every corner drugist has Nujol. Make sure you get the genuine. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle. Don't delay, get Nujol today.

READ THE WANT ADS DAILY

Stop us if you've heard this one . . .

"My dear, I simply dread this daily shopping!" How many times have you heard that story? More than once, we'll bet a hat. And if you ask the woman who "dreads shopping" just why she does so, you'll usually hear something like this:

"It takes so much time! I start out and look and look and look . . . and by the time I've found what I want I'm dead on my feet. All in, my dear. I mean I actually am!"

You can do a friend like that a real service. Ask her if she reads the advertisements. Usually she'll look surprised and say, "Not very often. What has that to do with it?"

Tell her how you have your mind all made up before you hang the market basket over your arm . . . how you're able to save steps, budget your expenditures neatly, get what you want—and all with a minimum of time and effort. Simply because you have the news of the shopping world at your finger-tips all the time, by reading the advertisements every day.

Advertisements are news. Vital, practical news.

News you need to keep on tap.

Read the advertisements every day.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH CO.
Office in Dispatch Building, Sixth St. So.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily Dispatch by Carrier—One month 50c, three months $1.25, one year $5.00
Daily Dispatch by Mail, Outside of City—Three months $1.00, one year $4.00
Weekly Dispatch—One year $1.50.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1929

HOW CARELESS OF HER

THE United Press carried a news story from Chicago relating how 20 years ago a Chicago woman went on a shopping trip and left her month old baby with a neighbor woman. The temporary trustee of the baby is alleged to have kidnapped the child.

The story is lame in one essential. It does not say how long that shopping tour lasted. In a mad pursuit of bargains, the shopping tour may have covered hours and days. The neighbor woman, driven to possible madness, waiting, waiting, may have removed to another town and not wishing to abandon the unclaimed child, felt pity and took it with her.

Now, after 20 years, the real mother has at length traced the child, the neighbor lady on her death bed telling the 20 year old girl, her foster child, that her real mother had gone on a shopping tour.

The story does sound foolish, but any man who has ever accompanied his wife or daughter on a shopping tour or who has awaited the return of one or both from a shopping tour, can feel for the neighbor lady who had charge of that one month old infant, thirsty as all such infants are.

NATIONAL ACHE AND GROAN WEEK

THE Elks Magazine, just arrived, tells of National Ache and Groan Week. This is observed by more people than those participating in Apple Week, Fire Prevention Week, Prune Week, Bran Week, etc.

It concerns itself with the crowd of ambitious golfers, who after a winter's inactivity, sally forth and gorge themselves with heavy play without giving flabby muscles a chance to adapt them selves to the rigors of a fast game. In consequence there is a chorus of aches and groans this merry month of March extending from the Canadian border to the gulf, and from coast to coast.

The writer, James Charlton, then shows how carefully the big league baseball players condition themselves and gradually swing into playing form minus any grunts and groans. There's the moral. Take your first golf after a winter's activity in small dosage.

THE PERSONAL NOTE IN ADVERTISING

DAILY we see advertising with the personal note. Your favorite brand of cigarettes has some distinguished party, fresh in the news notes, smoking them.

Silk stockings? Some pretty girl like Claire Windsor is wearing them, a favorite make, displaying a neat ankle and limb. Household furniture? A society matron reveals pictures of her home with the aforesaid furniture in use.

Restful sleep? Arctic explorer uses a new mattress of so-and-so company.

Gasoline? So-and-so used the brand in breaking some record.

STYLES CHANGE

STYLES change and if it were not so, people would not hanker for new cars, new clothes, new furniture, etc. Styles keep business moving.

But sometimes styles have a revolutionary effect. They wipe out certain lines. Just see what happened when dresses grew shorter and silk stockings came into vogue; when bobbed hair replaced the long tresses; when corsets faded away.

Just think of the monotonous world we would have if all our desires and wants were standardized.

WHEN the Great Northern announced a cut in Chicago to coast time, the Northern Pacific and Milwaukee roads "came back" with the same cheerful news and then Lindbergh had to announce a 36-hour rail-air run from coast to coast. We are certainly speeding up travel.

THE revolution in Mexico cannot last much longer. The rebels have no very large stocks of ammunition or supplies and have gained but little loot in their few victories. The government in power is a regularly established government and is maintaining its position.

REPRESENTATIVES of the American Legion, Commercial club, Lions, Firemen, Armory board and Automobile club of Aitkin met and formed a social club for the community under the name of the Aitkin Civic and Commerce Athletic club.

THE sandwich has certainly reached the height of glorification in many of the small eat shops of Minneapolis. Every style and species, some featured as triple deck. And when you reach for one, it's toasted, like your Luckies.

THIS is getting to be an installment age. Buy what you want and pay for it later. If you overload on purchases and endanger the household budget, it may be necessary to pay the installments in installments.

CORNSTALKS appear to possess value. Made into pulp, they can be converted into paper and what was once waste on a farm can now be made a valuable byproduct.

EVIDENTLY all those blackbirds, crows, ducks, etc., which continued to make their homes in Crow Wing county knew that spring was just around the corner.

ONE of the first athletic events in the new high school gym should be a basketball game, the contestants being the Lions and Rotarians.

VETERANS of Foreign Wars of the United States, who lately organized a post at Willmar, expect soon to organize at Brainerd.

THE paved highway from Brainerd to the Twin Cities is entirely clear of snow. But little snow remains in the fields.

WELL, the University of Minnesota hockey team is making a better record than the basketball team.

WHEN the engines of a big passenger airplane "go dead," everything else is liable to follow suit.

Faith Clarke's Career

By MARY GREEN

(Copyright.)

IT WAS the first time in Faith Clarke's career as stenographer in the Gage Manufacturing company that she had been late. Her small purse had slipped from her numbed fingers on her way from the Blair street home to the corner, where she customarily took the bus. She had retraced her steps, but the rapidly falling snow had hidden the place where it had fallen.

As soon as she had taken her seat in the room where nine other stenographers worked and had opened her typewriter desk to begin transcribing notes from dictation taken late the previous afternoon, Faith was aware of the fact that something of unusual interest was in the air.

Eventually Faith Clarke pieced together the information that Thomas Gage, Jr., son of "the big boss," had arrived. He had previously had charge of the western plant of the concern, but had now come to assume control of the main office and would need a private secretary.

For an hour little work was done. The buzzing of voices was incessant, and there were frequent pauses in work for powdering of noses. Then a hush suddenly fell on the room, for the door had opened and Mr. Mills, office manager, entered the room with a tall, keen-eyed stranger.

Never had the stenographers' room of the Gage Manufacturing company hummed with such incessant clicking of the typewriters, and never before were ten heads bent in such keen attention to work. Mr. Mills and the stranger stood talking in subdued tones, but obviously the stranger was making observations. Then they left the room and the door closed.

After the noon lunch hour the girls took their places promptly.

Jimmy, the office boy, came in with a message to Faith Clarke. She was wanted to Mr. Gage's office, and she departed at once, without even looking in a mirror.

In spite of dry throat and trembling knees Faith Clarke took a trial letter from Mr. Gage with lightning rapidity and transcribed it in an adjoining office without a fault.

"I think, Miss Clarke," he said, "that you may consider yourself advanced to the position of my private secretary. It is an advancement, because it will mean thirty-five dollars a week, and you are now getting twenty-five." "I am sorry," Faith said slowly, "but I—If you don't very much mind, I'd rather not."

So that was the end of that, and Mr. Gage decided to put on for another day the choosing of a private secretary. That evening after close of the office he walked for several miles in the direction of the hotel that was his temporary abode. As he walked he could think of nothing but the case of Faith Clarke. Why had she declined his offer?

His meditations were suddenly interrupted, when his downcast eyes fell upon a small purse lying on the sidewalk before him. It was half covered with snow. Mr. Gage picked it up and opened it. It contained $2.45 and a key attached to a wooden tag marked "Room 99, Blair Street Home." Mr. Gage asked the policeman at the next corner where the Blair Street Home might be, and was directed to a boarding home for girls.

It was a dingy place inside and out. He asked the attendant at the desk whether she would take the purse, at which the attendant mechanically reached out to a cumbersome electric press button and rang nine times and then nine times more. "I've sent for ninety-nine," said the attendant wearily. "I'd rather have you give it to her yourself."

Mr. Gage sat waiting on a narrow uncomfortable black walnut bench in the hall and presently to his surprise appeared in the gloom Faith Clarke.

"Are you ninety-nine?" he asked rising. Explanations concerning the loss and finding of the purse were soon over. Mr. Gage lingered, sitting there beside Miss Clarke in the dingy hall. He told her that he felt this a good opportunity to try to persuade her to accept his offer.

Faith Clarke looked about her and then back to Mr. Gage. "You see," she said, "this is home to me. It's the only home I've known since I left my uncle's in the country and that wasn't at all happy. It's a working girl's home—the rule is that no girl earning more than twenty-five dollars a week can live here. If I accept your proposition I would have to leave this home."

Thomas Gage, Jr., felt something very much like a lump in his throat, at the thought that this dingy place, with its odors of sanctity and poor cooking, could mean so much.

"Still, I'd like to do your work," Faith admitted. "It would be so much more interesting. Would you let me do it with the same salary?"

"It was there in that dingy hall that Thomas Gage made up his mind that he would probably woo Faith Clarke as his wife. "A girl who loves home as much as that," he assured himself, "ought to make a wonderful wife."

Two months later he asked her to marry him, and, of course, Faith accepted. It was then that she found that there was a little bank account to her credit, showing a weekly saving of ten dollars a week. "It's yours to do what you want with it," Mr. Gage told her.

"I'm going to give it to the house," said Faith.

THE DAIRY

TEST DAIRY COWS FOR PRODUCTION

Eliminates Unprofitable Animals From Good Ones.

"The herd improvement test advances the breed in two ways," said H. W. Norton, speaking at Cornell university. "It gets rid of the low-producing, unprofitable cows, and discovers those animals capable of high production, the real seed stock of the breed."

Mr. Norton, who is superintendent of advanced registry for the Holstein-Friesian association, says that the herd improvement test meets the requirements of hundreds of breeders who do not feel warranted in undertaking an expensive test. "I like the advanced test," he said, "which the individual cow is the unit. This test includes the entire herd and is designed to furnish the owner a definite knowledge of the production of each individual member of the herd. It began January 1, 1928, and for the first year 209 herds including 6318 cows representing 35 states were on test."

"The improvement test will also furnish valuable information regarding sires. Improvement of the breed must be effected largely through the sire; and since heavy production is the chief consideration, it follows that the selection of sires having ability to transmit high production is a matter of the utmost importance," said Mr. Norton. "In the past we have selected sires with a long line of high-producing dams, but this is not an absolute guarantee that the sire will transmit heavy producing ability to his daughters. The only real proof that a bull possesses this much desired characteristic is the fact that his daughters are heavy producers. Such bulls are commonly called proven sires. To date, we have few of them. Advanced registry testing, as commonly practiced, does not prove the sire, because only the best daughters are tested."

"Testing all the daughters of a bull is the real check of his ability to transmit the factor for high production, and this will be one of the outstanding features of the herd improvement test. Herds which continue with this test year after year will show the influence of the sire by comparison of the productions of dams and daughters. As a result many valuable sires will be saved for service, and not slaughtered before their real worth is discovered."

Careless Handling of a Bull Always Dangerous

Careless handling of a bull is dangerous. Safety demands that the simple principles of good herdsmanship be used, without fail, every day of the year. First, every bull should be dehorned as a calf. Second, every bull should have a strong ring put in his nose when he becomes a yearling. And whenever it is necessary to handle him, a strong bull staff should be attached to the nose-ring. Third, every bull in service should be confined to his exercising pen. Never under any conditions should anyone "trust" a mature animal. Even the bull with the habit of holding his head near the fence to be petted—the so-called "gentle as a kitten" bull—should never be trusted. When he displays his skill at butting in an attempt to catch and crush a hand or object, it should not be looked upon as mere "playing." Instead it should be looked upon as a warning.

Dairy Facts

Salt should be added to all grain mixtures in amounts of 1 to 2 per cent by weight.

Potatoes may be used with success although a heavy allowance of them to a cow will produce milk of poor flavor.

The farmer who has a dry pasture should not hesitate to cut some green corn or sorghum and throw it over to the milk cows.

After the heifers are safe in calf gradually increase the grain ration up to three months before calving and then feed besides alfalfa hay and silage, six to ten pounds of grain a day until a week before calving.

Any feed which is relished by the cow, such as corn, oats, bran, and linseed oil meal, is palatable. We must cater to the cow's appetite if we are to get most milk out of her.

Some farmers like to milk so well that they keep ten poor cows rather than five good ones.

The dairymen who wants a good milk cow must raise her himself. Good milk cows are not for sale except in case of death or divorce.

Stubble or stalk fields are all right for ordinary cattle, but they are not good enough for the dairy cow. If she uses her energy roaming the fields she does not have much left for milk production.

RADIO PROGRAMS

Today

WCCO

5:40 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Minneapolis Star news story.
6:00 p. m.—Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association.
7:00 p. m.—Hank Simmons "Showboat."
8:00 p. m.—Wheaties quartet.
8:30 p. m.—La Palina smoker.
9:00 p. m.—Kolster hour.
9:30 p. m.—Daguerreotypes.
10:00 p. m.—Weather report.
10:05 p. m.—The Admiral and Marjorie Ellis, dramatist.
10:30 p. m.—Dance program—Wally Erickson's Coliseum orchestra; Jerry Harrington, tenor.
11:30 p. m.—Organ recital—Eddie Dunstetter.
KSTP
6:01 p. m.—Trail Blazers.
7:01 p. m.—Vacuum Oil entertainers.
7:30 p. m.—The Sweetest Maid.
8:01 p. m.—Ingram Shavers.
8:30 p. m.—Palmolive hour.
9 p. m.—American Wire Fabrics' program.
10:03 p. m.—KSTP Amos 'n' Andy.
10:10 p. m.—Billy and Jean, entertainers.
10:30 p. m.—Dance feature.
11:30 p. m.—Dance program.
12:00 p. m.—Midnight club.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1929 by United Press
WEAF and NBC Network, 6:30 p. m.—Bourdon's orchestra.
WOR and CBS Network, 7 p. m.—Hank Simmons' Show Boat.
WEAF and NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—Revellers, soloists and Aenschen's orchestra.
WOL and CWB Network, 9 p. m.—Symphony orchestra.
WJZ and NBC Network, 9 p. m.—The Continentals.

Thursday

WCCO

7:00 a. m.—Time signal program.
9:00 a. m.—Hamline radio university.
9:15 a. m.—News bulletin.
9:30 a. m.—What to eat and where to get it.
9:50 a. m.—Weather and market reports; New York stock exchange.
10:15 a. m.—Bank chats.
11:00 a. m.—What to wear.
11:20 p. m.—Program for the Day.
11:30 a. m.—Market reports and New York stock exchange.
12:00 p. m.—Down Home hour.
12:45 p. m.—Announcement.
12:50 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
1:00 p. m.—Polka Dots.
1:30 p. m.—Weather and market reports.
3:00 p. m.—New York stock exchange.
3:05 p. m.—Modulations.
4:00 p. m.—Minnesota Congress of

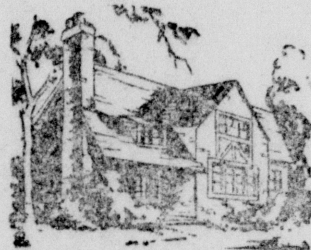

Parents and Teachers.
4:30 p. m.—Jerry Harrington, tenor.
5:40 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Minneapolis Star news story.
6:00 p. m.—Hotel Lowry orchestra.
6:30 p. m.—The World Book man.
7:00 p. m.—With our state government.
7:15 p. m.—Common Sense in Religion—Rev. Frederick M. Elliot of Unity church, St. Paul.
7:30 p. m.—Soatonic program.
8:00 p. m.—Levin Craftsmen.
8:30 p. m.—Sonora hour.
9:00 p. m.—Silo Sam, the Madison man.
9:10 p. m.—Paul Oberg, pianist.
9:15 p. m.—Theatrical hour from the stage of Minnesota theatre.
10:15 p. m.—Weather report.
10:20 p. m.—Dick Long's orchestra.
KSTP
6:01 p. m.—Haddorf hour.
6:30 p. m.—Morrison's Syncopators.
7:01 p. m.—Forhan's Song Shop.
7:30 p. m.—Hoover Sentinels.
8:01 p. m.—Seiberling Singers.
8:30 p. m.—Maxwell hour.
9:00 p. m.—Halsey Stuart Counselor.
9:30 p. m.—Iso-Vis entertainers.
10:03 p. m.—KSTP Amos 'n' Andy.
10:15 p. m.—Dance program.
11:00 p. m.—Dance feature.
12:00 p. m.—Midnight club.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1929 by United Press
WEAF and NBC Network, 8 p. m.—Erno Rapee and orchestra and the Revellers quartet.
WEAF and NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—"Rapid Transit": vignettes of metropolitan life.
WJZ and NBC Network, 8:30 p. m.—Bourbon's orchestra.
WABC and CBS Network, 8:30 p. m.—Program by recording artists.
WEAF and NBC Network, 9:30 p. m.—KSTP concert hour.

Tyndale's Great Work

The printing of Tyndale's translation of the New Testament was completed at Worms (Germany) in 1526

It is now time to start plans for your new home.

Can I assist you?

Vernon F. White

Contractor and Builder
Phone 462

Feel Achy After Every Cold?

Help Your Kidneys After Colds and Grip.

EVERY day find you lame and achy—suffering nagging backache, headache and dizzy spells?

Are kidney excretions too frequent, scanty or burning in passage? These are often signs of sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

To promote normal kidney action and assist your kidneys in cleansing your blood of poisonous wastes, use Doan's Pills. Recommended the world over. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doans:

M. N. Duffy, 314 S. Cavalry Ave., Detroit, Mich., says: "Some time ago I had sharp pains across my back that made work pretty hard and I couldn't stoop over without suffering. I felt tired out and was troubled because my kidneys didn't act properly. One box of Doan's Pills helped me and I haven't been bothered since."

DOAN'S PILLS

75c

A STIMULANT DIURETIC FOR KIDNEYS

Foster-Milburn Co. Mfg. Chem. Buffalo, N.Y.

Keep youth longer!

cleanse the system of poisons

Two of the great enemies to youth and vitality are delayed elimination and intestinal poisons. To keep yourself free from both these common difficulties will help you to stay young.

With the use of Nujol you can do it too. For Nujol absorbs body poisons and carries them off, preventing their absorption by the body. Nujol also softens the waste matter and brings about normal evacuation. It is harmless; contains no drugs or medicine. It won't cause gas or griping pains, or affect the stomach or kidneys. Every corner druggist has Nujol. Make sure you get the genuine. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle. Don't delay, get Nujol today.

READ THE WANT ADS DAILY

Stop us if you've heard this one . . .

"My dear, I simply dread this daily shopping!" How many times have you heard that story? More than once, we'll bet a hat. And if you ask the woman who "dreads shopping" just why she does so, you'll usually hear something like this:

"It takes so much time! I start out and look and look and look . . . and by the time I've found what I want I'm dead on my feet. All in, my dear. I mean I actually am!"

You can do a friend like that a real service. Ask her if she reads the advertisements. Usually she'll look surprised and say, "Not very often. What has that to do with it?"

Tell her how you have your mind all made up before you hang the market basket over your arm . . . how you're able to save steps, budget your expenditures neatly, get what you want—and all with a minimum of time and effort. Simply because you have the news of the shopping world at your finger-tips all the time, by reading the advertisements every day.

Advertisements are news. Vital, practical news.

News you need to keep on tap.

Read the advertisements every day.

BECK AND ROSS TO CLASH AT U. C. T. HALL IN APRIL

BOUT TO VIRTUALLY MAKE LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION OF STATE

WRESTLING HEADLINER WILL BRING TOGETHER TWO BEST WRESTLERS IN N. W.

ROSS CLAIMS PRESENT LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE OF MINNESOTA; GOOD PRELIMS

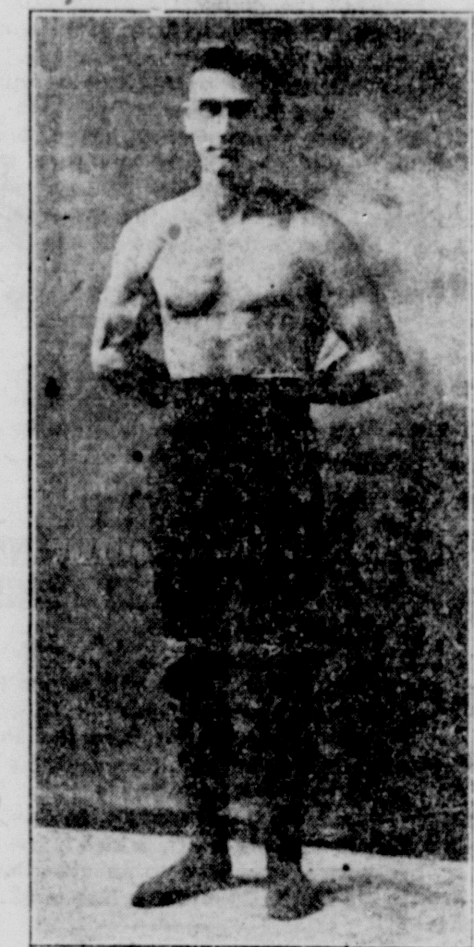

The date for the Johnnie Beck-Fred Ross wrestling clash to be mixed up with some honest to goodness snappy wrestling and boxing preliminaries has been definitely set for the early part of April in the U. C. T. auditorium.

The sport card will be the first of its kind in the Brainerd this year and should attract fans from all sections of the district.

The main event will bring together two of the outstanding wrestlers of the northwest, Ross of Pequot, who claims the lightweight championship of Minnesota, and Beck of Brainerd, contender for the title.

Speaking of his career, Ross said today:

"I started in wrestling in 1912 as a professional and from then until 1916 I wrestled over 500 times in New York, Pennsylvania and Maine undefeated until I met a Jap and we wrestled four and one-half hours. After the war I did little wrestling until I came to Minnesota. Have wrestled between 250 and 300 times in the last seven years and have yet to be defeated by a man in my weight.

Fred Ross of Pequot

"In the last six years I have met such men as Young Beel of Chicago, Ed Manz of Minneapolis, Kelly the Red of Sioux Falls, S. D., Earl Conrad of Des Moines, Ia., Spike Graham of Winona, and many others."

Ross won the lightweight championship from George "Spike" Graham of Winona in 1925 by throwing the champion in two straight falls. Ross and Graham tussled for 25 minutes before Graham was pinned to the mat for the first fall. Ross took the second fall in 15 minutes with a half Nelson and crotch hold.

32 TEAMS COMPETE IN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

Chicago, March 20.—(UP)—With thirty-two teams competing, the sixth annual National Catholic High School Basketball Tournament begins at Loyola University here tonight.

The tournament will continue until Sunday. The program will open tonight with three games, between eastern and middle western teams.

The feature of the three starters bring together De LaSalle of Joliet, Ill., and Camden Catholic school of Camden, N. J.

De LaSalle has won the championship during the past two years and has three veterans to form the nucleus of this year's team. Camden ranks with the best Catholic teams in the east.

With a reputation of being a "tournament team," De LaSalle is conceded a good chance to retain first place honors.

Earliest Christian Church

The church of the Nativity is the oldest Christian church in existence. It was built by Empress Helena, A. D. 330, over the grotto where Christ is supposed to have been born.

STATE HIGH SCHOOL TOURNEY OPENS ON THURSDAY

100 TO 1 SHOT WINS ENGLISH RACE AT LINCOLN

Lincoln, England, March 20.—(UP)—Mrs. R. W. Foster's Elton, a 100 to 1 shot, won the great Lincolnshire mile handicap here today. The Lincolnshire was the first big race of the year.

BOSTON BRUINS. MAPLE LEAFS, NEARING GOAL

THE NEW YORK RANGERS AND AMERICANS DEADLOCKED IN HOCKEY RACE

RESULTS OF FIRST PRELIMINARY MATCHES IN STANLEY CUP HOCKEY PLAY-OFFS

New York, March 20.—(UP)—The Boston Bruins and Toronto Maple Leafs were a step nearer the goal today while the New York Rangers and Americans remained deadlocked, as a result of the first preliminary matches of the Stanley Cup hockey play-offs in three cities last night.

The Bruins, meeting Les Canadiens of Montreal in the first game of a possible five-game series at Boston, clubbed into the lead with a 1 to 0 victory. The first team to win three games will be a finalist in the cup series.

At Madison Square Garden here, the New York Rangers and Americans fought for sixty minutes without scoring. At Detroit, Toronto assumed an imposing two-point lead over the Gougars with a 3 to 1 decision. In these games total goals for the series will decide the victor.

The second and final games will be played in Toronto and New York on Thursday night.

TRAINING CAMP NOTES

Tampa, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—Roy Spencer, catcher, signed by President Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators late yesterday, was to arrive today to start training. Spencer was declared a free agent Saturday by Commissioner Landis. There now are five catchers on the Washington staff but two of them may be cut loose before the week is ended, Manager Johnson intimated.

San Francisco, Calif., March 20.—(UP)—Crossing the plate ten times in the first two innings, the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated San Francisco of the Pacific coast league, 17 to 1. Adams, Pirate shortstop, led the hitting with four hits in six times at bat.

Winter Haven, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—With Bob McGraw, pitcher, signed for the season, the Philadelphia Nationals today awaited word from Guy Cantrell, pitcher, set free from the Washington club, whom the team has been attempting to sign.

Orlando, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—The Cincinnati Reds today were hosts to the Philadelphia Athletics in an exhibition encounter here. Officials of the club expected to release several recruits to the Columbus team of the association, defeated yesterday by the Reds, 5 to 4.

Santa Ana, Calif., March 20.—(UP)—A home run in the eleventh inning by Alexander, young first baseman, gave the Detroit Tigers a 7 to 6 victory over the Portland Pacific coast league team. Alexander's showing strengthened the belief that Manager Harris probably will start him at first base this season.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the Boston Braves continue their series of exhibition games here today with the National leaguers anxious to avenge yesterday's 10 inning 6 to 5 defeat. It was the second overtime contest of the series, Boston winning the first.

New Orleans, La., March 20.—(UP)—Several promising rookies, including Dick Porter and Earl Averill, are expected to be given a chance today when the Cleveland Indians meet the New Orleans Pelicans here. Both men have been showing to advantage in workouts, especially in batting.

Avon Park, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—Grover Cleveland Alexander, veteran hurler, is nursing a sore arm after being struck by a batted ball yesterday, preceding the victory of the St. Louis Cardinals over the Boston Red Sox. His right arm was hit at the elbow, breaking a blood vessel.

MINNESOTA U. FIELD HOUSE SCENE OF PLAY

ALL YOUNG ATHLETES FINELY CONDITIONED, EAGER FOR FRAY

MOORHEAD, LAST YEAR'S CHAMPIONS, SAID TO BE NOT QUITE SO STRONG

Minneapolis, March 20.—(UP)—With the cheers of their townsmen still ringing in their ears the vanguard of entries in the Minnesota high school basketball tournament arrived here today, to begin play at the Minnesota University field house Thursday night.

The finely-conditioned young athletes from Moorhead, Hendricks, Ely and Crookston, all winners of their regional tournaments, were either on the ground this morning or were to be before tonight.

St. Cloud, Red Wing, Preston and Mechanics Arts of St. Paul, the other four entries in the championship tournament, were not expected until tomorrow.

The Twin Cities had already caught the spirit of the tournament today and the discussions of sportsmen centered largely on the probable winner of the tournament.

Moorhead, last year's champions, were said not quite so strong this year although far from a "set-up" for any club.

St. Cloud and Red Wing found plenty of backers, even before the train loads of home-town rooters had arrived on the scene.

Preston and Ely were seen "as dark horses."

Hendricks, Willmar and Mechanics Arts were generally grouped in the same field.

At any rate when the huge field house is thrown open tomorrow night on one of the largest crowds in the opening of the tournament history the fans will be treated to some sparkling basketball and to rooting such as only high school boys and girls know how to produce.

In the balconies will be perhaps 1,000 rooters from St. Paul, nearly as many from Willmar, Red Wing and St. Cloud and hundreds from Moorhead, Preston, Ely and Hendricks.

Bands and bugle corps will be there to help carry the home teams to victory.

All the teams will be seen in action during the first night of play. Semi-finals will be run off on Friday and the finals on Saturday night. Consolation games also will be played Friday and Saturday.

The tournament winner will represent Minnesota in the national tournament at Chicago.

The first round schedule follows:
3 P. M.—St. Cloud vs. Preston.
4 P. M.—Moorhead vs. Ely.
8 P. M.—Red Wing vs. Willmar.
9 P. M.—Hendricks vs. St. Paul.

SEEK SPEEDBOAT RECORD TODAY IN BISCAYNE BAY

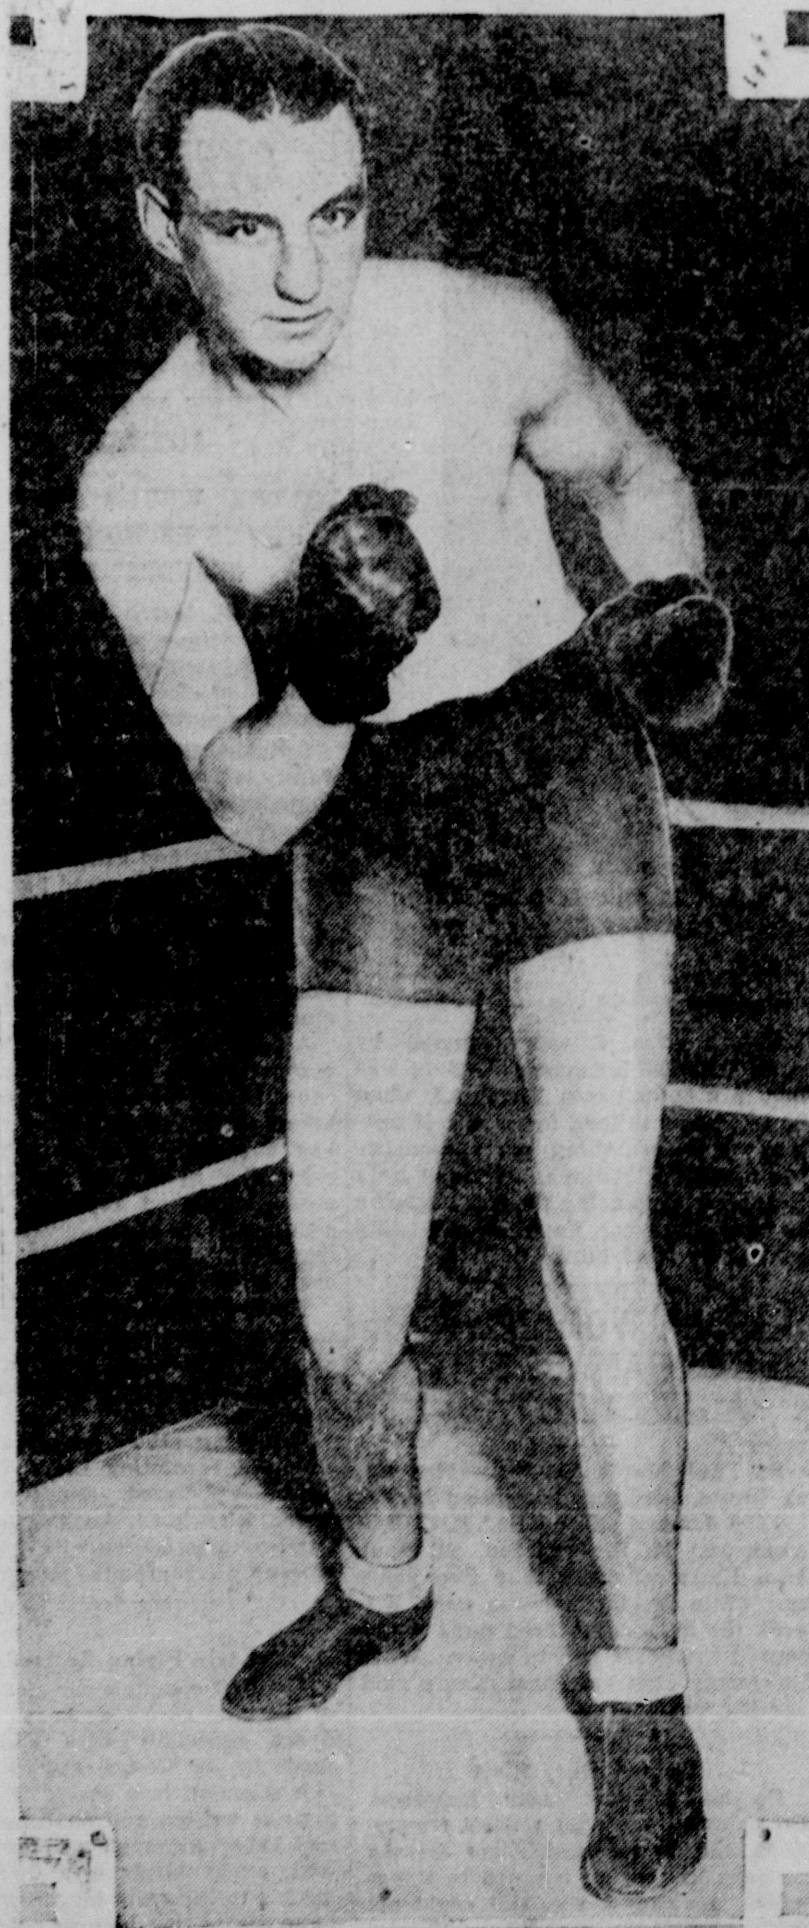

AMERICAN AND ENGLISHMAN READY TO CONTEST FOR HONORS

GAR WOOD TO DEFEND HIS MARK OF 92.838 MILES AN HOUR

Miami Beach, Fla., March 20.—An American and Englishman were ready today for attempts to set a new world's speedboat record in Biscayne Bay.

Major H. O. D. Segrave, British race car and boat pilot, hoped to beat Gar Wood's record of 92.838 miles an hour, while Wood hoped to beat

AFTER THE TITLE

Jackie Fields, popular western welterweight, who will meet Jack Thompson in a ten-round bout March 25 for the championship of the world, relinquished by Joe Dundee.

Famous Flying Tackle Keeps Title

This remarkable photo shows Gus Sonenberg, world's champion heavyweight wrestler, hurling Joe Malcevics to the mat with his famous flying tackle hold at the Boston Garden when the former Dartmouth football star successfully defended his title which he won from Strangler Lewis.

(International Newsphoto)

his own mark, using the same record finish, weighing less than 1,000 pounds. He drove the craft 83 miles an hour in a test at Daytona several weeks ago.

The Englishman gave his Miss

England its first test on the regatta course shortly after dawn today. After the craft was hauled out of the water, Segrave remarked "She is ready." He refused to give the speed reached.

Wood also refused to announce the speed the Miss America attained in recent tests.

The life of the delicate engine in Segrave's craft is limited and it will likely not be tuned to full speed until the race itself.

WM. F. CAREY TO DIRECT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

New York, March 20.—(UP)—William F. Carey prepared today to assume the task of directing Madison Square Garden.

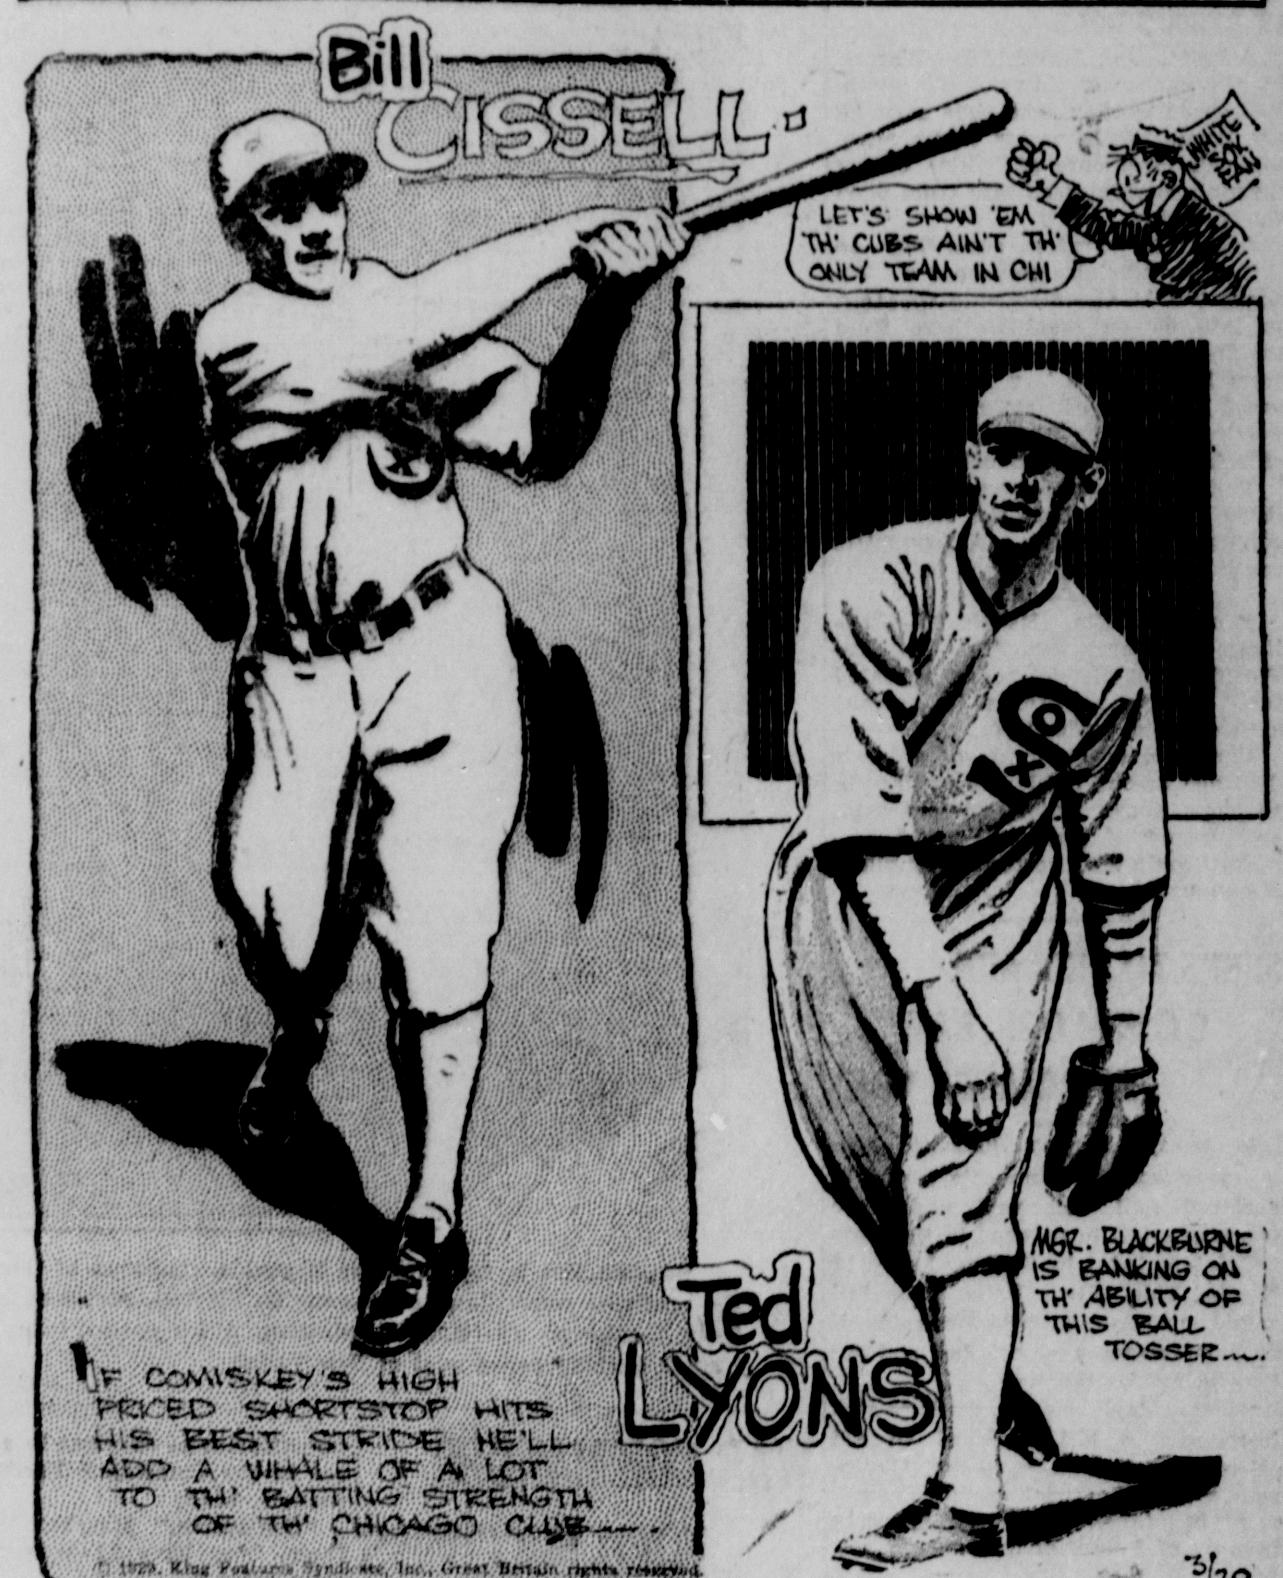

Carey yesterday was elected to the presidency of the Garden corporation by a unanimous vote of the board of directors, succeeding Tex Rickard who died last January.

At the same meeting Col. John S. Hammond was retained as vice president and Bernard R. Gimbel, department store head, was elected to the board of directors to fill the vacancy left by the death of Rickard.

Carey announced there would be no immediate changes in policy.

Additional Sports on Page 8

What of the White Sox?

By QUIN HALL.

BECAUSE of the glamour surrounding Bill Cissell's White Sox and their chances in this year's National League race, some Chicago fans are overlooking Charley Comiskey's White Sox on the south side of the Windy City.

True, the Old Roman's team doesn't look to be much stronger than last year on paper. Russell Blackburne, who took over the managerial duties in mid season, last year, is assured of his berth. He had considerable to do with pulling the Pale Hose into a position where they led the second division at the close of 1928. This Blackburne is a hustler and the boys or the club played fast ball to back him up when he followed Ray Schalk in the pilot house. They're likely to play pretty snappy this coming season, too.

While general conversation is centered around the Cubs and their chances; and, while Comiskey himself is out with a prediction that the North Siders will win in the older circuit, the Old Roman still has hopes that his club has an outside chance to lead in the American League. And Comiskey feels that he is not talking out of turn when he intimates that the World Series may be played exclusively in Chicago's backyard.

The Old Roman still dreams of seeing another pennant wave over his park. Charley is 69 years old. His first world pennant was won in 1885. In 1906 the Sox beat the Cubs in the Fall classic. In 1917 they took the title from the Giants. The Old Roman thinks it's time for another one.

Looking over the White Sox we find that they have quite a few assets. Blackburne is a live-wire pilot. He proved that in his trial last year. They have a fairly dependable gang of fingers. They have speed and a great deal of fielding ability and sufficient talent back of the plate. A team with those qualities cannot be entirely ignored.

On the pitching staff, Ted Lyons might well be rated as one of Blackburne's best bets. He pitches consistently good ball, month in and month out, and he is pretty ably assisted by such twirlers as Al Thomas, Ted Blankenship and Grady Adkins. Young Ed Walsh broke in last season and exhibited great promise. He'll undoubtedly prove much more efficient during his second season in fast company. Old Master Ed has probably taught his son additional tricks during the winter months. Red Faber should also furnish the Sox extra pitching strength with his spitball. Bill Cissell, the high-priced shortstop who was purchased from the Portland Club in the Pacific Coast League, and played his first ball with the Sox last year, may prove to be worth the price paid for him this year. Comiskey parted with a reported $123,000 to get Cissell and Bill didn't look to be worth that amount during 1928. If he can strike his regular stride this year, Cissell will help Blackburne win a lot of ball games.

During the off season, Comiskey purchased outfielder Clarence Hoffman from the Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast League for $30,000. Hoffman is rated as a heavy hitter and may prove a big help to the White Sox. Blackburne can use some 300 hitters.

The White Sox have what might be called a very youthful team, and you can never tell about youngsters. Maybe this is the year for the Chicago club. Many fans are again giving the pennant to the Yankees, but the New York club will have plenty of fighting to do before the title is clear, and the Pale Hose may cause plenty of upsets.

BECK AND ROSS TO CLASH AT U. C. T. HALL IN APRIL

BOUT TO VIRTUALLY MAKE LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION OF STATE

WRESTLING HEADLINER WILL BRING TOGETHER TWO BEST WRESTLERS IN N. W.

ROSS CLAIMS PRESENT LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE OF MINNESOTA; GOOD PRELIMS

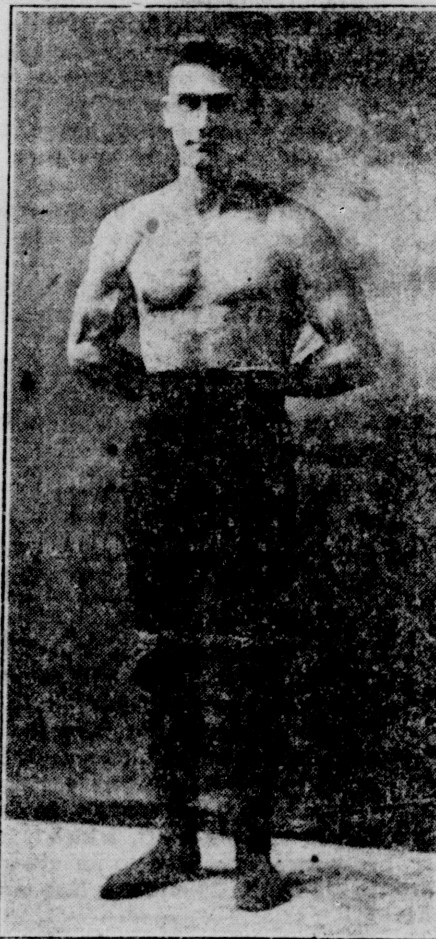

The date for the Johnnie Beck-Fred Ross wrestling clash to be mixed up with some honest to goodness snappy wrestling and boxing preliminaries has been definitely set for the early part of April in the U. C. T. auditorium.

The sport card will be the first of its kind in the Brainerd this year and should attract fans from all sections of the district.

The main event will bring together two of the outstanding wrestlers of the northwest, Ross of Pequot, who claims the lightweight championship of Minnesota, and Beck of Brainerd, contender for the title.

Speaking of his career, Ross said today:

"I started in wrestling in 1912 as a professional and from then until 1916 I wrestled over 500 times in New York, Pennsylvania and Maine undefeated until I met a Jap and we wrestled four and one-half hours. After the war I did little wrestling until I came to Minnesota. Have wrestled between 250 and 300 times in the last seven years and have yet to be defeated by a man in my weight.

Fred Ross of Pequot

"In the last six years I have met such men as Young Beel of Chicago, Ed Manz of Minneapolis, Kelly the Bel of Sioux Falls, S. D., Earl Conrad of Des Moines, Ia., Spike Graham of Winona, and many others."

Ross won the lightweight championship from George "Spike" Graham of Winona in 1925 by throwing the champion in two straight falls. Ross and Graham wrestled for 25 minutes before Graham was pinned to the mat for the first fall. Ross took the second fall in 15 minutes with a half Nelson and crotch hold.

32 TEAMS COMPETE IN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

Chicago, March 20.—(UP)—With thirty-two teams competing, the sixth annual National Catholic High School Basketball Tournament begins at Loyola University here tonight.

The tournament will continue until Sunday. The program will open tonight with three games, between eastern and middle western teams.

The feature of the three starters bring together De LaSalle of Joliet, Ill., and Camden Catholic school of Camden, N. J.

De LaSalle has won the championship during the past two years and has three veterans to form the nucleus of this year's team. Camden ranks with the best Catholic teams in the east.

With a reputation of being a "tournament team," De LaSalle is conceded a good chance to retain first place honors.

Earliest Christian Church

The church of the Nativity is the oldest Christian church in existence. It was built by Empress Helena, A. D. 330, over the grotto where Christ is supposed to have been born.

STATE HIGH SCHOOL TOURNEY OPENS ON THURSDAY

100 TO 1 SHOT WINS ENGLISH RACE AT LINCOLN

Lincoln, England, March 20.—(U.P.)—Mrs. R. W. Foster's Elton, a 100 to 1 shot, won the great Lincolnshire mile handicap here today. The Lincolnshire was the first big race of the year.

BOSTON BRUINS, MAPLE LEAFS, NEARING GOAL

THE NEW YORK RANGERS AND AMERICANS DEADLOCKED IN HOCKEY RACE

RESULTS OF FIRST PRELIMINARY MATCHES IN STANLEY CUP HOCKEY PLAY-OFFS

New York, March 20.—(UP)—The Boston Bruins and Toronto Maple Leafs were a step nearer the goal today while the New York Rangers and Americans remained deadlocked, as a result of the first preliminary matches of the Stanley Cup hockey play-offs in three cities last night.

The Bruins, meeting Les Canadiens of Montreal in the first game of a possible five-game series at Boston, climbed into the lead with a 1 to 0 victory. The first team to win three games will be a finalist in the cup series.

At Madison Square Garden here, the New York Rangers and Americans fought for sixty minutes without scoring. At Detroit, Toronto assumed an imposing two-point lead over the Cougars with a 3 to 1 decision. In these games total goals for the series will decide the victor.

The second and final games will be played in Toronto and New York on Thursday night.

TRAINING CAMP NOTES

Tampa, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—Roy Spencer, catcher, signed by President Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators late yesterday, was to arrive today to start training. Spencer was declared a free agent Saturday by Commissioner Landis. There now are five catchers on the Washington staff but two of them may be cut loose before the week is ended, Manager Johnson intimated.

San Francisco, Calif., March 20.—(UP)—Crossing the plate ten times in the first two innings, the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated San Francisco of the Pacific coast league, 17 to 1. Adams, Pirate shortstop, led the hitting with four hits in six times at bat.

Winter Haven, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—With Bob McGraw, pitcher, signed for the season, the Philadelphia Nationals today awaited word from Guy Cantrell, pitcher, set free from the Washington club, whom the team has been attempting to sign.

Orlando, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—The Cincinnati Reds today were hosts to the Philadelphia Athletics in an exhibition encounter here. Officials of the club expected to release several recruits to the Columbus team of the association, defeated yesterday by the Reds, 5 to 4.

Santa Ana, Calif., March 20.—(UP)—A home run in the eleventh inning by Alexander, young first baseman, gave the Detroit Tigers a 7 to 6 victory over the Portland Pacific coast league team. Alexander's showing strengthened the belief that Manager Harris probably will start him at first base this season.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—The New York Yankees and the Boston Braves continue their series of exhibition games here today with the National leaguers anxious to avenge yesterday's 10 inning 6 to 5 defeat. It was the second overtime contest of the series, Boston winning the first.

New Orleans, La., March 20.—(UP)—Several promising rookies, including Dick Porter and Earl Averill, are expected to be given a chance today when the Cleveland Indians meet the New Orleans Pelicans here. Both men have been showing to advantage in workouts, especially in batting.

Avon Park, Fla., March 20.—(UP)—Grover Cleveland Alexander, veteran hurler, is nursing a sore arm after being struck by a batted ball yesterday, preceding the victory of the St. Louis Cardinals over the Boston Red Sox. His right arm was hit at the elbow, reeking a blood vessel.

MINNESOTA U. FIELD HOUSE SCENE OF PLAY

ALL YOUNG ATHLETES FINELY CONDITIONED, EAGER FOR FRAY

MOORHEAD, LAST YEAR'S CHAMPIONS, SAID TO BE NOT QUITE SO STRONG

Minneapolis, March 20.—(UP)—With the cheers of their townsmen still ringing in their ears the vanguard of entries in the Minnesota high school basketball tournament arrived here today, to begin play at the Minnesota University field house Thursday night.

The finely-conditioned young athletes from Moorhead, Hendricks, Ely and Crookston, all winners of their regional tournaments, were either on the ground this morning or were to be before tonight.

St. Cloud, Red Wing, Preston and Mechanics Arts of St. Paul, the other four entries in the championship tournament, were not expected until tomorrow.

The Twin Cities had already caught the spirit of the tournament today and the discussions of sportsmen centered largely on the probable winner of the tournament.

Moorhead, last year's champions, were said not quite so strong this year although far from a "set-up" for any club.

St. Cloud and Red Wing found plenty of backers even before the train loads of home-town rooters had arrived on the scene.

Preston and Ely were seen "as dark horses."

Hendricks, Willmar and Mechanics Arts were generally grouped in the same field.

At any rate when the huge field house is thrown open tomorrow night on one of the largest crowds in the opening of the tournament history the fans will be treated to some sparkling basketball and to rooting such as only high school boys and girls know how to produce.

In the balconies will be perhaps 1,000 rooters from St. Paul, nearly as many from Willmar, Red Wing and St. Cloud and hundreds from Moorhead, Preston, Ely and Hendricks.

Bands and bugle corps will be there to help carry the home teams to victory.

All the teams will be seen in action during the first night of play. Semi-finals will be run off on Friday and the finals on Saturday night. Consolation games also will be played Friday and Saturday.

The tournament winner will represent Minnesota in the national tournament at Chicago.

The first round schedule follows: 3 P. M.—St. Cloud vs. Preston. 4 P. M.—Moorhead vs. Ely. 8 P. M.—Red Wing vs. Willmar. 9 P. M.—Hendricks vs. St. Paul.

SEEK SPEEDBOAT RECORD TODAY IN BISCAYNE BAY

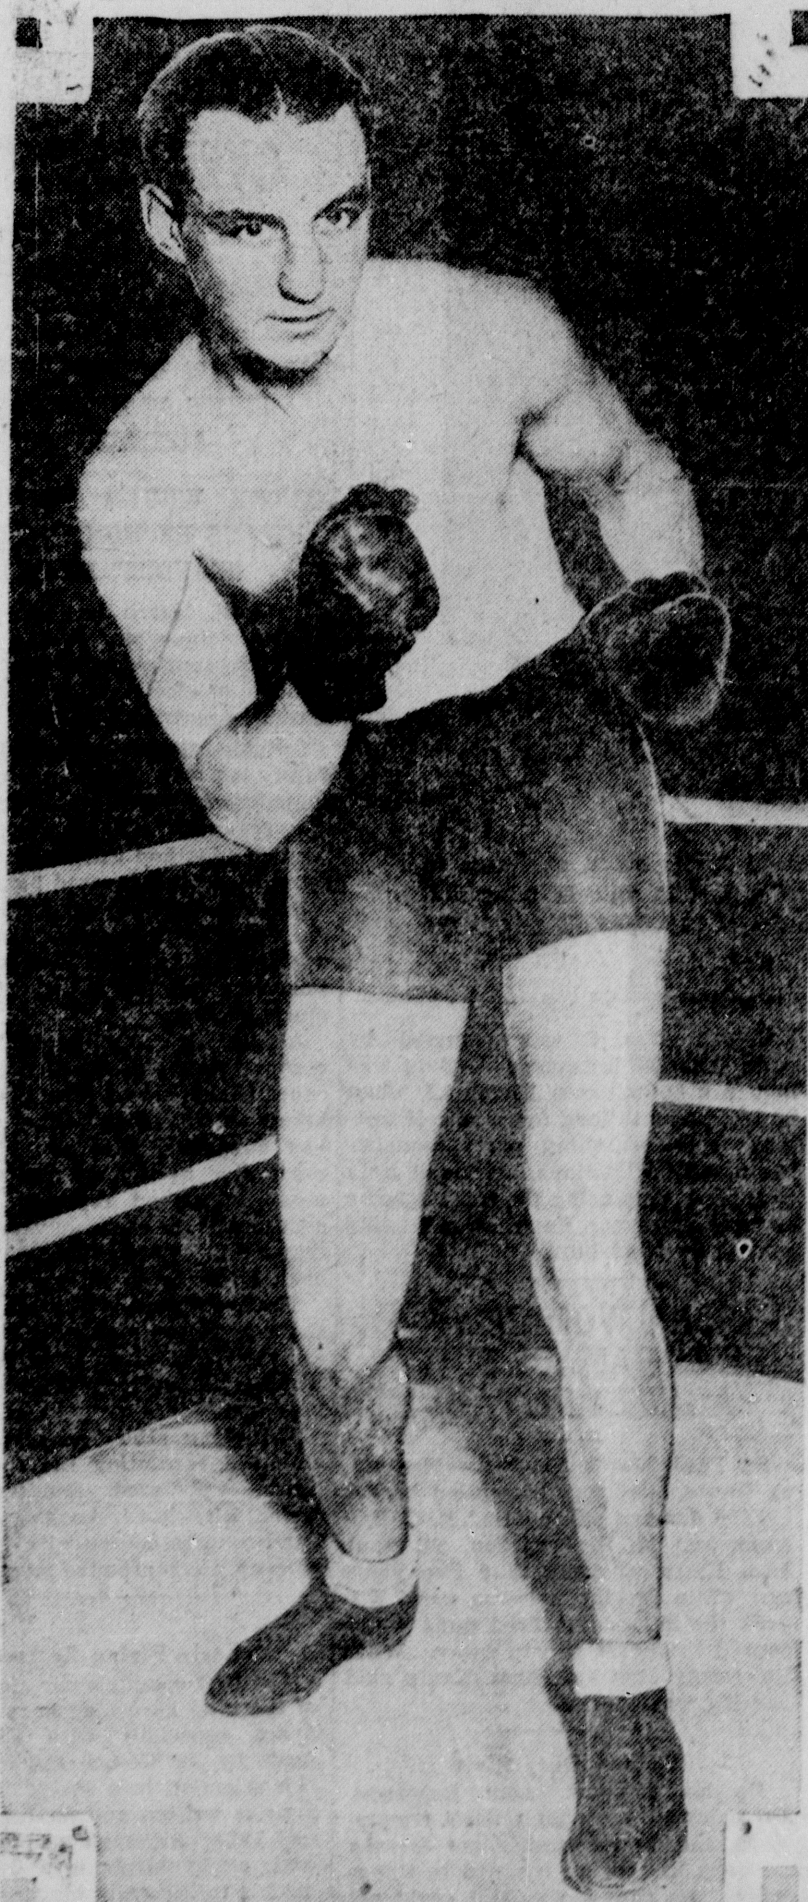

AMERICAN AND ENGLISHMAN READY TO CONTEST FOR HONORS

GAR WOOD TO DEFEND HIS MARK OF 92.838 MILES AN HOUR

Miami Beach, Fla., March 20.—An American and Englishman were ready today for attempts to set a new world's speedboat record in Biscayne Bay.

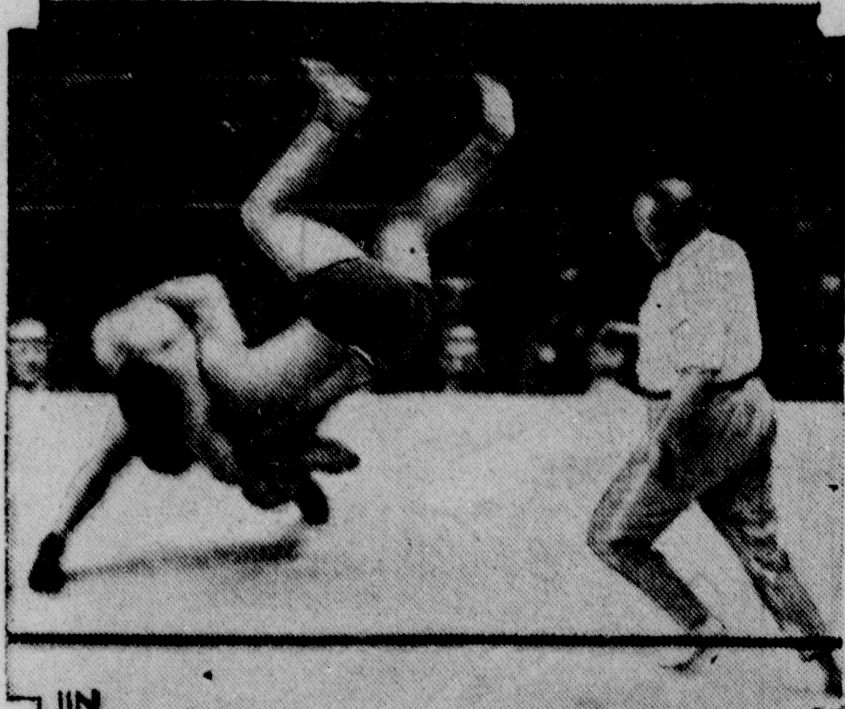

Major H. O. D. Segrave, British race car and boat pilot, hoped to beat Gar Wood's record of 92.838 miles an hour, while Wood hoped to beat

AFTER THE TITLE

Jackie Fields, popular western welterweight, who will meet Jack Thompson in a ten-round bout March 25 for the championship of the world, relinquished by Joe Dundee.

Famous Flying Tackle Keeps Title

This remarkable photo shows Gus Sonnenberg, world's champion heavyweight wrestler, hurling Joe Malcewicz to the mat with his famous flying tackle hold at the Boston Garden when the former Dartmouth football star successfully defended his title which he won from Strangler Lewis.

(International Newsphoto)

his own mark, using the same record breaking craft, Miss America VII. Segrave will pilot the specially built Miss England, a single motored 900 horsepower boat of mahogany finish, weighing less than 1,000 pounds. He drove the craft 83 miles an hour in a test at Daytona several weeks ago.

The Englishman gave his Miss

England its first test on the regatta course shortly after dawn today. After the craft was hauled out of the water, Segrave remarked "She is ready." He refused to give the speed reached.

Wood also refused to announce the speed the Miss America attained in recent tests.

The life of the delicate engine in Segrave's craft is limited and it will likely not be tuned to full speed until the race itself.

WM. F. CAREY TO DIRECT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

New York, March 20.—(U.P.)—William F. Carey prepared today to assume the task of directing Madison Square Garden.

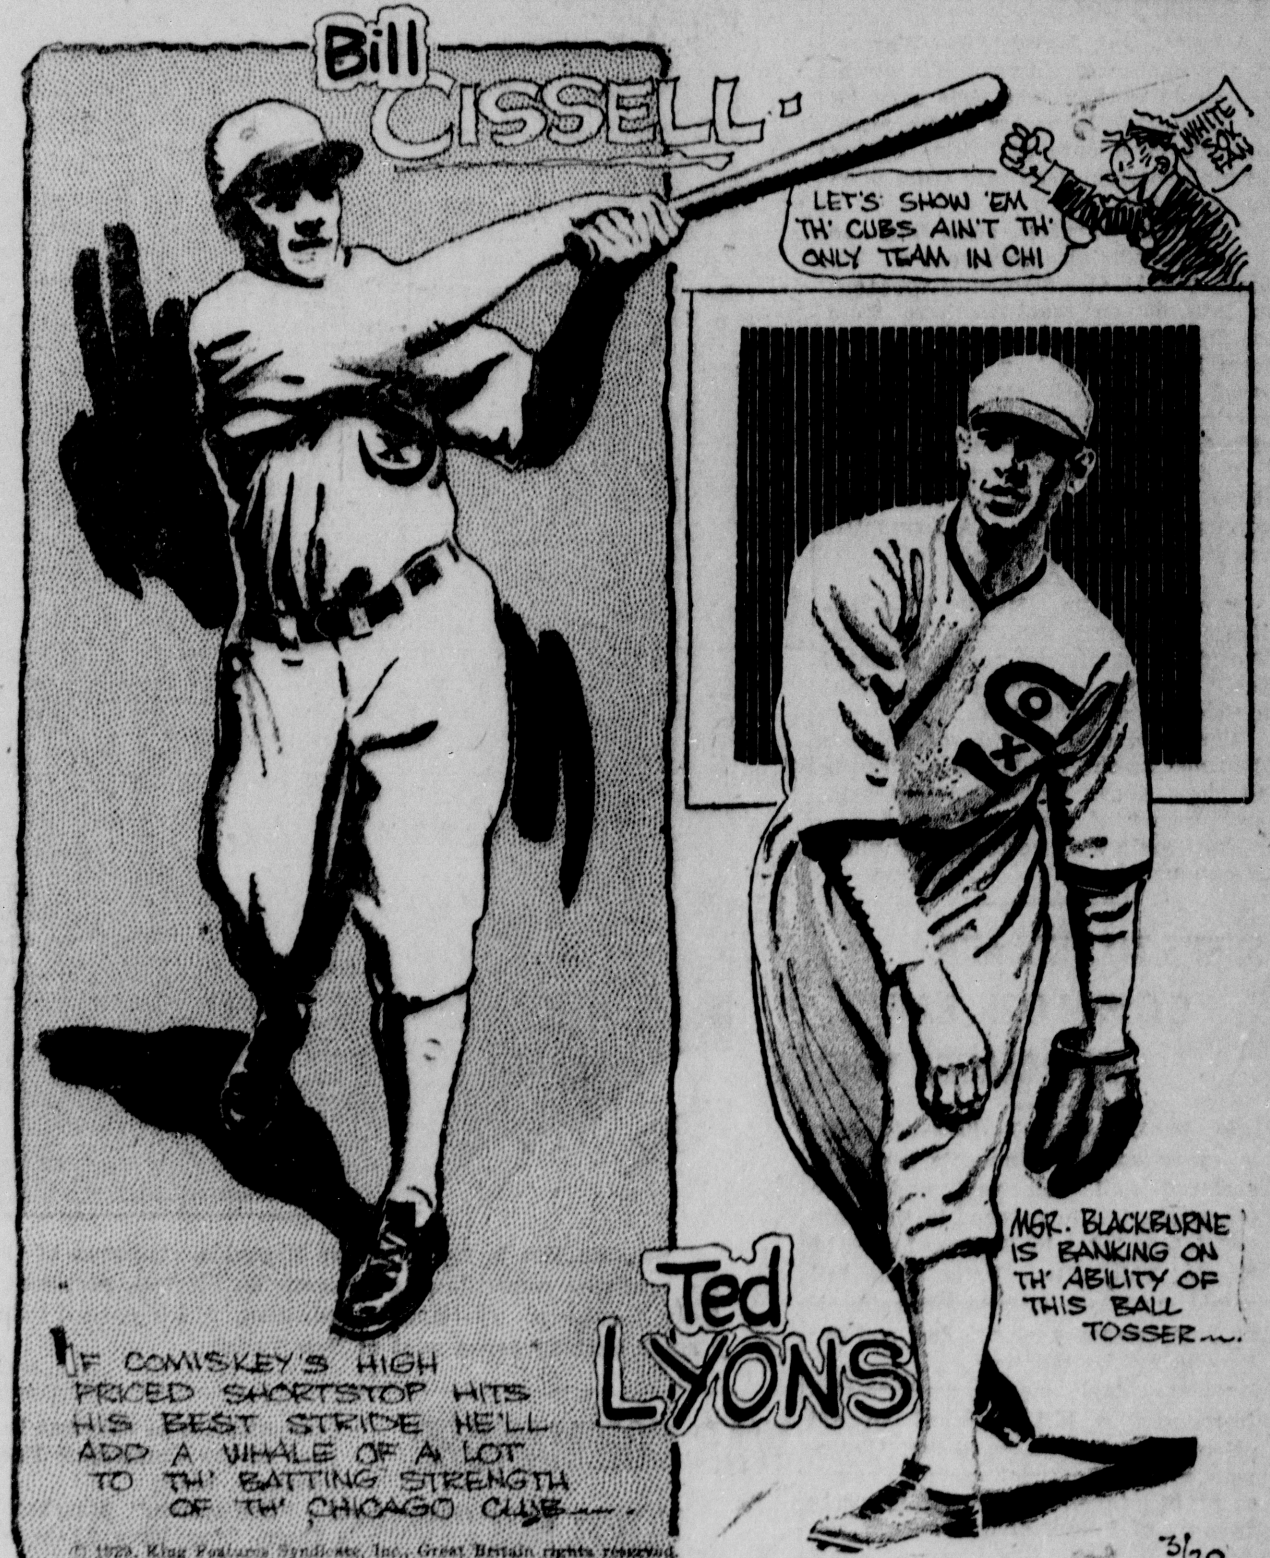

Carey yesterday was elected to the presidency of the Garden corporation by a unanimous vote of the board of directors, succeeding Tex Rickard who died last January.

At the same meeting Col. John S. Hammond was retained as vice president and Bernard R. Gimbel, department store head, was elected to the board of directors to fill the vacancy left by the death of Rickard.

Carey announced there would be no immediate changes in policy.

Additional Sports on Page 8

What of the White Sox?

By QUIN HALL.
BECAUSE of the glamour surrounding Bill Wrigley's Cubs and their chances in this year's National League race, some Chicago fans are overlooking Charley Comiskey's White Sox on the south side of the Windy City. True, the Old Roman's team doesn't look to be much stronger than last year on paper. Russell Blackburne, who took over the managerial duties in mid season, is assured of his berth. He had considerable to do with pulling the Pale Hose into a position where they led the second division at the close of 1928. This Blackburne is a hustler and the boys on the club played fast ball to back him up when he followed Ray Schaak in the pilot house. They're likely to play pretty snappily this coming season, too.

While general conversation is centered around the Cubs and their chances; and, while Comiskey himself is out with a prediction that the North Siders will win in the older circuit, the Old Roman still has hopes that his club has an outside chance to lead in the American League. And Comiskey feels that he is not talking out of turn when he intimates that the World Series may be played exclusively in Chicago's backyard.

The Old Roman still dreams of seeing another pennant wave over his park. Charley is 69 years old. His first world pennant was won in 1885. In 1906 the Sox beat the Cubs in the Fall classic. In 1917 they took the title from the Giants. The Old Roman thinks it's time for another one. Looking over the White Sox we find that they have quite a few assets. Blackburne is a live-wire pilot. He proved that in his trial last year. They have a fairly dependable gang of flingers. They have speed and a great deal of fielding ability and sufficient talent back of the plate. A team with those qualities cannot be entirely ignored.

On the pitching staff, Ted Lyons might well be rated as one of Blackburne's best bets. He pitches consistently good ball, month in and month out, and he is pretty ably assisted by such twirlers as Al Thomas, Ted Blankenship and Grady Adkins. Young Ed Walsh broke in last season and exhibited great promise. He'll undoubtedly prove much more efficient during his second season in fast company. Old Master Ed has probably taught his son additional tricks during

3/20

RIVER 10.3 FEET ABOVE NORMAL AT ST. PAUL

SINCE THURSDAY WHEN RISE
BEGAN, RIVER CREEPS TO 14-FOOT MARK

DURING THE PAST 24 HOURS A
RISE OF 1.6 FEET IS RE-PORTED

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—The Mississippi river was 10.3 feet above normal here today and if the rise continues flood stage will be reached Friday night, the weather bureau announced.

Since Thursday when the rise in the "Father of Waters" began, the river has crept toward the 14-foot, or flood stage mark, at the rate of more than one and one-half feet a day.

During the past 24 hours the increase was 1.6 feet.

Heretofore it had been believed that the Mississippi would not reach the flood stage this season.

RIVER IS RISING AT BRAINERD

Old lumbermen here at Brainerd assert the Minnesota and Crow Wing rivers are the most "wicked" streams in the Mississippi watershed of the state and are in large measure responsible for the rise of the Mississippi at St. Paul. The Minnesota and Crow Wing run fast and have no reservoirs.

At Gull lake the past week a rise of an inch and a half is reported. On the Mississippi south of the dam at Brainerd a two-foot rise is reported within the past week.

The warm weather of the past ten days was succeeded by snow from the southeast near 11 A. M. today, temperature at 8 A. M. being 23 degrees above zero.

RED CROSS WORKER IN RESCUE ROLE

Atlanta, Ga., March 20.—Warned by the shouts of Edward H. Calvin, Red Cross worker, who rode through the Apalachicola valley in an automobile, the residents of this cotton farming section were safe from flood waters today.

Only this warning, according to Red Cross officials, prevented a high death toll in the district. According to information reaching here from the flooded districts, this new menace from high waters is a result of the great drainage of waters of the north into creeks feeding the Apalachicola and Chattahoochee rivers.

The crest of the flood today was at River Junction where the two rivers converge in Florida. A few miles north is the Georgia line.

Pensacola, Fla., March 20.—Milligan and Carryville, Fla., in the Florida flood district today appealed for tetanus anti-toxin to prevent a threatened epidemic.

Carcasses of hundreds of animals drowned in the floods are beginning to show above water, advices said, and danger of disease is great.

Anti-toxin sent yesterday by plane is exhausted.

SEEKS TO DECLARE COMMON LAW MARRIAGES VOID

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—Common law marriages in Minnesota would be declared null and void, under the terms of a bill introduced in the state legislature today by Senator Laura E. Naplin, Thief River Falls. The bill would invalidate, interpreters said, all such marriages now existing and acknowledged by the state.

Senator Naplin and four others also introduced a bill designed to aid school districts in northern Minnesota where the rural credits department has taken over much property because of failure of residents to pay loans.

The bill provides that districts in which property was so taken should receive from the state amounts equal to those which they would have received had the property been privately owned.

'GIANT BULLY' OF THE HILLS' KILLED IN OZARK FEUD

Kingston, Ark., March 20.—(UP)—A bitter Ozark mountain feud ended here today with the death of Clarence Elzey, known throughout the mountain country as "the giant bully of the hills."

Elzey was shot and killed by Ross Parker, a cripple, against whose clan Elzey had led a raid in 1927. During the battle Elzey wounded Parker and left him paralyzed on the floor of his cabin to die.

The men met in the postoffice here. Parker raised his rifle and sent two bullets into Elzey's heart. The feud ended, Parker surrendered to the police.

THE MARCH HARE

HEAD NEW BILLION DOLLAR BANK

Reading, left to right, Arthur Reynolds, chairman of the board; George M. Reynolds, chairman of the executive committee, and Eugene M. Stevens, president of the new Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company. The new organization, which opened today, has resources of $1,000,000,000 and is the largest banking house west of New York.

WAR COMMANDER FOCH SUCCEUMS

(Continued from page 1)

tory and strategy at the college. Then in 1905, he became commandant of the Ecole De Guerra and a corps commander in 1912.

He took command of the 20th corps the next year and when the world war broke out a year later, he led his men into the first conflict of a four-year struggle.

Foch, an expert strategist, was in demand all along the front. After the battle of Ypres, he was put at the head of all the French armies in the north in 1915 and 1916. In the spring of 1917, Foch was sent south and to Italy to aid the allies there. Summer months forced his quick recall and he was placed in command of all the allied armies in France in April, 1918.

Under his single command, the allied armies moved steadily forward until the armistice was signed. It was Foch who dictated the terms of the Armistice to the German plenipotentiaries as they sat in a railroad car in the Compiègne Forest in November, 1918.

"Gentlemen," Marshal Foch told them, "you have 72 hours to make your reply."

Charged With Circulating Sex Questionnaires Among U. Students

Columbia, Mo., March 20.—(UP)—The executive board of curators of the University of Missouri today dismissed two professors and one student after an inquiry into the circulation of sex questionnaires among students of the university.

Those dismissed are: M. F. Meyer, professor of psychology; Prof. H. O. DeGraff, professor of sociology, and O. H. Mower, student assistant in psychology.

SEARCH FOR BODY OF BOY RESUMED BY 300 HORSEMEN

Gordon, Neb., March 20.—(UP)—While snow melted rapidly over this area today the search for the body of

Melvin Reeves, 6, was resumed by more than 300 horsemen. Melvin was lost in a snow storm March 12, when he left home to look for a pair of mittens. The searching party, consisting mostly of Indians, attracted by a $250 reward, is using the Reeves home as headquarters. Supplies are being sent daily from here.

WADENA WOMAN FILES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST ST. PAUL MEN

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—Mrs. Edna Kautz, Wadena, today filed here a $10,000 damage suit against E. C. Emmons and M. B. Jamieson, St. Paul. Mrs. Kautz charged that two years ago while driving a horse near Wadena the defendants fired guns which caused the horse to run away. When the buggy smashed, Mrs. Kautz said her leg was broken.

Today's Duty First

Be not anxious about tomorrow. Do today's duty, fight today's temptations, and do not weaken or distract yourself by looking forward to things which you cannot see, and could not understand if you saw them.—Charles Kingsley.

Flood Crest Slowly Passes in South

Scenes such as this near West Point, Ga., are common throughout the flooded districts of Georgia and Alabama where more than 20,000 have been made homeless and the death toll is still mounting in the unprecedented floods which have prevailed. State militia and relief organizations have used airplanes to bring food to the sufferers, thus saving hundreds of lives. (International Newsreel)

Here It Is, All Saints Day

Better watch your step and keep in mind all your tricks of younger days on this, the day of days for tricksters. We don't know whether Nancy Carroll expects to fall for the old hat over the brick stunt, but evidently she thinks someone will give her a laugh. (International Newsreel)

ROW IN SENATE OVER ELECTING U. REGENTS

SEN. CHRIS ROSENMEIER LEADS
FIGHT AGAINST HOUSE
AMENDMENTS

LATTER WOULD PROVIDE RE-
GENTS BE NOMINATED BY
"CAUCUS" METHOD

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—The belligerent Minnesota senate today refused to concur with the house on methods of electing University of Minnesota regents.

Senator Chris Rosenmeier, Little Falls, led the fight against house amendments which would provide that the regents be nominated by the "caucus" method rather than the joint committee plan favored by the senate.

Rosenmeier pointed out that under the "caucus" plan the house would wield twice as much authority as the senate since its membership is so much greater.

Almost from the beginning of the recent squabble, which a supreme court decision last year placed in the hands of the legislature, the senate has suggested that the regents be nominated by a joint committee composed of eleven representatives and senators from each congressional district of the state plus one member in each house from at large.

The house meanwhile suggested that the committee men call a caucus of all the legislators in their districts who would decide in the regency nominations.

Following the rejection of the amended resolution Lieut. Gov. W. I. Nolan appointed Senators Rosenmeier, Blanchard, Anoka, and Rockne, Zumbrota, to confer with house members on a compromise measure.

Early Flying Enthusiast

The first comprehensive explanation of the laws governing heavier-than-air flying, especially with gliders, was made by Sir George Cayley, an English scientist, in a series of magazine articles written and published in 1809 and 1810. Although he produced several crude airplane and helicopter models to illustrate his theories, there is no record that he ever achieved any measure of success with them.

HARD COAL PRICES REDUCED AT MINES

Wilkes Barre, Pa., March 20.—(UP)—Anthracite coal companies today announced a reduction in the domestic prices of hard coal of 60 cents per ton, effective April 1.

Each year at this time prices are reduced by all companies simultaneously to stimulate buying of next winter's coal, but the present reduction is 10 cents greater than any previous cut.

2 DEAD, SCORE INJURED WHEN TANK EXPLODES

FIRE FOLLOWS AT SUN OIL COMPANY PLANT, MARCUS HOOK, DELAWARE

INJURED INCLUDES MANY WHO WERE SHOWERED WITH FLAMING OIL

Marcus Hook, Del., March 20.—Two dead, a score burned and injured and property damage of several hundred thousand dollars resulted from an oil tank explosion followed by a fire, at the Sun Oil Company's plant here today.

James McAbee, 24, Marcus Hook, was killed almost instantly while walking on the catwalk of the oil tank which exploded. Joseph Bennett, of Linnwood, Pa., died later from burns.

The injured list included many workmen in the plant who were showered with flaming oil and several firemen who fought the resulting blaze for hours before it was brought under control shortly before noon.

The explosion rocked the countryside from Wilmington to Philadelphia. More than a dozen fire companies fought the flames, which spread as tank after tank containing thousands of gallons of gasoline were ignited.

Automatic Lights

One street in Barnes, I. adon, S. W., has been lighted by automatic lamps for the last 12 months. Each street lamp is fitted with a selenium cell, which is affected by either twilight or fog, and turns on the light.

CAPONE ANSWERS SUMMONS OF THE GRAND JURY

APPEARS IN CHICAGO TO TESTIFY
BEFORE FEDERAL GRAND
JURY

LATTER IS INVESTIGATING THE
BEER RUNNING
CHARGES

Chicago, March 20.—(UP)—"Scarface" Al Capone, "big shot" of the Chicago beer racket, appeared punctually at 10 a. m. today in answer to a summons to testify before a federal grand jury investigating beer running.

Back from his Florida estate and looking a little thinner than before he left the scene of his biggest operations, Capone walked into the United States district attorney's office flanked on both sides by his attorneys.

Behind him trailed a furtive-eyed individual identified by newspapermen as a member of the gang leader's widely advertised bodyguard.

Although the police cannot touch Capone as long as he holds the status of a witness before a federal grand jury, blue coats by the dozens turned out to watch his every move.

The linking of the name of "Scarface" with the Moran massacre was believed to have placed his life in peril and police wanted to be on hand in event of reprisals.

While the grand jury, which was to question him about the demoralizations of Chicago Heights by Capone beer was assembling, "Scarface" sat in District Attorney Daniel Anderson's office talking quietly with his counsel.

Anderson said he would not take the "big shot" before the grand jury immediately.

"We'll let him cool his heels a while," the district attorney said. "I want the jurors to talk with a couple of cops before they see Capone."

While Capone waited, photographers induced a custodian to let them into Anderson's office and began taking flashlight pictures of the beer chief.

Capone consented to pose but would not look direct into the cameras.

Anderson then came in and broke up the party.

"This isn't a photograph gallery for hoodlums," Anderson shouted. "Get out, all of you."

Alphonse seemed to resent the intrusion and began cursing violently, snarling as he spat out invectives at those around him.

COL. LINDBERGH TO TAKE UP HUGE PLANE IN A TEST FLIGHT

Los Angeles, March 20.—(UP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will return here tomorrow from the Guggenheim estate in Santa Barbara to take the Patriotic, 20-passenger plane, up for a test flight before he returns east.

New motors were being installed today in the big craft, which carried a full passenger load to an elevation of 10,000 feet in 20 minutes last week.

Time Out

Sophomore—Say, what's all this I hear about Coach putting Bull Fuller on the third team? Bull's the ugliest triple-threat man in the conference.

Junior—You mean "was." That job he took last summer as a bod carrier to harden himself just about ruined him.

Sophomore—How d'you mean, "ruined him?"

Junior—Coach says Bull's mind isn't on the play any more. It's on the whistle.

All at His Service

A former college president, passing through the city, was invited to lunch at the home of one of his alumnae. The five-year-old daughter of the house was delegated to show the distinguished guest up to wash his hands. Opening the door of the bathroom, which was dully fitted out with the best embroidered linens in honor of the occasion, Sally said: "Just make yourself at home and," with a royal gesture, "you may use any of the towels."—Indianapolis News.

Up Against It

Judge—Why did you knock down the semaphore?

Green motorist—Well, your Honor I didn't know whether to run to the right of it or to the left of it, so to play safe I ran over it.

Calling on Daughter

"I'm gonna shoot that critter in the coonskin coat."

"No need to shoot him, paw. Set a steel trap for him."

One Worry Eliminated

The happiest people are those who know least about calories, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

Washing Oranges

Oranges are plunged into a soap-suds bath with revolving brushes when they come from the orchard. They are then washed in a soda or borax solution to kill any mold germs on the skin, then under a shower bath of clear water, after which they are dried, sorted to size and wrapped in paper.

RIVER 10.3 FEET ABOVE NORMAL AT ST. PAUL

SINCE THURSDAY WHEN RISE
BEGAN, RIVER CREEPS TO 14-FOOT MARK

DURING THE PAST 24 HOURS A
RISE OF 1.6 FEET IS RE-
PORTED

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—The Mississippi river was 10.3 feet above normal here today and if the rise continues flood stage will be reached Friday night, the weather bureau announced.

Since Thursday when the rise in the "Father of Waters" began, the river has crept toward the 14-foot, or flood stage mark, at the rate of more than one and one-half feet a day.

During the past 24 hours the increase was 1.6 feet.

Heretofore it had been believed that the Mississippi would not reach the flood stage this season.

RIVER IS RISING AT BRAINERD

Old lumbermen here at Brainerd assert the Minnesota and Crow Wing rivers are the most "wicked" streams in the Mississippi watershed of the state and are in large measure responsible for the rise of the Mississippi at St. Paul. The Minnesota and Crow Wing run fast and have no reservoirs.

At Gull lake the past week a rise of an inch and a half is reported. On the Mississippi south of the dam at Brainerd a two-foot rise is reported within the past week.

The warm weather of the past ten days was succeeded by snow from the southeast near 11 A. M. today, temperature at 8 A. M. being 23 degrees above zero.

RED CROSS WORKER IN RESCUE ROLE

Atlanta, Ga., March 20.—Warned by the shouts of Edward H. Calvin, Red Cross worker, who rode through the Apalachicola valley in an automobile, the residents of this cotton farming section were safe from flood waters today.

Only this warning, according to Red Cross officials, prevented a high death toll in the district. According to information reaching here from the flooded districts, this new menace from high waters is a result of the great drainage of waters of the north into creeks feeding the Apalachicola and Chattahoochee rivers.

The crest of the flood today was at River Junction where the two rivers converge in Florida. A few miles north is the Georgia line.

Pensacola, Fla., March 20.—Milligan and Carryville, Fla. In the Florida flood district today appealed for tetanus anti-toxin to prevent a threatened epidemic.

Carcasses of hundreds of animals drowned in the floods are beginning to show above water, advices said, and danger of disease is great.

Anti-toxin sent yesterday by plane is exhausted.

SEEKS TO DECLARE COMMON LAW MARRIAGES VOID

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—Common law marriages in Minnesota would be declared null and void, under the terms of a bill introduced in the state legislature today by Senator Laura E. Naplin, Thief River Falls. The bill would invalidate, interpreters said, all such marriages now existing and acknowledged by the state.

Senator Naplin and four others also introduced a bill designed to aid school districts in northern Minnesota where the rural credits department has taken over much property because of failure of residents to pay loans.

The bill provides that districts in which property was so taken should receive from the state amounts equal to those which they would have received had the property been privately owned.

'GIANT BULLY OF THE HILLS' KILLED IN OZARK FEUD

Kingston, Ark., March 20.—(UP)—A bitter Ozark mountain feud ended here today with the death of Clarence Elzey, known throughout the mountain country as "the giant bully of the hills."

Elzey was shot and killed by Ross Parker, a cripple, against whose clan Elzey had led a raid in 1927. During the battle Elzey wounded Parker and left him paralyzed on the floor of his cabin to die.

The men met in the postoffice here. Parker raised his rifle and sent two bullets into Elzey's heart. The feud ended, Parker surrendered to the police.

THE MARCH HARE

© 1929, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.

HEAD NEW BILLION DOLLAR BANK

Reading, left to right, Arthur Reynolds, chairman of the board; George M. Reynolds, chairman of the executive committee, and Eugene H. Stevens, president of the new Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company. The new organization, which opened today, has resources of $1,000,000,000 and is the largest banking house west of New York.

WAR COMMANDER FOCH SUCCEUMBS

(Continued from page 1)

tory and strategy at the college. Then in 1905, he became commandant of the Ecole de Guerra and a corps commander in 1912.

He took command of the 20th corps the next year and when the world war broke out a year later, he led his men into the first conflict of a four-year struggle.

Foch, an expert strategist, was in demand all along the front. After the battle of Ypres, he was put at the head of all the French armies in the north in 1915 and 1916. In the spring of 1917, Foch was sent south and to Italy to aid the allies there. Summer months forced his quick recall and he was placed in command of all the allied armies in France in April, 1918.

Under his single command, the allied armies moved steadily forward until the armistice was signed. It was Foch who dictated the terms of the Armistice to the German plenipotentiaries as they sat in a railroad car in the Compiegne Forest in November, 1918.

"Gentlemen," Marshal Foch told them, "you have 72 hours to make your reply."

Charged With Circulating Sex Questionnaires Among U. Students

Columbia, Mo., March 20.—(UP)—The executive board of curators of the University of Missouri today dismissed two professors and one student after an inquiry into the circulation of sex questionnaires among students of the university.

Those dismissed are: M. F. Meyer, professor of psychology; Prof. H. O. DeGraff, professor of sociology, and O. H. Mower, student assistant in psychology.

SEARCH FOR BODY OF BOY RESUMED BY 300 HORSEMEN

Gordon, Neb., March 20.—(UP)—While snow melted rapidly over this area today the search for the body of

Melvin Reeves, 6, was resumed by more than 300 horsemen. Melvin was lost in a snow storm March 12, when he left home to look for a pair of mittens. The searching party, consisting mostly of Indians, attracted by a $250 reward, is using the Reeves home as headquarters. Supplies are being sent daily from here.

WADENA WOMAN FILES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST ST. PAUL MEN

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—Mrs. Edna Kautz, Wadena, today filed here a $10,000 damage suit against E. C. Emmons and M. B. Jamieson, St. Paul. Mrs. Kautz charged that two years ago while driving a horse near Wadena the defendants fired guns which caused the horse to run away. When the buggy smashed, Mrs. Kautz said her leg was broken.

Today's Duty First

Be not anxious about tomorrow. Do today's duty, fight today's temptations, and do not weaken or distract yourself by looking forward to things which you cannot see, and could not understand if you saw them.—Charles Kingsley.

Flood Crest Slowly Passes in South

Scenes such as this near West Point, Ga., are common throughout the flooded districts of Georgia and Alabama where more than 20,000 have been made homeless and the death toll is still mounting in the unprecedented floods which have prevailed. State militia and relief organizations have used airplanes to bring food to the sufferers, thus saving hundreds of lives. (International Newsreel)

Here It Is, All Saints Day

Better watch your step and keep in mind all your tricks of younger days on this, the day of days for tricksters. We don't know whether Nancy Carroll expects to fall for the old hat over the brick stunt, but evidently she thinks someone will give her a laugh. (International Illustrated News)

ROW IN SENATE OVER ELECTING U. REGENTS

SEN. CHRIS ROSENMEIER LEADS
FIGHT AGAINST HOUSE
AMENDMENTS

LATTER WOULD PROVIDE RE-
GENTS BE NOMINATED BY
"CAUCUS" METHOD

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—The beligerent Minnesota senate today refused to concur with the house on methods of electing University of Minnesota regents.

Senator Chris Rosenmeier, Little Falls, led the fight against house amendments which would provide that the regents be nominated by the "caucus" method rather than the joint committee plan favored by the senate.

Rosenmeier pointed out that under the "caucus" plan the house would wield twice as much authority as the senate since its membership is so much greater.

Almost from the beginning of the recent squabble, which a supreme court decision last year placed in the hands of the legislature, the senate has suggested that the regents be nominated by a joint committee composed of eleven representatives and senators from each congressional district of the state plus one member in each house from at large.

The house meanwhile suggested that the committee men call a caucus of all the legislators in their districts who would decide in the regency nominations.

Following the rejection of the amended resolution Lieut. Gov. W. I. Nolan appointed Senators Rosenmeier, Blanchard, Anoka, and Rockne, Zumbrota, to confer with house members on a compromise measure.

Early Flying Enthusiast

The first comprehensive explanation of the laws governing heavier-than-air flying, especially with gliders, was made by Sir George Cayley, an English scientist, in a series of magazine articles written and published in 1809 and 1810. Although he produced several crude airplane and helicopter models to illustrate his theories, there is no record that he ever achieved any measure of success with them.

HARD COAL PRICES REDUCED AT MINES

Wilkes Barre, Pa., March 20.—(UP)—Anthracite coal companies today announced a reduction in the domestic prices of hard coal of 60 cents per ton, effective April 1.

Each year at this time prices are reduced by all companies simultaneously to stimulate buying of next winter's coal, but the present reduction is 10 cents greater than any previous cut.

2 DEAD, SCORE INJURED WHEN TANK EXPLODES

FIRE FOLLOWS AT SUN OIL COMPANY PLANT, MARCUS HOOK, DELAWARE

INJURED INCLUDES MANY WHO WERE SHOWERED WITH FLAMING OIL

Marcus Hook, Del., March 20.—Two dead, a score burned and injured and property damage of several hundred thousand dollars resulted from an oil tank explosion followed by a fire, at the Sun Oil Company's plant here today.

James McAbee, 24, Marcus Hook, was killed almost instantly while walking on the catwalk of the oil tank which exploded. Joseph Bennett, of Linnwood, Pa., died later from burns.

The injured list included many workmen in the plant who were showered with flaming oil and several firemen who fought the resulting blaze for hours before it was brought under control shortly before noon.

The explosion rocked the countryside from Wilmington to Philadelphia. More than a dozen fire companies fought the flames, which spread as tank after tank containing thousands of gallons of gasoline were ignited.

Automatic Lights

One street in Barnes, 1 adon, S. W. has been lighted by automatic lamps for the last 12 months. Each street lamp is fitted with a selenium cell, which is affected by either twilight or fog, and turns on the light.

CAPONE ANSWERS SUMMONS OF THE GRAND JURY

APPEARS IN CHICAGO TO TESTIFY
BEFORE FEDERAL GRAND
JURY

LATTER IS INVESTIGATING THE
BEER RUNNING
CHARGES

Chicago, March 20.—(UP)—"Scarface" Al Capone, "big shot" of the Chicago beer racket, appeared punctually at 10 a. m. today in answer to a summons to testify before a federal grand jury investigating beer running.

Back from his Florida estate and looking a little thinner than before he left the scene of his biggest operations, Capone walked into the United States district attorney's office flanked on both sides by his attorneys.

Behind him trailed a furtive-eyed individual identified by newspapermen as a member of the gang leader's widely advertised bodyguard.

Although the police cannot touch Capone as long as he holds the status of a witness before a federal grand jury, blue coats by the dozens turned out to watch his every move.

The linking of the name of "Scarface" with the Moran massacre was believed to have placed his life in peril and police wanted to be on hand in event of reprisals.

While the grand jury, which was to question him about the demoralizations of Chicago Heights by Capone beer was assembling, "Scarface" sat in District Attorney Daniel Anderson's office talking quietly with his counsel.

Anderson said he would not take the "big shot" before the grand jury immediately.

"We'll let him cool his heels a while," the district attorney said. "I want the jurors to talk with a couple of cops before they see Capone."

While Capone waited, photographers induced a custodian to let them into Anderson's office and began taking flashlight pictures of the beer chief.

Capone consented to pose but would not look direct into the cameras.

Anderson then came in and broke up the party.

"This isn't a photograph gallery for hoodlums," Anderson shouted. "Get out, all of you."

Alphonse seemed to resent the intrusion and began cursing violently, snarling as he spat out invectives at those around him.

COL. LINDBERGH TO TAKE UP HUGE PLANE IN A TEST FLIGHT

Los Angeles, March 20.—(UP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will return here tomorrow from the Guggenheim estate in Santa Barbara to take the Patriotic, 20-passenger plane, up for a test flight before he returns east.

New motors were being installed today in the big craft, which carried a full passenger load to an elevation of 10,000 feet in 20 minutes last week.

Time Out

Sophomore—Say, what's all this I hear about Coach putting Bull Fuller on the third team? Bull's the niftiest triple-threat man in the conference.

Junior—You mean "was." That job he took last summer as a bod carrier to harden himself just about ruined him.

Sophomore—How d'you mean, "ruined him?"

Junior—Coach says Bull's mind isn't on the play any more. It's on the whistle.

All at His Service

A former college president, passing through the city, was invited to lunch at the home of one of his alumnae. The five-year-old daughter of the house was delegated to show the distinguished guest up to wash his hands. Opening the door of the bathroom, which was duly fitted out with the best embroidered linens in honor of the occasion, Sally said: "Just make yourself at home and" with a royal gesture, "you may use any of the towels."—Indianapolis News.

Judge—Why did you knock down the semaphore?

Green motorist—Well, your honor I didn't know whether to run to the right of it or to the left of it, so to play safe I ran over it.

Calling on Daughter

"I'm gonna shoot that critter in the coonskin coat."

"No need, to shoot him, paw. Set steel trap for him."

One Worry Eliminated

The happiest people are those who know least about calories, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

Washing Oranges

Oranges are plunged into a soap-suds bath with revolving brushes when they come from the orchard. They are then washed in a soda or borax solution to kill any mold germs on the skin, then under a shower bath of clear water, after which they are dried, sorted to size and wrapped in paper.

COMPROMISE SOUGHT WITH N. P. SHOPMEN

Report Made That Railroad Had Agreed to Give Wage Increase
Effective March 1

REPORT HOWEVER UNOFFICIAL

N. P. Officials at St. Paul Report
That as Yet No Decision
Had Been Reached

On the request of the Brainerd Dispatch to seek confirmation of the report at the Northern Pacific shops here that a raise increase had been granted which report had no official sanction here, the United Press today interviewed officials of the N. P. at St. Paul and wired the following:

St. Paul, March 20.—(UP)—Officials of the Northern Pacific railway announced here at noon today that no decision had yet been reached on the request of its 5,500 shopmen for a 6-cents an hour wage increase.

It was reported, however, that the railroad had agreed to some sort of an increase and was attempting to strike a compromise rate with shop leaders.

Should the 6-cent increase be granted the payroll of the Northern Pacific would be swelled $750,000 annually.

The report was current at the N. P. shops in Brainerd today that a 3, 4, and 5 cents increase per hour had been made according to the various wage scales. The report is that the increase is retroactive, effective March 1, 1929.

WEST OAK LAWN

Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews and family and Mrs. Frank Hagenbart and Mrs. L. T. Livingston were visitors at the John Strobel home Sunday.

Only a small attendance at our P. T. A. meeting Friday night due to sickness and bad roads. We are planning a program and basket social to be held soon. Watch for the date.

We are sorry to know that Mrs. A. Liners is ill. Here's hoping for a speedy recovery.

Little Warren Shepard is on the sick list. Here's hoping that he may soon be back to school.

Bernice Congdon was operated on at the St. Joseph's hospital Saturday for appendicitis. She is getting along nicely at this writing.

Wm. Ostby bought a cow from Richard Synhorst Saturday.

Little Frances Roscoe is back to school after several months absence due to sickness.

At the special school meeting held at the school house Saturday afternoon plans were discussed and bonds voted for our new building. Mr. Deering of the Holland Furnace Co. gave us a very good talk on heating plants for school houses.

H. C. Congdon had the misfortune to cut his hand very badly while cutting up a hog Saturday. It was necessary to have some cords tied and stitches taken.

Miss Waltz our county nurse organized a club for the mothers of our district Friday afternoon. This club takes up home hygiene and care of the sick. Meetings to be held each Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the school house. Miss Waltz will give us our first lesson Friday afternoon, March 22 at 2:30 o'clock. All those who were not able to attend last meeting are welcome to attend this time. We now have a class of nine, would like to see more is possible. There are to be 15 lessons in this course.

Genevieve Liners entertained a few of her friends at a birthday party on March 9 at the home of her parents. Among those present were the Misses Vera and Bernice Congdon, Bernice and Joyce Andrews, Minnie Hagenbart, Margaret Shepard, Edith Jotham, Alice Borg and Ethel Falconer, Ethel Bennet and Mardelle Lyons of Brainerd. A nice time was had by all present. Miss Genevieve received many pretty gifts.

WABEDO

Geo. Ruscoe had S. Whitted, R. Felton and Leslie Shepard to help him saw up a nice lot of wood Saturday.

John Herron and Claude Whitted were Jenkins and Pine River visitors Wednesday.

Geo. Ruscoe, Ralph Felton, Henry Van Giffen, Dr. and Mrs. Hough were Pine River shoppers Friday and Will Shepard was a Backus visitor Saturday.

Ernie Siltman, wife and baby, Mrs. Lena Caldwell and Dorothy spent Wednesday at the Whitted home.

Frank and Joe Brockmeyer, Mrs. Lena Caldwell and children, Chester and Dorothy were entertained at 7 o'clock dinner Saturday night at the A. A. Uhlig home in Pontoria.

Spring must be here or close by as the crows, blackbirds and chipmunks are with us again. The snow is most all gone and the side roads are getting quite muddy.

Mrs. S. Whitted, Mrs. R. Felton and children, Mrs. Leslie Shepard and children visited Saturday with Mrs. Geo. Ruscoe.

"Be Prepared" For Round Up

Each district Round Up will have the same events, with one exception, as the Final Round Up in St. Cloud May 10. The events will run about as follows. Get busy on them now.

Exhibits Division
Model bridge.
Knot display board.
Model airplane.
Bird house.
Model ship.
Model camp site.
Model observation tower.

Competitive Events
Bugling contest.
Semaphore signalling contest.
Bait casting.
Knot tying relay.
First aid race.
Fire by friction contest.

Area Troop News
Troop 43 of Brainerd won a basketball game against troop 42 Brainerd, the score being 22 to 12.

Troop 45 of Brainerd have several candidates for the rank of Eagle Scout. These boys however have to submit themselves to a rigid examination before they are qualified for that high rank. "Be prepared."

Brainerd Court of Honor will take place April 14 at 4 P. M. at the Methodist church. All troops are to be present with their troop and American flags. Come early so that you will find a seat.

More buglers are needed for the Boy Scout drum and bugle corps. Lets come out and make this a success.

Board of review is April 6 at 9 A. M. and 2 P. M. at the court house. Come prepared with all your credentials.

AT ROTARY SCHOOL

14 Members of Club Attend Class
Held at Y. M. C. A.
Last Night

Fourteen members of the Rotary club went to school last night at the Y. M. C. A., that is Rotary school. Last evening's meeting under the direction of Carl Zapffe was the first of a series of meetings to instruct the younger Rotarians in the principles of Rotary. Keen interest was shown by the members in the schooling by the aims and objects committee which Mr. Zapffe had charge of.

At last evening's meeting there was four of the charter members of the Brainerd club present.

PONTO LAKE

Susan Zaske spent part of the past week at the Ernest Siltman home.

Backus shoppers Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neuman, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gooden, Mrs. Ora Siltman, Mrs. L. Smith, Pete Allen.

Sunday guests at the Gooden home were the families of Ora Siltman, Ernest Siltman, Kerbie Siltman, Art Shill and several young folks of the neighborhood.

Henry Logee came home from Duluth for a short visit returning Tuesday evening.

Lee Clodfelter worked part of last week for A. V. Smith.

ROOSEVELT

The Smudy Brothers started their saw mill operations last Wednesday. Town board election Tuesday, March 12, re-elected Harlow Dewing chairman and Frank Smudy treasurer. Henry Temple was elected assessor.

Louis Schellins' baby girl is getting along fine at this writing.

Ernest and Fred Brand started working at the saw mill.

Claude Johnson is fixing up his summer cottages and moved one.

Our mail route No. 6 will be changed to Route No. 3 April 1.

Louis Schellins made a trip to Brainerd Friday and Saturday on business.

Esther Gallagher went to Brainerd to spend the week end with her parents.

Earl and Serge Coffield were in Brainerd Friday.

Alex Cash is working at the saw mill with his team hauling lumber.

Due to the rain and so much snow the roads are in a bad shape at the present time.

Bert Cooley called at Clayton Dykeman's Sunday.

The Sunday school was well attended Sunday in spite of muddy roads.

Mrs. Thad Cooley is back home again after working for Mrs. W. Fehinshik the past three weeks.

The community is all pretty well over the measles.

FOREIGN WAR VETS TO ORGANIZE HERE

Meeting for Purpose of Forming Unit
to be Held Saturday Evening
at Moose Hall

TO ELECT OFFICERS

Z. L. Begin, Minneapolis, State Commander, to be Present at Opening Ceremonies

Veterans of Foreign Wars of the district will organize into a unit as part of the state organization at a meeting called for Saturday evening in the Moose hall, according to James W. Hagen, chairman of the committee in charge of general arrangements.

Z. L. Begin, of Minneapolis, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be present and assist in the organization.

Officers will be elected and members received into the organization. Mr. Hagen said as he extended an invitation to all veterans of the district to attend. Any person who has engaged in warfare on a foreign soil for a day or more is eligible to membership, he said.

ROTARIANS HEAR NAVY DISCUSSED

G. L. Dickerhoff, in Charge of Recruiting in Brainerd District,
Gives Address

MINOT MEET CONSIDERED

Special Train to Leave St. Cloud at 10 P. M. April 14, Convenient
Arrangements Perfected

Rotarians on Tuesday heard G. L. Dickerhoff of the Navy discuss what the life of a man in the navy means, the advantages gained, pensions, shore leave, annual vacations, etc. The program was in charge of A. C. Ebert and was a very interesting one.

Seventy per cent of the navy, said Mr. Dickerhoff, are continued service men. This leaves but 30 per cent to be recruited. Recently, of 517 applications considered at Minneapolis, only 122 were accepted. This shows that high standards are in force regarding physical and mental form.

Miss Helen Marie Stadlbauer gave two readings and Miss Kathryn Albright played two fine piano selections, both gaining much applause and responding with encores.

Visitors at the club included L. A. Lewis, Rotarian of Fergus Falls.

G. D. LaBar introduced a new member of the club, Ralph McFarlan, of the Ransford Hotel.

J. P. Anderson of the Minot committee reported that a special train is to leave St. Cloud at 10 P. M. April 14 for the district meeting, arriving at Minot 8:50 A. M. April 15, and return 8 P. M. April 16, arriving at St. Cloud at 6:30 A. M. April 17.

Wm. Spencer was named delegate to the international convention of Rotary at Dallas, Texas. Wm. Graham, Jr., was named a member of the fellowship committee.

Or, That You Don't

The only relief from the weather is attending you like it.—New Castle News.

Plumbing and Heating

ON MONTHLY PAYMENTS
DE ROSIER & MAGNAN
Phone 405-W 414 So. Sixth St.

Have Your Clothes Dry Cleaned For Easter NOW

Your wardrobe contains many things that are smartly correct for wear this spring.

By having us clean them, they will be cleaned thoroughly and look like new.

We call for and deliver.

SELECT CLEANERS

321 So. Sixth St. Phone 59

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

March 20, 1904

At a meeting of the Elks Lodge last evening, A. L. Mattes was elected Exalted Ruler. He has been esteemed loyal knight for a number of years.

The Rice Lake hotel, near the mill, was badly scorched by fire Friday evening about 7 o'clock. The fire department made one of its best runs and saved considerable property by their efforts. The loss is about $1,000.

The members of the Christian Science society held an important meeting recently, at which it was decided to build a new church, one which would be modern in every respect.

Last evening Henry Stein and Joe Eemay gave a delightful dancing party at Labor hall.

Louis Hohman has opened his new store in the Keene-Nevers building on Sixth street.

Mrs. John Orth expects to leave Tuesday for Fresno, Calif., where she will join her husband who has gone there to locate.

The Schumann Grand Concert Company arrived this afternoon from Fargo.

J. P. Gardner left for his home in St. Paul this afternoon.

A. E. Moberg returned from Chicago this afternoon.

Miss Mary Rosenberg and Miss Lulu Smith left for St. Paul this afternoon where they will visit for some time.

SOUTH LONG LAKE

There will be Sunday school next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Al Lamont was in Brainerd last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Angner Ormsworth visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eschenbacher.

A great many of the farmers shipped cattle Monday.

Peter Mustanch purchased a horse in Brainerd Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Weidl were Brainerd shoppers last week.

Mrs. Ernest Kleinschmidt who has been sick for some time is slowly improving.

Mrs. Wallace Smart visited one afternoon of last week with Mrs. Otto Wendt.

Relatives of Mrs. Carl Maust gathered at her home Sunday to celebrate Mrs. Maust's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francene were Brainerd shoppers Saturday.

Herman Kleinschmidt was a caller at the L. Weidl home last week.

The roads have been almost impassable this last week.

H. D. Sutton was in town Monday.

EXAMINATIONS AT UNIVERSITY TODAY

Minneapolis, March 20.—(UP)—About 10,000 University of Minnesota students, in every college except the law school, today began their quarter examinations. The tests will continue through Saturday.

Frederic's Permanent Wave

The beauty of your permanent wave is our greatest concern. To help keep it always charming and to help make it last longer is our pleasure as well as our business. You may consult us regarding all of the vitally important questions about your wave. Expert advice about water waving, finger waving and rewaveing is cheerfully yours for the asking at the

Elks' Beauty Shop
Phone 567

Ruth Monasmith Ericsson
and Blanche Seufert
operators.

WILL DEMONSTRATE POWER FARMING

Senn and Cain Arrange Meeting for Farmers in Chamber Rooms,
March 23

SHOW MOTION PICTURES

Lunch to be Served at Noon; Latest
Methods of Farming to be Shown

Senn and Cain, 811 Front street, have completed all arrangements for their extensive Power Farming entertainment to be held on Saturday, March 23 at the Chamber of Commerce. They have made arrangements with the speakers, secured the motion pictures, and made arrangements for an appetizing lunch to be served at noon.

That part of the program dealing with the care of the tractor will be in charge of the International Harvester Company and will be thoroughly practical in every way. The men in charge have been handling tractors many years and not only know the tractors from the standpoint of theory, but can operate them and give the benefit of their practical experience. They will be anxious to answer questions.

Several reels of motion pictures will be shown. These pictures will bring to the people the latest methods of farming in other sections of the country.

Farming today is dependent on volume production—that is, the producing of more per person on the farm. By increasing the volume per person the cost of production is materially decreased. One of the objectives of this entertainment is to bring through pictures and otherwise, experiences of the outstanding farmers of the present day.

Tractors and other present-day equipment will be included in an open air display to offer a first-class study of the various mechanical features. Several new machines have been introduced in the past few years, some of which are making their appearance in this neighborhood for the first time.

NOTICE

Annual meeting of Evergreen Cemetery Association Tuesday evening 8 o'clock April 2, 1929 at Judge Kinder office at County Court House. Election of officers and three directors.

G. F. MITCHELL,

President.

G. W. CHADBOURNE,

Secretary.

244th

For women who want to go
and do without fatigue!

Look like a

Million Dollars

Cost but

$5 and $6

Agnes

We can satisfy the most exacting taste with Enna Jetticks as they are carried in a big variety of modish patterns A Style to Fit Every Eye.

Mary

Style depends on fit as well as pattern. We can fit you to perfection. Enna Jetticks are carried in all widths and sizes from Extra Narrow to Extra Wide.

The Booterie
Elks' Building

PRIMARY CLASS OPENS

Whittier Class of Beginners Has Enrollment of 25; Miss Reed in Charge

The spring primary class opened Monday of this week at the Whittier school with 25 enrolled.

The class will be in charge of normal training girls under the direction of Miss Mabel E. Reed.

R. W. CRUST FILES

Seeks Re-election to School Board; Saturday is Last Day for Filing

The latest filing for candidacy at the city election April was made this week at the office of the city clerk by R. W. Crust who seeks re-election to the school board in the third ward. Candidates must file petitions at the office of the city clerk not later than 5 p. m. this Saturday.

THE ECHOING CALL

Walking lonely to the river,
Came a solitary moose,
Footsteps sounding very faintly,
As the bits of moss broke loose,
Once upon the bank he flattered,
Lifted up his head, and then
Out across the field it echoed,
A dear pleading sound to men.

"Come," it said, "do come you cowards,

Hunt us down when'er you will,
But the time will come however,

When the woodlands shall be still,
And my echoing call no longer.

Out across the lands he heard,
And no footsteps throbbing faintly,
For my tribe will all be dead."

"With your guns you steal upon us,
As we rest beneath the trees,
Coming softly, creeping, creeping,
With your bodies to the breeze,

Not a faint or startling odor,
Comes to warn us you are near.

When a, 'boom', and all is over,
Just to you, one more dead deer."

ROSE M. JOHNSON.

MARTIN ANDERSON WILL NOT RUN

Alderman From First Precinct, Second Ward Announces He Will Not Seek Re-election

Martin Anderson, alderman from the first precinct of the second ward reported to a question by the Brainerd Dispatch this afternoon that he will not seek re-election as alderman at the city election, April 2.

Mr. Anderson has been a member of the city council for the past four years.

A petition was today being circulated for A. A. Weidemann as candidate for alderman from the second ward.

Piano Tuner

S. E. ENGBRETSON

1215 Oak St. Phone 800-R

General Insurance

PLUMBING and HEATING

All kinds of pipes, fittings and valves
Call 69

L. W. SHERLUND

DIAMOND RINGS

Special offer in diamond set wedding rings. 18 K white gold, good weight, hand carved rings set with nice brilliant stones. 3 stone $18.75. 5 stone $23.75. 7 stone $28.75. Also rings with any number of diamonds.

S. Lundborg Jeweler

614 Laurel

ANSWERING YOUR BUSINESS QUESTIONS

In inviting you to come to our officers for advice, information and counsel on business matters of all kinds, we are inviting you to make practical use of the large store of experience which these officers have accumulated. It's one of the important ways in which this bank can be of real assistance to you.

CITIZENS STATE BANK OF BRAINERD

Oldest and Largest State Bank in Crow Wing Co.

Get behind the wheel and get the facts . . . .

Just Drive—Just take the wheel—then you'll know
why Buick is winning more than twice as many buyers as any other car priced above $1200!

	SERIES 116	SERIES 121	SERIES 129
Sedans - - -	$1220 to $1320	$1450 to $1520	$1875 to $2145
Coupees - - -	$1195 to $1250	$1395 to $1450	$1865 to $1875
Sport Cars - -	$1225	$1325	$1525 to $1550

These prices f. o. b. Buick Factory, special equipment extra. Convenient terms can be arranged on the liberal G. M. A. C. Time Payment Plan.

IMGRUND AUTO CO.

When Better Automobiles Are Built . . . Buick Will Build Them

COMPROMISE SOUGHT WITH N. P. SHOPMEN

Report Made That Railroad Had
Agreed to Give Wage Increase
Effective March 1

REPORT HOWEVER UNOFFICIAL
N. P. Officials at St. Paul Report
That as Yet No Decision
Had Been Reached

On the request of the Brainerd Dispatch to seek confirmation of the report at the Northern Pacific shops here that a raise increase had been granted which report had no official sanction here, the United Press today interviewed officials of the N. P. at St. Paul and wired the following:

St. Paul, March 20.—(U.P.)—Officials of the Northern Pacific railway announced here at noon today that no decision had yet been reached on the request of its 5,500 shopmen for a 6-cents an hour wage increase.

It was reported, however, that the railroad had agreed to some sort of an increase and was attempting to strike a compromise rate with shop leaders.

Should the 6-cent increase be granted the payroll of the Northern Pacific would be swelled $750,000 annually.

The report was current at the N. P. shops in Brainerd today that a 5, 4, and 5 cents increase per hour had been made according to the various wage scales. The report is that the increase is retroactive, effective March 1, 1929.

WEST OAK LAWN

Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews and family and Mrs. Frank Hagenbort and Mrs. L. T. Livingston were visitors at the John Strobel home Sunday.

Only a small attendance at our P. T. A. meeting Friday night due to sickness and bad roads. We are planning a program and basket social to be held soon. Watch for the date.

We are sorry to know that Mrs. A. Liners is ill. Here's hoping for a speedy recovery.

Little Warren Shepard is on the sick list. Here's hoping that he may soon be back to school.

Bernice Congdon was operated on at the St. Joseph's hospital Saturday for appendicitis. She is getting along nicely at this writing.

Wm. Ostby bought a cow from Richard Synhorst Saturday.

Little Frances Roscoe is back to school after several months absence due to sickness.

At the special school meeting held at the school house Saturday afternoon plans were discussed and bond voted for our new building. Mr. Deering of the Holland Furnace Co. gave us a very good talk on heating plants for school houses.

H. C. Congdon had the misfortune to cut his hand very badly while cutting up a hog Saturday. It was necessary to have some cords tied and stitches taken.

Miss Waltz our county nurse organized a club for the mothers of our district Friday afternoon. This club takes up home hygiene and care of the sick. Meetings to be held each Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the school house. Miss Waltz will give us our first lesson Friday afternoon, March 22 at 2:30 o'clock. All those who were not able to attend last meeting are welcome to attend this time. We now have a class of nine, would like to see more is possible. There are to be 15 lessons in this course.

Genevieve Liners entertained a few of her friends at a birthday party on March 9 at the home of her parents. Among those present were the Misses Vera and Bernice Congdon, Bernice and Joyce Andrews, Minnie Hagenbort, Margaret Shepard, Edith Jotham, Alice Borg and Ethel Falconer, Ethel Bennet and Mardelle Lyons of Brainerd. A nice time was had by all present. Miss Genevieve received many pretty gifts.

WABEDO

Geo. Ruscoe had S. Whitted, R. Felton and Leslie Shepard to help him saw up a nice lot of wood Saturday.

John Herron and Claude Whitted were Jenkins and Pine River visitors Wednesday.

Geo. Ruscoe, Ralph Felton, Henry Van Giffen, Dr. and Mrs. Hough were Pine River shoppers Friday and WHI Shepard was a Backus visitor Saturday.

Ernie Siltman, wife and baby, Mrs. Lena Caldwell and Dorothy spent Wednesday at the Whitted home.

Frank and Joe Brockmeyer, Mrs. Lena Caldwell and children, Chester and Dorothy were entertained at 7 o'clock dinner Saturday night at the A. A. Uhlig home in Pontoria.

Spring must be here or close by as the crows, blackbirds and chipmunks are with us again. The snow is most all gone and the side roads are getting quite muddy.

Mrs. S. Whitted, Mrs. R. Felton and children, Mrs. Leslie Shepard and children visited Saturday with Mrs. Geo. Ruscoe.

"Be Prepared" For Round Up

Each district Round Up will have the same events, with one exception, as the Final Round Up in St. Cloud May 10. The events will run about as follows. Get busy on them now.

Exhibits Division

Model bridge.
Knot display board.
Model airplane.
Bird house.
Model ship.
Model camp site.
Model observation tower.

Competitive Events

Bugling contest.
Semaphore signalling contest.
Bait casting.
Knot tying relay.
First aid race.
Fire by friction contest.

Area Troop News

Troop 43 of Brainerd won a basketball game against troop 42 Brainerd, the score being 22 to 12.

Troop 45 of Brainerd have several candidates for the rank of Eagle Scout. These boys however have to submit themselves to a rigid examination before they are qualified for that high rank. "Be prepared."

Brainerd Court of Honor will take place April 14 at 4 P. M. at the Methodist church. All troops are to be present with their troop and American flags. Come early so that you will find a seat.

More buglers are needed for the Boy Scout drum and bugle corps. Lets come out and make this a success.

Board of review is April 6 at 9 A. M. and 2 P. M. at the court house. Come prepared with all your credentials.

AT ROTARY SCHOOL

14 Members of Club Attend Class
Held at Y. M. C. A.
Last Night

Fourteen members of the Rotary club went to school last night at the Y. M. C. A., that is Rotary school. Last evening's meeting under the direction of Carl Zapffe was the first of a series of meetings to instruct the younger Rotarians in the principles of Rotary. Keen interest was shown by the members in the schooling by the aims and objects committed which Mr. Zapffe had charge of.

At last evening's meeting there was four of the charter members of the Brainerd club present.

PONTO LAKE

Susan Zaske spent part of the past week at the Ernest Siltman home.

Backus shoppers Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neuman, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gooden, Mrs. Ora Siltman, Mrs. L. Smith, Pete Allen.

Sunday guests at the Gooden home were the families of Ora Siltman, Ernest Siltman, Kerbie Siltman, Art Shill and several young folks of the neighborhood.

Henry Logee came home from Du-luth for a short visit returning Tuesday evening.

Lee Clodfelter worked part of last week for A. V. Smith.

ROOSEVELT

The Smudy Brothers started their saw mill operations last Wednesday. Town board election Tuesday, March 12, re-elected Harlow Dewing chairman and Frank Smudy treasurer. Henry Tempine was elected assessor.

Louis Schellins' baby girl is getting along fine at this writing. Ernest and Fred Brand started working at the saw mill.

Clause Johnson is fixing up his summer cottages and moved one.

Our mail route No. 6 will be changed to Route No. 3 April 1. Louis Schellins made a trip to Brainerd Friday and Saturday on business.

Esther Gallagher went to Brainerd to spend the week end with her parents.

Earl and Serge Confield were in Brainerd Friday.

Alex Cash is working at the saw mill with his team hauling lumber. Due to the rain and so much snow the roads are in a bad shape at the present time.

Bert Cooley called at Clayton Dykeman's Sunday.

The Sunday school was well attended Sunday in spite of muddy roads.

Mrs. Thad Cooley is back home again after working for Mrs. W. Fehinshik the past three weeks.

The community is all pretty well over the measles.

FOREIGN WAR VETS TO ORGANIZE HERE

Meeting for Purpose of Forming Unit
to be Held Saturday Evening
at Moose Hall

TO ELECT OFFICERS

Z. L. Begin, Minneapolis, State Commander, to be Present at Opening Ceremonies

Veterans of Foreign Wars of the district will organize into a unit as part of the state organization at a meeting called for Saturday evening in the Moose hall, according to James W. Hagen, chairman of the committee in charge of general arrangements.

Z. L. Begin, of Minneapolis, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be present and assist in the organization.

Officers will be elected and members received into the organization. Mr. Hagen said as he extended an invitation to all veterans of the district to attend. Any person who has engaged in warfare on a foreign soil for a day or more is eligible to membership, he said.

ROTARIANS HEAR NAVY DISCUSSED

G. L. Dickerhoff, in Charge of Recruiting in Brainerd District,
Gives Address

MINOT MEET CONSIDERED

Special Train to Leave St. Cloud at 10 P. M. April 14, Convenient
Arrangements Perfected

Rotarians on Tuesday heard G. L. Dickerhoff of the Navy discuss what the life of a man in the navy means, the advantages gained, pensions, shore leave, annual vacations, etc. The program was in charge of A. C. Ebert and was a very interesting one.

Seventy per cent of the navy, said Mr. Dickerhoff, are continued service men. This leaves but 30 per cent to be recruited. Recently, of 517 applications considered at Minneapolis, only 122 were accepted. This shows that high standards are in force regarding physical and mental form.

Miss Helen Marie Stadlbauer gave two readings and Miss Kathryn Albright played two fine piano selections, both gaining much applause and responding with encores.

Visitors at the club included L. A. Lewis, Rotarian of Fergus Falls.

G. D. LaBar introduced a new member of the club, Ralph McFarlan, of the Ramsford Hotel.

J. P. Anderson of the Minot committee reported that a special train is to leave St. Cloud at 10 P. M. April 14 for the district meeting, arriving at Minot 8:55 A. M. April 15, and return 8 P. M. April 16, arriving at St. Cloud at 6:30 A. M. April 17.

Wm. Spencer was named delegate to the international convention of Rotary at Dallas, Texas. Wm. Graham, Jr., was named a member of the fellowship committee.

Or, That You Don't

The only relief from the weather is pretending you like it.—New Castle News.

Plumbing and Heating

ON MONTHLY PAYMENTS
DE ROSIER & MAGNAN

Phone 405-W 414 So. Sixth St.

Have Your Clothes
Dry Cleaned For Easter
NOW

Your wardrobe contains many things that are smartly correct for wear this spring.

By having us clean them, they will be cleaned thoroughly and look like new.

We call for and deliver.

SELECT CLEANERS

321 So. Sixth St. Phone 59

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

March 20, 1904

At a meeting of the Elks Lodge last evening, A. L. Mattes was elected Exalted Ruler. He has been esteemed loyal knight for a number of years.

The Rice Lake hotel, near the mill, was badly scorched by fire Friday evening about 7 o'clock. The fire department made one of its best runs and saved considerable property by their efforts. The loss is about $1,000.

The members of the Christian Science society held an important meeting recently, at which it was decided to build a new church, one which would be modern in every respect.

Last evening Henry Stein and Joe Esmy gave a delightful dancing party at Labor hall.

Louis Hohman has opened his new store in the Keene-Nevers building on Sixth street.

Mrs. John Orth expects to leave Tuesday for Fresno, Calif., where she will join her husband who has gone there to locate.

The Schumann Grand Concert Company arrived this afternoon from Fargo.

J. P. Gardner left for his home in St. Paul this afternoon.

A. E. Moberg returned from Chicago this afternoon.

Miss Mary Rosenberg and Miss Lulu Smith left for St. Paul this afternoon where they will visit for some time.

SOUTH LONG LAKE

There will be Sunday school next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Al Lamont was in Brainerd last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Angner Ormseth visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eschenbacher.

A great many of the farmers shipped cattle Monday.

Peter Mustanch purchased a horse in Brainerd Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wied were Brainerd shoppers last week.

Mrs. Ernest Kleinschmidt who has been sick for some time is slowly improving.

Mrs. Wallace Smart visited one afternoon of last week with Mrs. Otto Wendt.

Relatives of Mrs. Carl Maust gathered at her home Sunday to celebrate Mrs. Maust's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francene were Brainerd shoppers Saturday.

Herman Kleinschmidt was a caller at the L. Wied home last week.

The roads have been almost impassable this last week.

H. D. Sutton was in town Monday.

EXAMINATIONS AT UNIVERSITY TODAY

Minneapolis, March 20.—(U.P.)—About 10,000 University of Minnesota students, in every college except the law school, today began their quarter examinations. The tests will continue through Saturday.

Frederic's Permanent Wave

The beauty of your permanent wave is our greatest concern. To help keep it always charming and to help make it last longer is our pleasure as well as our business. You may consult us regarding all of the vitally important questions about your wave. Expert advice about water waving, finger waving and re-waving is cheerfully yours for the asking at the

Elks' Beauty Shop
Phone 567

Ruth Monasmith Ericsson
and Blanche Seufert
operators.

WILL DEMONSTRATE POWER FARMING

Senn and Cain Arrange Meeting for Farmers in Chamber Rooms,
March 23

SHOW MOTION PICTURES

Lunch to be Served at Noon; Latest
Methods of Farming to
be Shown

Senn and Cain, 311 Front street, have completed all arrangements for their extensive Power Farming entertainment to be held on Saturday, March 23 at the Chamber of Commerce. They have made arrangements with the speakers, secured the motion pictures, and made arrangements for an appetizing lunch to be served at noon.

That part of the program dealing with the care of the tractor will be in charge of the International Harvester Company and will be thoroughly practical in every way. The men in charge have been handling tractors many years and not only know the tractors from the standpoint of theory, but can operate them and give the benefit of their practical experience. They will be anxious to answer questions.

Several reels of motion pictures will be shown. These pictures will bring to the people the latest methods of farming in other sections of the country.

Farming today is dependent on volume production—that is, the producing of more per person on the farm. By increasing the volume per person the cost of production is materially decreased. One of the objectives of this entertainment is to bring through pictures and otherwise, experiences of the outstanding farmers of the present day.

Tractors and other present-day equipment will be included in an open air display to offer a first-class study of the various mechanical features. Several new machines have been introduced in the past few years, some of which are making their appearance in this neighborhood for the first time.

NOTICE

Annual meeting of Evergreen Cemetery Association Tuesday evening 8 o'clock April 2, 1929 at Judge Kinder office at County Court House.

Election of officers and three directors.

ENNA JETTICK

Health Shoe
$5 COMBINATION LAST $6
For women who want to go
and do without fatigue!

Look like a

Million Dollars

Cost but

$5 and $6

Agnes

We can satisfy the most exacting taste with Enna Jetticks as they are carried in a big variety of modish patterns A Style to Fit Every Eye.

Mary

Style depends on fit as well as pattern. We can fit you to perfection. Enna Jetticks are carried in all widths and sizes from Extra Narrow to Extra Wide.

The Booterie
Elks' Building

PRIMARY CLASS OPENS

Whittier Class of Beginners Has Enrollment of 25; Miss Reed in Charge

The spring primary class opened Monday of this week at the Whittier school with 25 enrolled.

The class will be in charge of normal training girls under the direction of Miss Mabel E. Reed.

R. W. CRUST FILES

Seeks Re-election to School Board; Saturday is Last Day for Filing

The latest filing for candidacy at the city election April was made this week at the office of the city clerk by R. W. Crust who seeks re-election to the school board in the third ward.

Candidates must file petitions at the office of the city clerk not later than 5 p. m. this Saturday.

THE ECHOING CALL

Walking lonely to the river,
Came a solitary moose.

Footsteps sounding very faintly,
As the bits of moss broke loose.

Once upon the bank he faltered,
Lifted up his head, and then

Out across the field it echoed,
A dear pleading sound to men.

"Come," it said, "do come you cowards.

Hunt us down when'er you will,
But the time will come however,

When the woodlands shall be still,
And my echoing call no longer.

Out across the lands be heard,
And no footsteps throbbing faintly.

For my tribe will all be dead."

"With your guns you steal upon us,
As we rest beneath the trees,

Coming softly, creeping, creeping,
With your bodies to the breeze.

Not a faint or startling odor,
Comes to warn us you are near.

When a 'boom', and all is over,
Just to you, one more dead deer."

ROSE M. JOHNSON.

MARTIN ANDERSON WILL NOT RUN

Alderman From First Precinct, Second Ward Announces He Will Not Seek Re-election

Martin Anderson, alderman from the first precinct of the second ward reported to a question by the Brainerd Dispatch this afternoon that he will not seek re-election as alderman at the city election, April 2.

Mr. Anderson has been a member of the city council for the past four years.

A petition was today being circulated for A. A. Weidemann as candidate for alderman from the second ward.

Piano Tuner

S. E. ENGBRETSON

1215 Oak St. Phone 800-R

General Insurance

PLUMBING and HEATING

All kinds of pipes, fittings and valves

Call 69

L. W. SHERLUND

DIAMOND RINGS

Special offer in diamond set wedding rings. 18 K white gold, good weight, hand carved rings set with nice brilliant stones.

3 stone $18.75. 5 stone $23.75.

7 stone $28.75. Also rings with any number of diamonds.

S. Lundborg Jeweler

614 Laurel

ANSWERING YOUR BUSINESS QUESTIONS

In inviting you to come to our officers for advice, information and counsel on business matters of all kinds, we are inviting you to make practical use of the large store of experience which these officers have accumulated. It's one of the important ways in which this bank can be of real assistance to you.

CITIZENS STATE BANK OF BRAINERD

Oldest and Largest State Bank in Crow Wing Co.

Get behind the wheel and get the facts . . . .

Just Drive—Just take the wheel—then you'll know
why Buick is winning more than twice as many buyers as any other car priced above $1200!

MOTOR CARS

	SERIES 116	SERIES 121	SERIES 129
Sedans	$1220 to $1320	$1450 to $1520	$1875 to $2145
Coupees	$1195 to $1250	$13

Impatient Griselda

by Dorothy Scarborough

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

WHEN Lilith Holden died and left the infant Lilith, Guinn, her husband, married Irene Robeline, who had been in love with the handsome Texas minister. The love she hoped to earn she found was given wholly to the beautiful grown-up Lilith. As Guinn spoiled this blonde image of the dead Lilith, Irene buried her grief in ministering to her own children, Tina, Ross, Lundy and Patricia, who were secondary in their father's affections. After college Lilith, given a year to study music in New York, fell in love with Bill Chester, scion of wealth and family tradition. At home Tina wearing Lilith's cast off clothes, which failed to hide her dark gypsy-like beauty, becomes engaged to a handsome lad, Dan, beloved by all the family. Lilith, seeking only her own selfish ends, breaks her engagement with Roger Devereux, Texas boy, when Bill promises to end his betrothal to Sally Burton, society girl. Before sailing for Paris where his rich grandfather has demanded his presence, Bill madly in love with Lilith devotes his last week to her. Before sailing she seals her love by giving herself to him. Lilith spends her days re-reading Bill's cables confirming his love. But in Paris he agrees to marry Sally at his grandfather's command. Lilith is stung by the message, "Sally and I were married this morning. Forgive me and forget." Lilith for the first time learned grief. She threw herself into her music study. Then came an offer of a Winter in Paris with Vivien Winthrop, an opportunity to wither Bill with scorn. But a doctor's visit ends all. Lilith is to have a child. She moves to an unknown address.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER LVII.

It was March, and Irene was busy in her garden. Breeched, her short blue-lined dress making a spot of color against the green, she dug trenches for violets. She luxuriated in the feel of the sun on her head, the crumble of damp earth in her fingers, in the sense that she was one with growing things. She glanced appreciatively around her. The buds on her rose bushes were swelling, and in April would be a mass of bloom. Guinn sometimes laughingly said, "I couldn't accept another call, for Irene couldn't be dragged from her flowers here."

"But I'd find or make another garden, wherever we went," she told him. "I need a garden to keep me going."

Now she was her most joyous and optimistic self while she was at work among the flowers. Problems and worries lost themselves in the ground she turned up, became sterilized in the sunshine, blown away by the breeze. Now she was singing a half-tuneless rigamarole, and waved an earthy hand toward Will Lundy as he drove up in his car. "Come in and see my garden," she called.

Guinn appeared on the porch at that moment. "Yes, come in, do." The two men went into the house and Irene followed them, to wash her hands.

"I'm never fit for society in Springtime," she apologized, when she joined them later in the living room, where Tina and Dan were having a cup of tea "I neglect husband, children, church and house for my garden."

"Yes, I can't get her excited over my hope chest," Tina accused her. "I don't believe she'd care if we eloped tomorrow, without any grand wedding."

"That would be fine," she said gaily.

"Let's try it," Dan proposed. "Don't you dare!" Guinn challenged him. "I don't intend to have both my big girls gone at once."

Dan's father had died in January, and Dan had begged to have a quiet wedding soon after that, so that he and Tina could start on their trip around the world, but Guinn had opposed it so vehemently that the plan had been given up.

"You don't know I'm living when Lilith is here," Tina had complained. "Now you only think of me to bust up my wedding!" Guinn turned to the doctor now. "Will, did you see Lilith on your trip to New York?"

"Just had a glimpse of her. I tried to bring her home with me, but she wouldn't come. She wasn't looking well."

"She's overworking," he said anxiously. "New York seems to have gotten her. She's overstayed her year already, but I can't get her to say when she's coming home."

"I wish she would come home," said Irene soberly. "Her letters don't sound as if she were having eyes. "You must be mistaken. Will! It can't be true!"

"I'm a doctor, Irene."

"Yes, yes, I know." She looked at him piteously, her eyes begging him to take back his words.

"I—hate to tell you this, but you had to know it," he muttered. "What did she say, Will?"

"Nothing. I asked her in a general way if I couldn't look after her for a while; but she looked scared and desperate, like a rabbit caught in a steel trap, expecting you to knock it on the head. Said she was all right, didn't need anything. Just had overworked."

"Couldn't you urge her, Will?" She herself felt like a rabbit caught in a steel trap, looking for her life to knock her on the head.

"I did." His tone was somber, his face haggard. "But she looked so wild. I was afraid she'd jump out of the window if I pushed her. I thought I'd better let her think she'd fooled me. That gives us time to decide what to do."

She pressed her hand to her forehead. "You haven't any idea—why?"

"I know nothing. I thought maybe you would have an inkling from her letters."

"She hasn't been going out much of late. Up till September her letters were sparkling, then the sparkle died."

"Yes, I judge so." He gave a heavy sigh. His face, usually so rosy with healthy color, now seemed drawn and pale, and the lively gleam of his coppery hair seemed dulled.

"But what are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

She Leaned Forward Abruptly. "Why doesn't he come home then?"

"I saw her just once," he answered, picking his words with care. "I'd gone to the address you gave me, but she had left there, had had her mail forwarded. I had to use detective methods to find her."

She leaned forward abruptly.

"Yes?"

"She's—she's sick, Irene."

"Why doesn't she come home then?" Her eyes were frightened. "She can't, very well." He gazed out of the window.

"Why?" Irene jerked out. He laid his hands on hers. "Can you hear the truth, Irene?"

"Yes, yes! What is it?"

"She's going to have a child."

"Oh, merciful God, no!" She sprang to her feet, striking her hand against the tea wagon and crashing a cup to the floor.

"Steady, Irene, steady." He put his arm about her shaking shoulders and forced her into a chair.

She stared at him with wild

She twisted her fingers together till they were like writhing lacoons. "I don't know what to do."

"I figured that Guinn could make some excuse for a trip to New York. I'll go back with him and get her in a nursing home somewhere, where they know how to keep mum."

She jerked back in horror. "Oh, Guinn mustn't know!"

"How's he going to help it?" he asked bluntly. "He's her father."

"But it would crush him, kill him to know this. She's the very core of his heart."

"I've noticed that," he commented dryly. "But she's his daughter, not yours. And he's the one that spoiled her, so he should face the music."

(To Be Continued.)

Copyright 1927, Harper & Bros., by Arrangement with King Features Syndicate Inc.

BEVERAGES STOP SINCLAIR OILS

WIN TWO; ALDERMAN-MAGHAN COMES THROUGH WITH TWO GAMES OVER STUDY CLUB

The Brainerd Beverages stopped the fast-stepping Sinclair Oil team in two of three games last evening, while the Alderman-Maghan team took two from the Study Club.

Louis Imgrund, with 556, was high man for the evening.

The box scores follow:

STUDY CLUB—
Imgrund	192	212	152-556
Barrett	151	132	103-386
Norquist	103		120-223
Badeaux	188	130	—318
Block	147	222	168-517
Alton		134	163-297
Handicap	37	28	48-113
Totals	818	858	754-2410

ALDERMAN-MAGHAN—
Maghan	159	168	158-515
Krueger	167	144	128-439
Hanson	165	189	153-507
Alderman	178	172	169-519
Nelson	136	147	152-435
Handicap	20	20	20-60
Totals	855	840	780-2475

BRAINO BEVERAGES—
Blind	140	140	140-420
Blind	140	140	140-420
Koering	149	158	148-455
Bergstrand	171	125	136-432
Holman	173	158	146-477
Handicap	51	51	51-153
Totals	824	772	761-2357

SINCLAIR OIL—
Irwin	135	151	114-400
White	126	141	160-427
Gustafson	130	121	205-456
Skilling	177	129	119-425
Zierke	153	148	131-432
Handicap	81	81	81-243
Totals	802	771	810-2383

Profitable Production of Average Dairy Cow

A dairy cow will not pay her expenses, in the opinion of Prof. J. H. Fuller, head of the dairy husbandry department at the University of New Hampshire, unless she produces at least 7,500 pounds of milk per year. This production, which he considers necessary to meet such charges as feed, labor and overhead, is nearly 3,000 pounds greater than that of the average cow in the United States.

Professor Fuller suggests a minimum of ten cows for each full-time worker, assuming that the man who cares for ten cows will also do other work about the farm. He says that a man with fifteen cows can well afford a milking machine and recommends the use of litter carriers and drinking cups to keep labor costs on the dairy farm to a minimum.

Fall Freshening Offers Some Big Possibilities

It is not surprising that the good dairyman has his cows freshen in the fall, since it gives him the high milk flow during a season when he can control and keep uniform his rations and stable appointments. Then, too, winter is the time when dairy products bring the best prices, for a large proportion of the population of milk producers have their cows freshen in spring, and do not supply silage, roots or even good dry rations. For that reason the heaviest supply of dairy products is offered in spring and summer and the light supply in fall and winter.

Limiting Milk Yields

Milk yields may be limited by an insufficient supply of lime in the feed. Corn, oats, timothy and redtop are low in lime while the legume hays are high. A ton of soy-bean hay contains about eighty times as much lime as a ton of shelled corn.

Legume hay crops, particularly alfalfa, yield two to three times as many nutrients to the acre as the non-legume hays. Besides this, the legume hays excel in palatability and in vitamin content.

Varieties of Waterfowl

The term "waterfowl" includes ducks, geese, swans, gulls, pelicans etc. There are 350 different kinds of birds found in Oregon and Washington, about half of which would be water birds. They are found along the coasts and in the marshes of rivers and lakes.

Far Out of Perpendicular

The Leaning Tower of Pisa is inclined at present about 13 feet 8 inches toward the south.

Grade of: No. 1 North, $1.21% @ 1.22%; to arrive, $1.21%. No. 2 North, $1.18% @ 1.21%.	CORN—No. 3 Yellow, 88½¢ @ 89½¢; to arrive, 88½¢. No. 4 Yellow, 82½¢ @ 86½¢. No. 5 Yellow, 79½¢ @ 81½¢. No. 3 Mixed, 82½¢ @ 84½¢. No. 4 Mixed, 80½¢ @ 81½¢. No. 5 Mixed, 77½¢ @ 79½¢.
OATS—No. 2 White, 46½¢ @ 48½¢. No. 3 White, 43½¢ @ 44½¢; to arrive, 43½¢. No. 4 White, 40½¢ @ 43½¢.	BARLEY—Choice to fancy, 67¢ @ 69¢; medium to good, 61¢ @ 66¢; lower grades, 54¢ @ 60¢.
RYE—No. 2, $1.02% @ 1.03%; to arrive, $1.02%.	FLAXSEED—No. 1, $2.38% @ 2.44%; to arrive, $2.38% @ 2.44%.

Good Luck Has Followed Infielder Mike Gazella

Good college baseball players cannot be blamed for taking a whirl at the professional game when one considers the luck which has followed Mike Gazella, utility infielder, recently released by the Yankees to the Newark club of the International league.

Gazella was a brilliant baseball and football star at Lafayette college six or seven years ago. He probably was a better performer on the gridiron than on the diamond, for he was given all-American nominations by several critics.

When he was graduated in 1923 he was signed by the Yankees and then his good luck began. Gazella sat on the bench nearly all of that season, getting into the game once in a while when some infielder was injured. The Yankees won the pennant and Gazella was voted part of a share of the world series money. He appealed to Judge Landis and the latter upheld Gazella in his claim that he should receive a full share. This was about $6,000.

Twice after that Gazella was sent to the minors for seasoning and both seasons the Yankees failed to win the pennant. He was with New York in three other pennant years, warming the bench most of the time, but collecting a full world series share each time the Yankees won. It is estimated that his four years with the Yankees have netted him something like $44,000.

Jockey Earl Sande May Return to Riding Again

Earl Sande, once America's greatest jockey, may attempt a comeback this year. Reports from Maryland say that Sande is training strenuously in an effort to cut down the weight that forced him to announce his retirement last summer. According to these reports, Sande will ride in the Colroth handicap, possibly for Gifford A. Cochran, provided his battle against weight is successful.

Unable to endure the daily torture of making weight, Sande quit the saddle at the close of the fall meeting at Belmont last season. He trained his own small stable and campaigned with more or less success at Aqueduct, Jamaica, Pimlico and Bowie. However, he had no more than announced his retirement and begun his work as trainer than he began to lose weight. He dropped ten pounds in short order and now believes that he can return to the saddle without much difficulty.

Gyrating on Skates

Miss Gladys Lamb, pretty fancy skater, cutting some fancy figures on the ice at the Polo grounds, New York, the latest of the rinks opened for skating enthusiasts.

Catcher Bassler Makes New Record at Hollywood

Two new fielding marks have been added to the Pacific Coast league records, according to the official figures for the 1928 season.

Johnny Bassler, Hollywood catcher, formerly of the Detroit Tigers, with only four errors in 127 games, finished the season with a .904 fielding average, a new league mark for catchers. Bassler handled 491 putouts and 125 assists, a total of 616 accepted chances.

Gordon Slade of the Missions set up a new high fielding mark for shortstops. He played in 179 contests and made only 34 errors for a fielding mark of .970. Slade had 444 putouts and 637 assists, a total of 1,081 chances. He handled on an average of six fielding chances in every contest.

READ THE WANT ADS DAILY

No More Gas In Stomach and Bowels

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in stomach and bowels, take Basman's Gas Tablets, which are prepared especially for stomach gas and all the bad effects resulting from gas pressure.

Always on hand at ECONOMY DRUG CO.

Dispatch Want Ads

Two cents per word for first insertion; one cent each issue thereafter.

HELP WANTED

WANTED — Experienced fountain girl. References X-500 Dispatch. 4310-24413

WANTED — A boy to work by the month on farm. W. L. Curtis, Nisawa, Minn. 4296-24213p

MANAGER wanted for Brainerd store. No experience necessary. $750.00 cash deposit required on goods, $300 up monthly. Manufacturer, 112 N. May St., Chicago. 4302-24213p

HIGH CLASS, honest, energetic salesman with executive ability who is looking for permanent employment and advancement to sell guaranteed standard line of playground apparatus, water equipment and flood light projectors to cover the Northeastern section of Minnesota. Must have good car, sales experience, good education, ability to talk publicly and furnish best references. Between the ages of 25 and 40. Good position if you can qualify. Write Giant Manufacturing Co., Council Bluffs, Ia. 4275-24016p

FOR SALE

GRAND piano $50—in playing condition. Folsom Co. 4293-24213

FOR SALE—Two incubators. 518 D street N. E. Call 153-M. 4267-23914

FOR SALE—House and 300 foot lot. 518 D street. Call 153-M. 4266-23914

FOR SALE—Dining room set. Call at 612 Grove St. 4294-24213

FOR SALE—One registered Holstein sire, eight months old. Phone 25-P-14. 4319-24415-1511p

MATURE registered Ayrshire bull for sale. Walter Lang, Route 1. 4308-24313-1513p

FOR SALE—Small farm cheap. Close to town. For information, Babe Scott N. P. hotel. 4305-24313p

1925 Chevrolet touring, good value and priced to sell now. 512 South Broadway. 4297-24213p

FOR SALE—7 room house in good condition. Price reasonable. 309 B street. Call 516-M. 4277-24117

FOR SALE—Seasoned jack pine cord wood $7 cord delivered; 12 and 16 inch wood $5 load. Phone 765. 4295-24213

FOR SALE OR TRADE — 20 acres land, 3 miles north of Brainerd. Mrs. A. Gustafson. Phone 765. 4317-24413p

FOR SALE—1921 Studebaker touring $100, in good condition; 1924 Ford Tudor, $190; 1925 Ford Tudor, $225. Brandt Bros. 4291-24213

FOR TRADE OR SALE — On easy terms, 80 acre farm 2½ miles from Brainerd. Also modern residence, close in. F. E. Ebner, lawyer. 4281-24117

MINNESOTA Standard Accredited Chickens. A new step in improvement of our quality. Write for particulars. Bopp Hatchery, Perdue Falls, Minn. 4084-22812p

FOR quick sale, our client will sacrifice his seven room modern house in best residential district, north side for $2,750.00, cash talks in this case. For appointment call J. H. Krekelberg, 363-J or 755-W. 4313-24414

USED CARS

- 4—1926 Ford Tudors.
- 1—1924 Ford Coupe.
- 1—1926 Chevrolet Coupe.
- 1—1925 Ford Tudor.
- 1—1926 Ford Tudor.
- 1—1923 Ford Roadster.
- 1—1924 Ford Pickup.
- 1—1926 Ford Panel.
- 1—1927 Buick Coach.
- 2 Fordson Tractors.

WALTER P. TYRHOUM CO. W. T. Conkin, used car salesman 4298-24213

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Partly modern 7 room house, 3 acres ground, poultry house, brooder house, barn, two garages. If you are going to buy see this first. Terms or cash. F. E. Olson, 1710 Pine St. 4290-24213p

USED CARS

- 1928 Whippet Sedan.
- 1925 Overland Coach.
- 1927 Chevrolet Landau.
- 1925 Chevrolet Coach.
- 1927 Ford Coach.
- 1926 Ford Coupe.
- 1926 Ford Sedan.
- 1924 Ford Sedan.
- 1924 Ford Coach.
- 1925 Ford Roadster.
- 1926 Essex Coach.

LAKE REGION MOTOR CO. Tom Olson, salesman Opposite Court House 4318-24411

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished room. 734 South 7th. 4306-24313

WANTED TO RENT—5 room house, 523 North 10th. 4311-24413p

FOR RENT—Furnished room. 523 Holly. Call 605. 4065-22613

FOR RENT—Modern furnished three room apartment. 423 N. 8th St. 4264-23914

FOR RENT—Furnished room, modern. 517 N. 5th St. 4242-23613

SMALL, neat apartments, everything new and modern. Must be seen to be appreciated. Gorham's Studio. 4229-23413

FOR RENT—Attractive apartments, steam heated, electric lights with gas and bath. Also desirable store, centrally located. Gould-Gray Co. Phone 1. 2058-22013

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Fox terrier, black and white. Finder call 696-W for reward. 4315-24412p

LOST—Cameo pin Monday. Finder call 534-W. Reward. 4309-24312p

MISCELLANEOUS

HOUSEWORK wanted. Call 568-J. 4316-24414p

DUMP your ashes and dirt on lot, 10th and Ivy. 4312-24412p

LADY wants work by day. Call 491-M. 4288-24216p

WOOD sawing wanted. Phone 31-P-3. 3970-19013

FOR wood sawing phone 637-W. Fred Austin. 4060-224130p

WANTED—Ruffled and lace curtains to stretch. Will call and deliver. Call 980-J. 4300-24213

WELL drilling and repairing. Call 215 2nd street south. 4299-24217p

WANTED TO BUY—Small home in city. Inquire 1216 Laurel street. 4307-24313p

WANTED TO RENT—5 room house by April 1. Phone 1190-R. 4292-24213

WILL do washings. Will call and deliver. Call 706-R. 4095-23013

THE person who took hat from the third floor of the Kingwood Apartments Saturday night is known. Please return at once to the Dispatch and avoid trouble. 4314-24412

SUPPOSE you had an ad, even no larger than this. Don't you think people would read it? You did.

DR. C. O. GULLINGS

CHIROPRACTOR
Electric Treatment - Massage
Phone 363-W 315½ So. 6th St.
Evenings by Appointment

Raise Rabbits

Association buys all rabbits raised by members. Write or call for details.

Chinchilla Fur Breeders Assn. 1609 So. Broadway, Brainerd PHONE 482

Branch—712 No. 8th St. Phone 1169

An Amazing Success Feen-a-mint

The Cheering LAXATIVE

Chew It Like Chewing Gum

A pleasure to use. Very efficient. Children love it. No taste but that of sweet mint. The most popular laxative because it's a "satisfier." 15c and 25c.

LIVESTOCK, PRODUCE AND GRAIN MARKETS

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

Chicago, Mar. 20.—(By Department of Agriculture)—HOGS—Receipts, 23,000. Market opened slow

Impatient Griselda

by Dorothy Scarborough

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

WHEN Lilith Holden died and left the infant Lilith, Guinn, her husband, married Irene Robeline, who had been in love with Guinn. For twenty years Irene worked and slaved as the wife of the handsome Texas minister. The love she hoped to earn she found was given wholly to the beautiful grown-up Lilith. As Guinn spoiled this blonde image of the dead Lilith, Irene buried her grief in ministering to her own children, Tina, Ross, Lundy and Patricia, who were secondary in their father's affections. After college Lilith, given a year to study music in New York, fell in love with Bill Chester, scion of wealth and family tradition. At home Tina wearing Lilith's cast off clothes, which failed to hide her dark gypsy-like beauty, becomes engaged to a handsome lad, Dan, beloved by all the family. Lilith, seeking only her own selfish ends, breaks her engagement with Roger Devereux, Texas boy, when Bill promises to end his betrothal to Sally Burton, society girl. Before sailing for Paris where his rich grandfather has demanded his presence, Bill madly in love with Lilith devotes his last week to her. Before sailing she seals her love by giving herself to him. Lilith spends her days re-reading Bill's cables confirming his love. But in Paris he agrees to marry Sally at his grandfather's command. Lilith is stunned with the message, "Sally and I were married this morning. Forgive me and forget." Lilith for the first time learned grief. She threw herself into her music study. Then came an offer of a Winter in Paris with Vivien Winthrop, an opportunity to wither Bill with scorn. But a doctor's visit ends all. Lilith is to have a child. She moves to an unknown address.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER LVII.

It was March, and Irene was busy in her garden. Borehead, her short blue-lined dress making a spot of color against the green, she dug trenches for violets. She luxuriated in the feel of the sun on her head, the crumble of damp earth in her fingers, in the sense that she was one with growing things. She glanced appreciatively around her. The buds on her rose bushes were swelling, and in April would be a mass of bloom. Guinn sometimes laughingly said, "I couldn't accept another call, for Irene couldn't be dragged from her flowers here."

"But I'd find or make another garden, wherever we went," she told him. "I need a garden to keep me going."

Now she was her most joyous and optimistic self while she was at work among the flowers. Problems and worries lost themselves in the ground she turned up, became sterilized in the sunshine, blown away by the breeze. Now she was singing a half-tuneless rigamarole, and waved an earthy hand toward Will Lundy as he drove up in his car.

"Come in and see my garden," she called.

Guinn appeared on the porch at that moment. "Yes, come in, do." The two men went into the house and Irene followed them, to wash her hands.

"I'm never fit for society in Springtime," she apologized, when she joined them later in the living room, where Tina and Dan were having a cup of tea. "I neglect husband, children, church and house for my garden."

"Yes, I can't get her excited over my hope chest," Tina accused her. "I don't believe she'd care if we eloped tomorrow, without any grand wedding."

"That would be fine," she said gaily.

"Let's try it," Dan proposed. "Don't you dare!" Guinn challenged him. "I don't intend to have both my big girls gone at once."

Dan's father had died in January, and Dan had begged to have a quiet wedding soon after that, so that he and Tina could start on their trip around the world, but Guinn had opposed it so vehemently that the plan had been given up.

"You don't know I'm living when Lilith is here," Tina had complained. "Now you only think of me to bust up my wedding!"

Guinn turned to the doctor now. "Will, did you see Lilith on your trip to New York?"

"Just had a glimpse of her. I tried to bring her home with me, but she wouldn't come. She wasn't looking well."

"She's overworking," he said anxiously. "New York seems to have gotten her. She's overstrained her year already, but I can't get her to say when she's coming home."

"I wish she would come home," said Irene soberly. "Her letters don't sound as if she were having a good time. She bubbled over with glee when she first went up there. Now her letters are mechanical."

"Well, she can't stay permanently on two thousand dollars," Guinn concluded, hopefully.

Soon Dan and Tina started off for a ride, and Guinn departed to see a sick church member. Will Lundy stayed on chatting with Irene.

When the two cars had rumbled out of hearing, Irene turned to him. "Tell me everything about Lilith. Something's wrong, isn't there?"

"Yes," his eyes refused to meet hers.

"What is it, Will?" she asked sharply.

He hesitated, fumbling with an empty teacup.

"Has she failed in her music or been disappointed in love—or what?"

"I saw her just once," he answered, picking his words with care. "I'd gone to the address you gave me, but she had left there, had had her mail forwarded. I had to use detective methods to find her."

She leaned forward abruptly. "Yes?"

"She's—she's sick, Irene."

"Why doesn't she come home then?" Her eyes were frightened.

"She can't, very well." He gazed out of the window.

"Why?" Irene jerked out. "Is she ill?"

"Yes, yes! What is it?"

"She's going to have a child."

"Oh, merciful God, no!" She sprang to her feet, striking her hand against the tea wagon and crashing a cup to the floor.

"Steady, Irene, steady." He put his arm about her shaking shoulders and forced her into a chair. She stared at him with wild eyes. "You must be mistaken. Will! It can't be true!"

"I'm a doctor, Irene."

"Yes, yes, I know." She looked at him piteously, her eyes begging him to take back his words.

"I—hate to tell you this, but you had to know it," he muttered. "What did she say, Will?"

"Nothing. I asked her in a general way if I couldn't look after her for a while; but she looked scared and desperate, like a rabbit caught in a steel trap, expecting you to knock it on the head. Said she was all right, didn't need anything. Just had overworked."

"Couldn't you urge her, Will?"

She herself felt like a rabbit caught in a steel trap, looking for her life to knock her on the head.

"I did." His tone was somber, his face haggard. "But she looked so wild. I was afraid she'd jump out of the window if I pushed her. I thought I'd better let her think she'd fooled me. That gives us time to decide what to do."

She pressed her hand to her forehead. "You haven't any idea—why?"

"I know nothing, I thought maybe you would have an inkling from her letters."

"She hasn't been going out much of late. Up till September her letters were sparkling, then the sparkle died."

"Yes, I judge so." He gave a heavy sigh. His face, usually so ruddy with healthy color, now seemed drawn and pale, and the lively gleam of his coppery hair seemed dulled.

"But what are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll.

"I've been trying to think. That's why I beat it back hotfoot to you, so we might plan together. If I could have handled it myself, without letting you know, I'd have done it. You know that, don't you, Irene?" His eyes besought her to understand.

"What are we going to do?" she shrilled in a voice that sounded like that of a squeaking doll